

Morgue Featured At Jolly-Up

NEW WAY TO PICK PARTNERS

"There has been an accident, and the only way we can identify the bodies is for you to find your number and identify the owners" were the words which greeted girls arriving at the second semester annual Jolly Up sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. Girls had met at the "Con" and were escorted in small groups to the gym.

When all the "bodies" had been identified, Richard Riggs, junior, York, read "The Terrified Doctor" by Ben Hecht.

A shadow operation was then performed by "Dr. Riggs" and "Dr. Dicus" to recover a basketball which had accidentally been swallowed by "Tex" Conway during the remaining seconds of an exciting game between the "York College Crossbones" and the "Hastings Morticians." "Intern Bergland" assisted the two doctors in the operation.

Refreshments of hot dogs and chocolate milk were served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in folk games.

COLLEGE CHURCH IS REDECORATED

The sanctuary of the college church has been redecorated at a cost of $1,750, according to Dr. G. T. Savery, pastor, who planned the color scheme.

The lower tier of panels in the choir loft is ultramarine blue with the succeeding tiers graduating to lighter shades of blue. Beige columns against a background of ashes of roses in the side rooms, and cascade green in the balcony, present a colorful picture. The floors of the sanctuary proper have been sanded and refinished.

The halls are painted dawn gray and the "Mother's Room" jonquil. Dr. Savery states that in the near future the organ is to be restored and the various rooms in the basement will be redecorated.

"I Support W. S. S. F."

by "Inquiring Reporter"

Whaddaya know? We hope to find out just what queer facts college students harbor in that vast cavity commonly termed "head." The question for this week was "What are your personal reasons for supporting W. S. S. F.?" Here are the answers:

"When I stop to think about how much we have in comparison with students in other countries, it makes me feel that the least I can do is to help them in some small way to continue their education. They have been without so many things, and we have had so much." Ruth Weston, junior, York.

"I gave because I felt it was needed, not because it was a duty." Kay Van Buren, freshman, Whittier, Calif.

"We have so much for which to be thankful in our own colleges and universities. Yet, I feel that we are no more deserving than those students in Europe who are striving toward the same goal as we—that of sharpening their artistic and intellectual perceptions." Jean Schneider, senior, York.

"It is something that is really needed and it wouldn't inconvenience anyone. It gives one a feeling of really being able to help." Doris Jean Canon, junior, Albany, Ore.

"A well informed people will think for themselves, and not allow one individual to dictate to them. Therefore widespread education is the lasting foundation for peace, and W. S. S. F. will help construct this foundation." Frank Kamm, sophomore, Platte Center.

Marie Harris To Give Recital February 15

Marie Harris of Great Falls, Mont., will be presented by the Dramatic Arts department in her senior recital on Sunday, February 15, at three p. m. at the college church. She will be assisted by Wanda Miller, contralto, junior of Russell, Kans.

The program will consist of humorous and dramatic readings including a selection from II Timothy, arranged by the Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of public relations. The subject deals with Paul's imprisonment in Rome as he writes his last letter to a young minister in Ephesus.

Miss Harris, an expression student of Miss Irene Shipley, is active in many campus organizations including Press Guild, Alpha Psi Omega, Zetas, Y. W. C. A., Histrionics, and W. A. A. She is also organizations editor of the Sandburr.

Recorder Bought For Music and Speech Department

A radio-phonograph-recorder combination was purchased by the college last semester as an aid to instructors, especially to those in the music and expression departments. A start has also been made toward building up a comprehensive library of records.

The machine, purchased at a cost of $200, will receive an hour of recording at a time. It records from the radio, from the phonograph, or from an individual or group. Instructors report that they find it an invaluable aid in convincing students that they never hear themselves as others hear them.

The chorus, glee clubs, interpretation classes and other groups have made recordings. "That couldn't be me!" seems to have been the general student response after hearing the recordings. However, the students report that it is easier to realize the mistakes they make in vocalizing, and therefore it is easier to correct the errors.

