

Annual Faculty Reception Tonight In College Church

PROGRAM FEATURES ONE-ACT PLAYS,
SPEECH AND MUSICAL NUMBERS.

According to tradition, of many years, the York College faculty will hold a reception for the student body tonight at the Evangelical United Brethren Church parlors. Miss Irene Shipley of the Expression department will preside over the program which will consist of musical numbers, a short address, and two one-act plays.

President Walter E. Bachman will deliver the welcome address, after which the play "Luncheon For Six" will be presented with the following cast: Mrs. Ruth Auchard of the English department; Mrs. Ruth Zerwekh; the Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of Public Relations; Mrs. Letha Leaming; Prof. James Koontz of the music department; and Prof. Bruce Herrick of the Philosophy department.

A piano solo by Miss Maybelle Taylor, librarian, will precede the second one-act comedy, "One Must Marry". The cast will include Coach and Mrs. R. E. Tonkin; Dr. G. T. Savery, college church pastor; and Miss-Jean Mattingly, of the English department.

The receiving line will be made up of Dr. W. E. Bachman, Dr. and Mrs. Weidler, and Dean and Mrs. W. J. Karraker.

The general reception committee selected the following individuals to serve as chairmen of the various committees: refreshments, Miss Zeldia Wakelin; invitations, Prof. R. E. Townsend; program, Miss Irene Shipley; decorations, the Rev. Vaughn Leaming; and receiving line and ushers, Dr. D. E. Weidler.

Bonnie Ackland, Harriet Thomas Presented in Recital

Harriet Thomas, junior, Topeka, Kans.; and Bonnie Ackland, junior, Ames, Ia.; pupils of Miss Irene Shipley, were presented in a joint recital on April 12. Their program included "Date Exchange" by Timothy O'Brien; "Queen Esther", a cutting from the Bible, read by Miss Thomas; and "Wuthering Heights" by Emily Bronte and "Mr. Pickwick Engages a Man Servant" by Charles Dickens, read by Miss Ackland.

Miss Thomas and Miss Ackland were assisted by the Junior Trio, Barbara Blauch, York; Wanda Miller, Russell, Kans.; and Mary Alice Riggs, Ames, Ia.; who sang "Clair de lune" by Claude Debussy and "The Haulers of the Volga", a Russian Folk song.

Progress on New Building Becoming Apparent

The "big hole", excavated west of the library for the new dormitory, has begun to take on a look of organization. Large holes for the footings have been dug, and trenches for the sewer pipes cut at various angles across the ground.

The main sewer pipe has been laid and the project is waiting only the needed steel before the concrete work is started.

On the west side of the excavation stands a large white shed. Speculation as to its purpose ranged from a possible private domicile for the matron to a chicken house. It is actually the time-keeper's shack, and is used for storage of tools.

Students are watching a dream of years become a reality.

College Gratitude to Ladies' Auxiliary

The college wishes to express sincere gratitude to the Ladies' Auxiliary of Kansas under the leadership of Mrs. C. L. Miller, Russell, Kansas, who made the redecoration of the Hulitt Hall reception room a special project.

The following churches contributed: Alexander, Big Springs, Clayton, Concordia, Hoisington, Independence, Kismet, LaCrosse, LeCompton, McCracken, Meriden, Mount Hope, Niles, Norway, Robinson, Rock Creek, Russell, Salina, Scandia, Topeka, and Valley Center.

Mr. Riggs Presented In Senior Recital

Richard Riggs, tenor, Ames, Ia., was presented in his senior recital recently. His accompanist was Miss Wanda Miller, junior, Russell, Kansas, and he was assisted by Fred Vorce, sophomore, Brookfield, Mo., at the piano. Mr. Riggs is a student of Dean Charles Amadon, and both pianists are students of Miss Eda Rankin.

Mr. Riggs' program was as follows: "If With All Your Heart," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," "Think On Me," Scott, "The Lotus Flower," and "By Moonlight," Schumann, "Elegie," Massenet, "Wohin," and "Erlkonig," Schubert, "Celeste Aida," from Verdi's "Aida," "I Came With A Song," LaForge, "I Loved A Lass," Rolef, "Pilgrim's Song," Tchaikowsky.

Ushers for the occasion were Betty Riggs, sophomore, Merle Riggs, junior, both of Merna, and Mary Alice Riggs, junior, Ames, Ia.