Robert Jaquiss Much Improved

Robert Jaquiss, sophomore, of Brookfield, Mo., injured in an auto accident Jan. 23, is reported to be greatly improved, according to the Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of public relations. The eye specialist gave the parents of Jaquiss little hope for the recovery of the sight of his right eye, but in spite of this fact, Jaquiss is in good spirits and appreciates the many cards from his friends.

Jaquiss and Dave White, freshman of Hamden, Mo., were enroute to York on Jan. 23, when Jaquiss' car attempted to pass another, and in doing so skidded in a pile of snow causing both cars to overturn.

Jaquiss suffered a cut over the right eye and a fractured cheek bone, while White suffered shock and minor bruises. The mailing address of Jaquiss, is the Veterans Hospital, Lincoln. The Sandburr staff and friends wish "Bob" a speedy recovery.

COLLEGE LIBRARY RECEIVES GIFTS

Five valuable library gifts have been presented to York College recently by alumni and friends. The gifts may be divided roughly into two types: recreational reading material and standard reference works.

Mr. H. D. Landis of Seward, whose son, George Landis, is a freshman of York College, has donated many popular volumes, some of which are Literary Guild selections for 1946. Additions to the reference library are as follows: the Rev. A. C. Core, former District Superintendent of the E. U. B. Church, presented a large portion of his theological library to be used by the college religious department; the college librarian of York, Miss Maybelle Taylor, has stocked the shelves with several important reference volumes from her own library; a generous gift from the Wyckoff estate contains many literary works important to the work of the English Department; Dr. L. Curtis Guise of Claremont, Calif., a former missionary in India, has presented a gift of approximately 200 volumes.

The college wishes to take this opportunity to thank these friends for their generosity.

Dr. Savery on Liturgy Commission

Dr. G. T. Savery, pastor of the college church, has been appointed to the commission on liturgy of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. This commission will plan the services of baptism, communion, and others for the new discipline of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The first meeting of this group will be in Dayton, Ohio, on Mar. 30. Bishop C. F. Stauffacher of Kansas City, Mo., is chairman of the commission.

College Enrollment Up

17 States, One Foreign Country Represented; Men Majority

TO ELECT 'KING OF HEARTS' SATURDAY

The election of "King of Hearts" will high-light Valentine Varieties' activities which will take place on February 14.

Extensive plans are being made for diversified entertainment. Food will be sold at the snack-bar, with music available. Other booths will feature fortune telling, telegrams, caricatures, a hall of horrors, and miscellaneous games. Movie shorts will be shown in the chapel. These activities will close for the floorshow which will include the play, "When the Whirlwind Blows" and the coronation of the "King".

Barbara Blauch Named to Board

Accepted to Membership on Mlle's College Board

Barbara Blauch, Marathon editor, junior, York, was recently accepted to membership on Mademoiselle's 1947-48 College Board. She will be competing with over eight hundred college girls from forty-six states for the prize of a month's work in the New York offices of the magazine.

Students submit three assignments each year in which they report on college activities and current campus trends. Miss Blauch states that she has one assignment still to send in.

The prize is awarded annually to the twenty board members who excel in their Mademoiselle assignments during the year. Those twenty girls become Guest Editors of the banner August College issue of the magazine.

W. S. S. F. Drive Is Underway

The campus W. S. S. F. drive is gaining momentum on the Y. C. campus as the campaign for funds is supplementing the educational campaign. Solicitors are calling upon individuals for their contributions, and a per capita total is kept before the students as a spur.

Y. C. Speakers At Nearby Churches

Representatives from York College spoke at nearby churches on Missions Sunday. Mrs. W. S. Luper, matron of Hulitt Hall, spoke at Shiloh and Harmony. Mrs. J. C. Morgan, wife of Prof. Morgan of the Classical Language Department, gave the missionary emphasis at McCool. Cora Marquez, freshman, Santa Fe, N. Mex., and Helen Sanchez, freshman, Holman, N. Mex., presented the missionary talk at Prairie Gem. A team composed of the Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of public relations, Bonnie Ackland, junior, Ames, Ia., Jasmine Ingraham, senior, Sewal, Ia., Lee Miller, senior, Ventura, Ia., and Oren Reger, junior, Angus, presented the evening service at the Geneva church.

Thirty new students entered York College for the second semester to bring the total enrollment up to 251. The student body now represents 17 states and one foreign country. Men are in the majority, forming 65.3 per cent of the total enrollment.

The freshman class adds 21 to its enrollment, the sophomores, 3, juniors, 2, and specials, 4.

The states in order of their representations are: Nebraska 53 per cent of the student body; Kansas, 13 per cent; Iowa, 7 per cent; New Mexico, 5 per cent; Missouri, 3 per cent; Colorado, 6 students; Oklahoma, 6 students; Montana, 4 students; California, 3 students; Washington, 2 students; Wyoming, 2 students; Arizona, Idaho, Indiana, Minnesota, and Texas, each one student. The foreign representative is a West African student.

Men out-number women in every class. The sophomore women are most out-numbered, for there are three men to every woman in that class, the percentage of men being 76.3. 65.2 per cent of the freshmen class are men and the junior class follows closely with 63.4 per cent men. Senior men have only a weak hold on their majority with a percentage of 52.9.

The freshman class is the largest forming 38.1 per cent of the student body. 29.4 per cent are sophomores, 16.1 per cent are juniors, 13.2 per cent are seniors, and 3.2 per cent are special students.

LEAMING ATTENDS NEBRASKA CITY "COLLEGE DAY"

The Rev. Vaughn F. Leaming, director of public relations, represented York College last Thursday at the "College Day" sponsored by Nebraska City high school.

Universities, colleges, and business schools were invited to send a representative to counsel with the seniors and parents of Otoe county. Each representative was assigned a booth in which to display his material. The Rev. Mr. Leaming took along a supply of pictures portraying Y. C. in action, as well as books, and banners.

Woman's S. S. Class Elects Officers

Jasmine Ingraham, senior, Sewal, Ia., was recently installed as president of the college women's Sunday School class. The other officers are: vice president, Alberta Bethke, freshman, Whittier, Calif.; secretary-treasurer, Carol Mead; teacher, Mrs. J. C. Morgan, wife of Prof. J. C. Morgan of the classical languages department.

SANDBURR IS ORPHANED

This Sandburr issue is a founding, orphaned when cruel measles robbed it of its editor—mother, Harriet Thomas. It was found on the doorstep of Miss Edith Callender, faculty adviser, in a basket of copy. This "enfant abandonnee" (thank you, Miss Wakelin) was taken in and cared for by Gerald Edgar, Louis Rachow, Fred Vorce, and Marie Harris, all members of Press Guild.

To put the reader's mind at rest, all copy was thoroughly fumigated. G. B.

PACIFISM'S PROPONENT ASSASSINATED

Men leave their mark in this world by many methods: by inventions, political theories, books, and perhaps most indelibly of all by wars.

Yet recently a passing created a stir in the world that has not been felt since the death of President Roosevelt. And the man was no famous general; he had invented no new methods of destruction. His life at first glance would seem to be one of negativity.

Not since the time of Tolstoi has the world been privileged to see a man who so believed in non-violence and passiveness. Perhaps not since the time of Jesus has the world seen a man who so completely practiced these beliefs.

Death held no terror for Ghandi. He had faced it often. Not a fierce climatic death, not a blazing heroic death, but a torturous lingering shadow, a painful, persistent gnawing of the very inwards.

Time and again the British capitulated to his demands, rather than face the consequences of his self-imposed death. The Indians, Moslem and Hindu, forgot their own selfish interests out of love and respect for the wizened saint.

He died with forgiveness for his assassins as did One some nineteen hundred years ago. He died with forgiveness too, for those who would commit bloody crimes for his sake; for the sake of One who had recognized always the folly of such action.