Over 200 Guests Attend College High School Day

Program Includes Picnic, Vocational Guidance, Concert, and Speeches

If we are to be educated "we must think without confusion clearly, love our fellowmen sincerely, act from honest motives purely, and trust in God and heaven securely." This was the substance of President Walter E. Bachman's address to the assembly of high school seniors and sponsors at the annual High School Day program last Friday. Other highlights of the day included varied programs, sectional meetings, a picnic dinner, and the college a cappella choir concert. Approximately 213 visitors registered at the college church.

"There are eight trophies one can win at college," declared President Bachman. "They are health, truth, goodness, beauty, work, satisfaction, friends, and God." Other numbers on the program included group singing led by Jane Martin, senior of Concordia, Kans.; invocation, Dr. D. E. Weidler, head of the education department; singing by the Junior Girls' Trio, Wanda Miller of Russell, Kans., Barbara Blauch of York; Mary Alice Riggs of Ames, Ia.; a reading by Hope Howland, senior of Kansas City, Kans.; and introduction of sectional group leaders.

Medical Degree to Winifred Smith, '44

Winifred Smith, '44, received her doctor of medicine degree from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine on April 4. Miss Smith is the second woman graduate of York College to receive a M. D. degree. Dr. Lydia Schaum, '13, the first woman graduate to become a doctor, spent a number of years in China as a medical missionary. Dr. Smith will start her internship at the University of Nebraska hospital in July. She is now working at St. Mary's Hospital in Enid, Okla., her home town.

A recognition service for Dr. Winifred Ruth Smith was held at the Harford Memorial Evangelical United Brethren Church in Omaha on April 4. The Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of public relations of York College, told of her work while here at college. The main address was presented by the Rev. W. P. Watkins, superintendent of the Evangelical United Brethren conference of Nebraska. A letter from Dr. S. G. Zeigler, associate secretary of the department of World Missions of the Evangelical United Brethren Church was read. Dr. Smith plans to be a missionary doctor in China after completing her internship.

Attending the graduation services on York College were Ethel Brooks, Cedar Rapids, Ia., Eunice Goodrich, Portland, Ore., seniors, Gwendolyn Wade, and Carolynn Meeker, Enid, Okla., sophomores. Friends at York College take this opportunity to congratulate "Winnie" and wish her much success in her work ahead.

College A Cappella Choir Leaves Tomorrow on Tour

New Robes Will Be Initiated and 1500

Miles Will Be Covered in Chartered Bus by Singers

With new robes over one arm, books under the other, and the home concert behind them, the York College a cappella choir will leave tomorrow by chartered bus on a 1500 mile tour of four states.

During the next ten days, the choir will sing in thirteen towns. Appearances are scheduled in twelve churches, two junior colleges, two radio stations and several high schools.

New robes arrived just in time for the formal concert last Friday. They are royal blue spun wool with white satin stoles. The front is closed by a zipper. The York College emblem will be applied to the robes later.

Under the direction of Prof. James Koontz of the music department, the first formal concert of the a cappella choir was given in the city auditorium as the closing event on High School Day. The choir in their new robes with colored lights played on them brought an audible sigh from the audience of two thousand.

The first appearance of the choir on tour will be in the Concordia, Kans., church on Friday, April 16. The next day includes a radio broadcast over station KFAL at 1:00 P. M. in Salina and an appearance in the church. Sunday, the choir will sing in Hutchinson and Wichita, Kansas. The next day the choir will go into another state, Oklahoma. Appearances in Oklahoma are: Monday, April 19, Alva; Tuesday, Tulsa; Wednesday, Bartlesville; Thursday, the choir will sing for two junior colleges, Coffeyville Junior College and Parsons Junior College, both in Kansas. The Friday appearance will be in Iola, Kansas, church. Saturday the choir will sing for the Topeka District Youth Rally at Topeka. Concerts at Kansas City, Mo., and Robinson, Kans., on Sunday, April 25, will complete the chorus tour.