—Warren Porter.

TODAY . . . minus 139 years, Abraham Lincoln was born. He followed a creed of love of God and love of man. Can you imagine what that creed would do for this world? Stop and think!

Engaging Thoughts

Every year, as you well know
 I report on my progress with arrow and bow.
 Sparklers a-plenty make this harvest fine,
 If I do say so myself. Father Valentine.

Deej and Dick, the red-headed pair,
 At first caused me quite some care.
 But by now I've fixed their fate:
 A wedding, two transcripts, and Oregon State!!

Barbara and Ralph were an easy twosome.
 No apparent rifts, though they probably knew some.
 Ralph's little love-bird is now away,
 But I've heard rumors it's not a long stay.

Jasmine and Lee, I corraled together
 And added to my cap another feather.
 Even now they're building castles in the air.
 Yes, I'm well pleased with this fine pair.

Floyd and Iona had me in a stew . . .
 But he didn't give her one ring; he gave her two!
 You can check this job as complete to the last detail.
 I saw to everything; from first date to wedding veil.

Senorita Ruth and Senor Ray
 Are in truth a couple gay.
 One of these days, I'll betcha', begorra,
 He may be Senor, but she'll be Senora.

I know you'll say sir, right from the start.
 That a library's a dull place to find a heart.
 But dark-haired faculty members have quite a way;
 Some Marys get their lambs, but this one got her "J".

Songbirds can be lovebirds, too, it seems.
 So I mixed up notes, timing, and moon-beams.
 This Wanda and Slush pair, is one of which I'm proud.
 But they gave me more trouble than should be allowed.

That's my report, sir; you see what I've done.
 The work at Y. C. has been lots of fun.
 I've many combinations still incomplete,
 If you'll give me another year, sir, I'll fix things up neat.

Sincerely,

Chapel Talks

By Mary K. Jackson

Farm Machinery and Food

"Farm machinery, which allows us to produce food by mass production, has a vital relationship to world food problems," stated Mr. Harry Dahlgren of York in a recent chapel talk. Mr. Dahlgren traced the development of farm machinery from 1858 to the present date.

A milestone in mechanical history was established in 1900 with the introduction of the internal combustion engine. In 1924, the first farm tractors were on their way to an unprecedented popularity, and in 1934 rubber tires for farm implements were on the market. "Easier work, better products, were the results of the machinery," concluded the speaker.

Greater Glories

"Let us not allow our eyes to be clouded by material things to the exclusion of greater glories," was the gist of the recent chapel talk delivered by Dr. G. T. Savery of the College Church.

The danger of lack of vision due to the busy lives we lead today was pointed out by the speaker. "Where there is no vision, there is little hope of understanding errors made by past generations or of coping with world-wide problems arising today," he stated emphatically.

Need For United Action

"There is a greater need for united action in this world than ever before," declared Dr. E. I. Doty, of the history and political science departments, in a chapel address given Feb. 5. He spoke of the duty of sharing with those countries less fortunate than our own.

Dr. Doty pointed out that although the UNESCO budget of $100,000,000 seems a huge undertaking, man has matched himself against gigantic problems before and won. "For what we have received," said the speaker, "we are obligated to aid in spreading physical comfort and Christian spirit to others."

REDECORATION OF ZETA HALL NEARS COMPLETION

The redecoration of Zeta Hall is nearing completion. Harold Walker, president of the society, is largely responsible for the painting of the walls and ceiling and the sanding of the floor while Mrs. Edie Huebert was in charge of making new drapes.

They Tramped These Halls

By J. C. Morgan

Merrill Day, '38, is attending the Los Angeles School of Chiropractic. He plans to complete the course in three years and hopes to secure a degree in Naturopathy as well as in chiropractic.

Robert May, '39, received his bachelor of law degree at the mid-year graduation exercises of the University of Nebraska.

The following item is quoted from the York Republican and is a well-deserved tribute: "A York boy working in the basement of Middlebrook's department store in York, selling goods and doing a bit of janitoring, came to this office one day to ask if we would try him out as a news reporter. 'I don't care anything about pay,' he said. 'I just want a chance to try my hand at newspaper work.' We took John Spore on. He proved a natural born journalist with a nose for news and the ability to write it. He didn't stay long for his sights were too high for us. After doing reporting for the Hastings Tribune and the North Platte Bulletin he went east. If you should chance upon a copy of the Army Journal, published at Washington, D. C., your eye might alight upon the name of its editor, John Spore." John attended Y. C. 1927-'28 and 1935-'36, and was a member of the Sandburr staff. He is not the only journalistic minded member of the family as his sister, Mrs. Ruth

COLLEGE COOKS ON DUTY

Mrs. Medsker (left) and Mrs. Manson prepare banana cream pies for the "date dinner".

MRS. MEDSKER IS ASSISTANT

The youthful-minded, short, black haired assistant cook in the college kitchen is Mrs. Grace Medsker, whose day begins with breakfast and ends mid-afternoon every day except every other Sunday, which the two cooks alternate as their days off. In addition to helping with the general kitchen work, Mrs. Medsker is the pastry cook, making all of the hot breads and pies.

Even though Columbus, Kans., is where Mrs. Medsker has lived almost her entire life, she claims Missouri as her native state. Having been a widow for twenty-one years, and having reared a family of six children, Mrs. Medsker proudly said, "I have four sons in the ministry of the Evangelical United Brethren church. During those twenty-one years I've done many things, one of which was practical nursing.

The principal reason for coming to York, Mrs. Medsker stated, was to be with her youngest son, Frank Medsker, sophomore. Medsker served more than two years in the army and because of this fact he and his mother occupy one of the "Kroyville" housing units.

"I enjoy my work very much," stated Mrs. Medsker, "and enjoy the fellowship of the college and the nice young people, and I believe Nebraska weather is better than Kansas," she added with a chuckle.

"MOM" COMPLETES TWO YEARS AS COOK

The two-year mark was passed last month by Mrs. Clem Manson as supervisor and dietician of the college dining room and kitchen. Mrs. Manson, or "Mom" as she is more commonly known, received the Sandburr reporter into her kitchen domain as an evening meal was being prepared and answered a few questions.

"Mom" is a native of New York state but was reared in Omaha. After several years of farming near Lushton, "Mom" and Mr. Manson, an early settler of York county, operated a thousand acre ranch near Lynch for ten years. "As the legend goes," she said, "one alfalfa field was used as a burial ground for the Sioux Indians by the Ponoco Indians.

Seven years prior to coming to York College in January 1946, Mrs. Manson operated a restaurant in Bradshaw where she lives at the present time. "Mom" drives on the average of one hundred fifty miles a week to care for her duties, "But", she declared, "I like working with the college and being around young people, since my three children are away from home."

There are twenty-five student helpers under the supervision of Mrs. Manson, three of whom are men. Mrs. Manson plans all of the meals and buys all of the food and supplies in addition to the serving of various banquets, "Y" club dinners, and acting in advisory capacity when consulted. "Mom" proudly asserted, "A new set of silverware and china and new kitchen utensils have been added, since I have been working here." The reporter discovered that if one really looks hungry, the kitchen is a good place to find a handout.

Miss Betty Taylor, '46 was the guest of Miss Maybelle Taylor, college librarian, at a recent CAGE. Since her graduation, Miss Betty has been employed in the public library in Lincoln.

Seniorities

Since it is so near to Valentine's Day, your reporter interviewed the Panther Sweetheart of the 1947 football season, Lois Shaneyfelt, of Central City.

"Fritz" is active in many phases of college life. Sports perhaps are central. She is an avid spectator and a participant also. "People who don't exercise their vocal cords at a football or basketball game really get me!" says Lois. She is president of the W. A. A. and her favorite sport is basketball. She is a member of Zetas, Y. W. C. A., I. R. C., and Panherettes.