The home concert program included twelve choir numbers, two numbers by the girls' glee club, two vocal solos and one piano solo. The program was: "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heav'nly Light", "Thee With Tender Care I'll Cherish", "Adoramus Te, Christe", and "The Lord is My Shepherd" by the choir; "My Johann" by Opal Anderson, sophomore, York; "Holy Lord God", "Cherubim Song" and "Listen to the Lambs" Barbara Blauch, junior, York, was soloist on the last number by the choir; The girls' glee club, directed by Wanda Miller, junior, Russell, Kans., and Barbara Dick, sophomore, Du-Bois, sang "Sweet and Low" and "There's a Great Camp Meeting"; Prof. Bruce Herrick of the religion department played two piano numbers, "Schertzo" and Gershwin's Prelude, No. 3. The choir then sang three folk songs, "Bluebirds", "Early One Morning", and "Peasant and His Oxen"; Dick Riggs, senior, York, sang "I Loved a Lass"; "Lost in the Night", with Glenna Auchard, freshman, Alexander, Kans., as soloist, and "Lullaby of Life" were the concluding choir numbers.

Several numbers, including two Negro spirituals, will be added to the repertoire of the chorus on tour. Solos and trio numbers will be included in the concerts.

The Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of public relations, who will accompany the chorus, has planned a tour of interesting sights along the way. Mrs. Leaming, (Letha Robinson, ex-'40) a registered nurse, will accompany the group and serve as a "source of help in time of trouble". Mr. Herrick will also accompany the group—both in their travels and in their music.

This is the first chorus tour since 1941 when the chorus went east to the General Conference. During the interim the chorus has been active in presenting an operetta, "The Bohemian Girl", the traditional Messiah concerts, and programs for many civic groups and various college functions.

OFFICE WHEELS GO 'ROUND

College secretary, Mrs. Ray Issacs, does some explaining to Ernestine Garcia and Oren Reger.

"College office. No, I'm sorry. She's not in yet . . . Three excuse blanks? Surely . . . No, I haven't seen your French book. I'm sorry . . . Four stamps? You must have gotten ambitious! . . . College office. Mr. Zerwekh? If you'll hold the phone, I'll run down to the lab. and get him for you . . . Here's a whole book of time sheets for you . . . Ten excuse blanks? You're welcome . . . You want four? . . . College office. Mr. Koontz? He went upstairs just a minute ago. If you'll hold the phone, I'll see if I can find him . . ."

And thus it goes ad infinitum.

Between phone calls, questions, errands, and what-not, Mrs. Ray Issacs, office secretary, types letters, cuts stencils, sorts mail and does any other job asked of her. During one week she was even requested to keep track of the work she did. Results show that every hour, on the average, she answers three phone calls, gives away five excuse blanks, runs one errand, types half a letter, and sells three stamps, besides many other varied jobs.

Chapel Talks

Outline of God's Plan

"They Will Reverence My Son" was the subject of a chapel talk by Dr. D. E. Weidler, Education Department. He stated that he used the parable spoken on Monday of the Holy Week because it was an outline of the plan of God for the redemption of humanity. It shows how He sent prophets and others to announce His will and finally He sent His own Son whom they rejected. For us reverence and devotion to His will assures our salvation.

The Cross—A Symbol

The cross as the symbol of Christian religion and its meaning of punishment, tragedy, love, and service were points stressed by Professor Bruce Herrick, Philosophy and Religion department, at a chapel meditation.

We can answer His call, we can take up our crosses, and we can help Him to establish His kingdom on earth. "Give us the strength to serve the King of Kings," he concluded.

The Galilean Accent

"Crown Him Lord of our life and we will get the Galilean accent" stated President Bachman in the last of the Holy Week talks. We may get that accent by three words: Come in the spirit of humility; Tarry until you have power from on high; and Go ye and make disciples in all nations.

Needed Faith

"Is your faith sufficient to cause you to act?" asked Rev. J. F. Wichelt, Evangelical United Brethren Church, Lincoln. The trouble with most of us is that we accept love, truth, kindness, and goodness, but we do not act on them. We must dream dreams of truth and light and love with God.

"We don't always need something new and different. If we use what we have and follow God's light we will progress. Turn out the lights around us and follow the light," he concluded.

The Hunger of the Divine Soul

"If man will live, he must satisfy a divine soul", Prof. J. C. Morgan, Religion department, stated in a recent chapel address. Jesus answered the tempter with "Man shall not live by bread alone" and nations cannot live either with out Him. Babylon, Rome, Egypt, and Greece with all their power perished by corruption.