"I plan to be a schoolma'am in the mountains of Colorado," says Lois. She will teach in an elementary school.

"Fritzie" is seldom seen without a smile or a song. Her favorite sayings are, "wheedeedoodee" and "Let's be for goin'."

M. H.

Sterrett, '36, also a former member of the Sandburr staff is writing a series of articles in the same York Republican telling of her experiences in South America.

Miss Norma J. Goudy, ex-'29, has been presented by the war department with the exceptional Civilian service award. She is statistician in the installations branch of the service supply, and procurement division, army general staff, and received the award in recognition for her work in the preparation of army and air force installation studies from April 1942 to June 1946. These studies are published and are necessary for use as a basis for supply, manpower, and budgetary planning. "The untiring devotion to duty, constant cheerfulness, and clear, concise understanding of all problems regarding the utilization of installations displayed by Miss Goudy reflect the highest credit upon herself and the department of the army." The award was made by Lt. General LeRoy Lutes at Washington, D. C. January 16. A full account of the granting of this honor appeared in the York Daily News-Times issue of January 30.

Auchard Suffers Back Injury Early in the Game

The York Panthers were crushed 82-45 beneath a landslide of points engineered by their powerful Kearney hosts. Denny Auchard, speedy York forward, was forced to leave the game after five minutes of play; he was injured by falling on his back while trying to block a shot by Bob Korte.

Kearney took an early lead and continued to build it up until the game ended. After 10 minutes of play, the Panthers trailed 30-6; the half time score was 41-18. This was the third game this year in which the Antelopes tallied over 80 points.

The game was interrupted so that Auchard could be taken to the Kearney hospital where he remained overnight. His condition was diagnosed as not serious and Saturday he was moved to the York hospital.

High scorers of the evening were two Kearney players, Nicholson with 20 points and Korte with 19 points. York's high point man was Conway who totaled 11 points.

ARE WE STUPID?

We say "Yes". We are spending four years and hundreds of dollars to earn the right to be called "college graduate." Yet we are no more aware of the pressing problems of the world around us than the Zoo specimens are of the case in which they are confined. One of the few cosmopolites on the campus gave us an excellent talk in chapel recently. In the text of his speech was a repeated reference to the UNESCO. Out of the students afterwards confronted, one-sixth had a faint knowledge that it had something to do with the United Nations. The rest had no glimmer of its significance. This is typical. The climax of the situation is that we have no idea of our ignorance. Few of us care; fewer will remedy the lack. We have within easy reach weekly magazines which summarize important events for us. Cultivating the habit of reading one of these regularly every week would help prepare us for the privilege of living. Or if we prefer, we can continue in our present state. Spend no time on the consideration of the broad scope of international events and their effect on us and other, similar pieces of protoplasm, citizens of a confused world. The next time they ask us to carry a gun, we won't care much longer anyway.

Hi-Lair-ities By the Sports Editor

Every school and every group have their "unsung heroes" and never let it be said that Y. C. is any different.

The York College "C" squad has played a great deal of basketball this year and little has been said of them. They have run up the impressive record of seven victories against a single defeat in an eight game schedule to date. Their games have been played at the college gym and the city auditorium, and one, their only loss, was played on the Utica high school floor. They have taken the measure of the Henderson, Grafton, and Waco high school teams. They defeated Waco twice. The Polk town team and a York town team both found the C squad too much for them, as did the York all-stars, and independent team from York high school.

Tomorrow night the "C" squad is scheduled to go against the Utica high school team at the city auditorium preceding the B team game. They will be fighting to avenge their earlier defeat at the hands of these teamsters and promise a good game. Those of you who appreciate good basketball will probably find the game worthy of your time, so why not come out to the auditorium at 5:30 and give these men a helping hand.