New Y. C. Student Wears Fur Coat

A small white dog with brown spots eagerly seeking higher education was the new addition, the other day, to Prof. Doty's afternoon Economics class.

The bell rang and the small white dog, with brown spots ambled into room 109 holding his head high. He went around acquainting himself with the students, who, to his astonishment, called him by various names.

Then Prof. Doty walked in and like his fellow students, the newcomer focused his attention upon the professor and casually walked to the front of the room to lie down beside the desk.

Seniorities . .

Spring . . . when a senior's fancy turns to thoughts of caps and gowns and graduation. Shown here are six seniors waiting for June 2 and the years to come.

What is on the agenda for these seniors after graduation? The profession of teaching will claim four—Glen Elloe, Eunice Goodrich, Jim Conway and Ruth Sanchez. Edie Huebert will continue as housewife and mother. Gerald Edgar will go to graduate school to study journalism.

Extra-curricular activities interest all seniors. Elloe and Conway are athletes. "Sarge" played football and "Tex" was on the football and basketball teams. Eunice spends much of her time appearing as a pianist on many programs. Edie is president of Alpha Psi and vice-president of Zetas, therefore she spends a majority of her time planning programs. As business manager of the Sandburr, Edgar is gaining practical experience towards his journalistic career. Elloe's spare time is consumed by entertaining his small and listening to the right radio programs. Ruth Sanchez spends her time with Ray — her fiance.

York College will remember Tex Conway for his witticisms (wise and otherwise), Glen Elloe for his punctuality to class, Edie Huebert for her majorette subjects, Eunice Goodrich for her classic nonchalance, Gerald Edgar for his mimicry of Prof. Herrick, and Ruth Sanchez for her friendliness . . . What wonderful memories!

Y. C. POLITICS ARE . . .

"Next year I am going to drop everything I possibly can and study for a change", declared Charlie, typical York College sophomore. The reason was conspicuous, for Charlie is now president of the Y. M. C. A., treasurer of one of the literary societies, is an active member of the "Y" club, sings in the chorus, is "out for" athletics, is program chairman for the spring banquet and is carrying 18 hours.

Why does this condition exist? Why are most of the major organizations on the campus here at Y. C. headed by underclassmen? The answer is obvious. Each year, when an unsuspecting freshman arrives on the Y. C. campus an "all out drive" is made to get him into every activity on the campus. The success is appalling. Then as the upperclassmen shove their jobs off on him, he starts to work without experience or any other background.

The upperclassmen, having been overloaded as underclassmen, refuse to accept any responsibilities they can avoid. They are tired of offices and disappointing experiences. They want no more, as might be expected.

We are not saying that the underclassman is not qualified for the jobs, but that he would be better qualified after a few years' experience "working up" on committees. This way he will become better acquainted with the activities of the organization and their relationship to the college as a whole.

Why don't we students do something about this situation? Let us elect upperclassmen to the positions of responsibility and give the freshmen active work on committees. By this plan, what should be the crowning honors of the upperclassmen would go to them instead of becoming heavy burdens of the inexperienced underclassman.

—Dick Miller.

Spring Fever Considered No Excuse

Yes, spring is certainly here! Already college students have been offending homeowners by "cutting" across new lawns. Complaints fall thick and fast, and the offenders always seem to avoid them, and so they are applied to a whole generation. Other comments have been directed toward students who monopolize parking spaces in the residential district. They park their cars so that driveways are blocked, and residents have no room to park in front of their own homes. Minor things? Agreed. But our reputations are being endangered by the fact that we are ignoring common courtesy.

Panthers Drop Opener

Auchard and Walker Win Firsts as Tigers Outscore York 101 1/2 - 34 1/2

Salvaging only two firsts, the York Panthers dropped their opening track meet to the Doane College Tigers by a count of 101 1/2 to 34 1/2. York's first place victories went to Denny Auchard and Harold Walker, conference record holders, as they emerged ahead of the field in the 220 yard dash and mile run respectively.

A blustery wind hampered the performers and times were slowed because of it. However, Coach R. E. Tonkin expressed satisfaction at the showing of the team and expects better results in the future.

Dick Shipman, of Doane, 1947's leading vaulter in the NCC, did not enter this event due to an injury, and Harold Walker, York's distance ace, dropped out of the two-mile race because, according to the Omaha world-Herald, "of a pulled muscle".