Another item of interesting aspect is the newly organized class in advanced tumbling which Coach R. E. Tonkin has organized. The class boasts seven members who will, in all probability make their debut with an exhibition on High school day. The class plans to do advance team tumbling on the parallel bars, high bar and mats. This is a phase of the athletic program which is seldom heard of and one that requires more than average physical coordination. It will be a pleasure to watch this group go into action when they present their first performance.

JIM JAMES

Jim James, former York high star, will be called upon to help fill the gap left by the injured Denny Auchard. He is one of the two freshman on the York varsity squad.

Eastern Foes Rout Panthers

Holbrook Paces Scoring As Panthers Lose 65-48

Where Is That Basket?

Oh, where, oh, where
Can that basket be?
Oh, where, where—
It must be!

Naturally we are speaking of the two-point basket (as in ball) that has cost York too many, so close but yet too far, games this season. The nerve-racking, heart-breaking, strain on the players, coach, and sight-seers causes some to wonder if Dame Fortune has gone into retirement for this year or is so busy taking advantage of leap year that she has just not come to our handsome line-up as yet. Be assured that the hero who sinks that basket will be rewarded with anything from being the King of Hearts of the Pantherettes to getting ice cream on cherry pie from "Mom".

The racing Indiana Central Greyhounds breezed past the York College Panthers 65-48 in a fast, hard fought game. Only once in this rough and tumble affair were the mighty Indiana cagers behind. After four minutes of play, the deadly accurate eye of Holbrook enabled the Panthers to push to the top side of a 7-6 tally. This lead was soon lost in the midst of an avalanche of points which was controlled by York's determined rivals.

Ten minutes of play saw the Central team in the lead 16-9, and at the mid-way mark the Yorksters were trailing to the tune of 33-21. At one time in the second half, the lead was cut to nine points, but the Indianans pushed fiercely on, and came out victorious.

Harvey Holbrook of York claimed the top scoring record by potting seven goals and three gift shots for a total of 17 points. The second place scorer, Elwood McBride of the Central club, was just a hair behind him with 16 points before fouling out.

The two referees, Cliff Bosley of York and Tom McLaughlin of Seward, were kept busy throughout the tussel calling fouls, the grand total being 50.

"In one sanatorium at Leysin, because of WSSF, 209 of the 278 students which represented 15 countries, have been discharged as cured."

PANTHERS DROP TWO

5 POINTS COST YORK TWO WINS AS MIDLAND AND PERU COP VICTORIES

Two and three point margins still continued to plague the fighting Panthers of Y. C. as Peru and Midland both emerged above the hapless Yorksters in hard fought encounters. Meeting Midland on the city auditorium floor, the Panthers found themselves looking up on a 35-33 score, while Peru edged the York boardbeaters 57-54 at Peru.

The Midland Warriors were forced to fight all the way to cop their victory as Tonkin's second-stringers carried the brunt of the Warrior attack and countered goal for goal throughout most of the conflict. The final minutes featured the see-sawing tallies which kept the thrill-hungry crowd on the edges of their seats as Midland shaded York by two points at the concluding bell.

Peru and York repeated the procedure of their earlier game as the Bobcats surged to a 34-24 halftime lead only to find the determined Panthers whittling their lead into a 52-51 margin with two minutes remaining. However, the sharpshooting Jack Hallstrom scored two quick fielders to cinch the win for the league leaders.

STUDENT COUNCIL BULLETIN BOARD

THREE MEN AND ONE WOMAN HEAD CLASSES

Class election returns show that one Iowa woman and three Nebraska men will head college classes for the second semester. Seven states are represented in the offices held by class officers.

Senior officers: Floyd Gifford, York, president; Jean Schneider, York, vice-president; Eunice Goodrich, Portland, Ore., secretary; Gerald Edgar, York, treasurer; Mary Anderson, Arlington, Colo., student council representative; and Miss Irene Shipley, head of the expression department, sponsor.

Sophomore officers: Warren Porter, Aurora, president; Ernestine Garcia, Santa Fe, N. M., vice-president; Mary K. Jackson, Adrian, Mo., secretary; Frank Kamm, Platte Center, treasurer; John Holm, York, student council representative; and Prof. Al Zerwekh, head of the chemistry department, sponsor.