The golf match scheduled between the two schools was called off due to the strong wind. Summaries:

Panthers Vote Season Honors

Dick and Robson Chosen Honorary Co-Captains For '47-'48 Season.

At a recent meeting of the 1947-48 season basketball squad, the team elected Abe Dick, towering York center, and Don Robson, speedy ballhawk, honorary co-captains for the past season.

Dick and Robson were both consistent players and starters in the Panther line-up, and, in the eyes of their teammates, well-deserving of the honor bestowed upon them.

The Panthers also elected their all-opponent team at this meeting. Bauer, Peru's stellar guard, and Groves, state scoring ace of Chadron, were the only unanimous choices of the Yorksters, but Nicholson, Kearney sparkplug, received every vote but one for a first place berth. McIllice of Hastings, and Hallstrom of the NCC champions Peru filled out the mythical quintet.

The second team was paced by guards Bahe, Wayne, and Bogue, Kearney, while Meeker, Peru, Panches, Doane, and Auchard, York, all rated positions on this squad.

Y. C. Tennis Team Smashes Doane

The York College tennis team smashed and drove its way to victory against the Doane College Tigers 5-1 in the opening meet of the season for both teams. A brisk north wind governed the courts handicapping the players and slowing the games from their usual fast style.

Defending singles champion of the NCC, Bob Gillespie, made quick work of Stier of Doane in successive sets of 6-0, 6-1, while York's other veterans, E. P. Worthington and Fred Vorce, split with their opponents, Worthington winning from Duncan in three sets 1-6, 6-2, 6-2, and Vorce dropping to Alcocks by a rapid 6-3, 6-2. Newcomer to the York netsters, Don Erfourth, after a prolonged struggle downed Marek of Doane by a count of 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

York swept the doubles matches as Gillespie and Worthington combined to down Reed and Duncan in 6-3, 6-3 style. Vorce and Erfourth in the marathon of the day copped a doubles victory by dropping Steir and Marek in sets of 6-4, 3-6, and 13-11.

HI-LAIR-ITIES

By the Sports Editor

Y Club members, helping run the York College Relays last Saturday, were pleased to see many young athletes that had attended the Y Club banquet carrying the colors of their school into the various events and emerging with point-getting places. Many of these athletes expressed interest in attending York College upon the termination of their high school careers and the fellowship with these men at the relays should have helped cement the relationships between them and Y. C.

All of which brings us to the subject at hand. The York College Relays offer an excellent opportunity for us to observe outstanding athletes from surrounding territories and interest them in the athletic program of York College. Many students were in attendance at the relays, but even more of us could have been present and offered a friendly word to the participants to impress them with the atmosphere of friendliness that pervades our campus.

Followers of Y. C. track were pleased with the showing of new track material at the Doane meet. Eugene Weaver, freshman, running in the two mile event finished third and looked impressive as he finished under 11 minutes. Dob Newton, although he failed to place, showed promise in the shot put and discus. Cecil Rockhold, miler, finished fourth in the mile and boosted hopes of Y. C. distance enthusiasts for a sweep in the mile before the end of the year.

Miss Zelda Wakelin of the modern languages department at a recent dinner party in her home entertained Miss Edna Coufal, ex-'45, Mrs. Jane Caldwell Sandall, Mrs. Jane Von Wicklin, and Mrs. Ruth Spore Sterrett, '36.

Columbus Edges G. I. In York College Relays

STRONG WIND HAMPERS TIMES; RAVENNA COPS CLASS B TITLE

The local weatherman still refused to cooperate with the York College Relays as Columbus nosed Grand Island 25-24 for the Class A title amid strong wind and dust. In the Class B races Ravenna emerged victorious over Arapahoe, their nearest rival, by a count of 27 1/2-22.

The outstanding individual performance of the day was contributed by Hoppy McCue of Arapahoe as he established a new Class B high jump record at 5' 8 1/2", tied for first in the pole vault with teammate Purvis, and placed second in the 120 yard high hurdles for a total of 12 points. Top performer for the Class A schools was Rambour of Columbus as he bettered the meet record for the discus with a heave of 139' 9" and copped second in the shot put for a total of 8 points. One of the better relay times was turned in by Grand Island's two-mile relay team as they combined to step out an 8:54.9 two mile.

In Class A events Columbus and Grand Island broke even on first place honors, each grabbing three victories, while Ravenna, in the Class B competition, was sweeping five firsts, four of them in the relay events.

Of the 45 schools represented at the Relays, 30 managed to register in the point column. Several of the races were hotly contested with as little as one-tenth of a second determining the margin of victory.

Hulitt Hall Is Re-wired

After returning from spring vacation to find dust, torn up floors, and darkness, the "Con" women are enjoying the rewiring in Hulitt Hall.

When spring vacation started, the electricians began work. They rewired all of the building above the basement, the basement having been rewired last year. From one to four outlets were installed in each room. New wire was provided for each light fixture also. This eliminates the extensive use of extension cords and reduces the load on the wiring.

Formerly the amount of electricity coming into the building was insufficient to allow any ironing on second and third floors while the lights were on. Now that the work is completed, the women will be able to use all the electrical appliances they care to at any time.

MRS. AUCHARD SPEAKS TO Y. W. C. A. ON SOCIAL MANNERS

Mrs. Ruth Auchard of the English department, spoke at a recent Y. W. C. A. meeting on social manners. Group singing led by Opal Anderson and devotions by Frances Porter were included on the program.

CHURCH ORGAN IS REPAIRED

Rebuilding and tuning on the organ at the college church has begun. It is hoped that several new parts to complete the organ may be added in the near future. John W. Dulin of Hastings is doing the repair work on the organ.

I. R. C. Has Discussion On Military Training

"The morals of the Army are very low", was a point of a talk that Forrest Hergert, freshman, Alexander, Kans., gave to the IRC at a recent meeting. "The Army takes boys when they are 18, a very impressionable age", he continued. "The effect it will have on young boys who are still in need of the good effects of the home, church, and community is obvious", he said.

He pointed out that through the ages history has proved that large armies mean just one thing, war. Taking the opposing point of view Elvin Eastman, freshman, Twin Falls, Idaho, told the group that the military forces of our country had dwindled to the point that a recent Life magazine showed all our fighting forces on two pages in 14 pictures.

He said "Boys who took part in the Model UMT program at Fort Benning said that they enjoyed the army job, and that they did not feel that their morals were being lowered."

Concluding the program, Harold Walker, Jr., Santa Cruz, N. Mex., read a script of a play which is to be presented in chapel soon.

Two Seniors Attend A "College Day"

Paul Clark, sophomore, Topeka, Kans., set the distance record of traveling for Easter vacation. Clark went by motorcycle to Belleville, O., a distance of 2300 miles.

President Addresses Rotary Conferees

President Walter Bachman was the principal speaker at the recent Sunday session at the McCloud Hotel of the 120th district Rotary conference held in York. President Bachman, in his address, outlined the eight essentials that make up a harmonious and well-rounded life. York welcomed Rotarians from two states, representing 28 local clubs, in their two-day conference.

Other faculty members attending the conference were Dr. Charles Bisset of the history and social science department, and Dr. Earl I. Doty of the history and political science department. Dean Charles Amadon of the music conservatory, also a member of the local chapter, was prevented from attending by illness.

Miss Canon also announces that the organization has completed paying for the uniforms. Future plans of the group include a picnic to be held sometime in May.

REV. JOHN SHELL LEADS DISCUSSION ON SOCIAL RELATION

Stating that it is time to bring this subject before the young people, the Rev. John Shell, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, presented the first of a series of talks on social relations at a recent meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The Rev. Mr. Shell stated, "We should speak of this subject with intelligent knowledge from a Christian standpoint. The subject of social relations can and is taken two different ways: as a blessing or a curse. Chastity and cleanliness do pay."

BACHMAN, LEAMING SPEAKERS IN SEWARD

Dr. Walter E. Bachman, president of York College, and the Rev. ## Zetas Plan Mural To Complete Decorations

Plans have been completed for the painting of a mural on the front wall of the newly-decorated Zeta Hall, it was recently revealed by president Harold Walker, junior, Santa Cruz, New Mex.

The work will be done by the Art department under the supervision of Mrs. J. W. Hartsaw. The mural will portray the torch of learning rising out of the college campus, from which will radiate the various phases of the arts.