RICHARD MILLER INSTALLED AS Y. M. C. A. PRESIDENT

Richard Miller, sophomore, Ventura, Ia., was installed as president of the Y. M. C. A. for the coming year during a recent meeting. Other officers installed include: Ralph Amen, sophomore, Cheyenne, Wyo., vice-president; Harry Owens, freshman, Coffeyville, Kans., secretary; and Wayne Farrer, sophomore, Sioux City, Ia., treasurer.

Aloys Holst, junior, York, was installed as finance chairman; Leslie Herron, junior, Ames, Ia., social chairman; Jim Bergland, sophomore, Glendive, Mont., program chairman; Elvin Eastman, freshman, Twin Falls, Idaho, publicity chairman; Cliff Rhoades, junior, York, campus affairs chairman and student council representative; Warren Porter, sophomore, Aurora, world affairs chairman; George Harris, freshman, Nelson, WSSF chairman; and Robert Embree, freshman, Broken Bow, song leader.

Leon Buttermore, freshman, Woodston, Kans., and Charles Emprick, freshman, Portland, Ore., were installed as sergeants-at-arms.

York College has been represented at two local business clubs during the last week. The York Business and Professional Women's Club was entertained by the following program: Miss Irene Shipley of the expression department gave two readings, "Ashes of Roses" by Constance MacKey and "Next", anonymous. Fred Vorce, junior, Brookfield, Mo., sang "The Song of Songs" by deMoya, and "Cap'n Mac" by Sanderson. He was accompanied by Barbara Dick, sophomore, DuBois.

Fred Vorce and Barbara Dick also appeared before the York Rotary Club where Miss Dick sang "Still As the Night" by Bohm, and "Bird of Love Divine" by Wood. Mr. Vorce sang "The Kerry Dance" by Molloy, and "Cap'n Mac".

Art Class To Decorate Zeta Hall

"Students of the Art Design class are beginning the study of life and composition which will terminate in the decoration of the Zeta Literary Society Hall," states Mrs. J. W. Hartsaw, head of the art department. "At the present they are on the study of different types of borders and edges."

Mrs. Hartsaw has accepted a full time position at the York High School. In addition to her Design class at the college, she teaches two seventh grade classes, two eighth grade classes, and two high school classes. According to Mrs. Hartsaw, much interest is shown in the beauty and appreciation of art study among all her pupils.

PANTHERETTES TO GO TO DOANE

The Pantherettes will migrate as a body to Doane college on Feb. 17 to attend the York-Doane basketball game. A membership drive for second semester students was held last week. Frances Porter is membership chairman.

W. PORTER ELECTED TO HEAD I. R. C.

ZETAS HEAR SPEECH ON LINCOLN

Highlight of the Zeta meeting held in their newly decorated hall was an extemporaneous speech about Abraham Lincoln by "Chuck" Emerick, freshman, Portland, Ore..

The Zeta freshman trio, composed of Frances Porter, Aurora, Helen Holbrook, Orchard, and Glenna Auchard, Alexander, Kan., sang "Green Cathedral." Warren Porter, sophomore, Aurora, sang "Without a Song."

For the current events part of the program, Bernice Dvorak gave the highlights from an editorial in Life magazine on American generosity. It pointed out that Americans are not giving as much now as during the depression and completely wiped out the idea that people are giving all they can.

The meeting was concluded by the showing of a movie of New Salem, Mass., by Mrs. Edith Huebert.

MISSIONARY GUILD

Girls' Missionary Guild will meet tonight at 7 p. m. at the home of Rowena Fahring. The theme of the meeting is "Together We Pray". Each girl is asked to bring a picture of her prayer partner. Leader for the meeting is Bernice Dvorak.

"BEST SERMON IS OWN LIFE", STATES WATKINS

"The best sermon a preacher can present is his own life" stated the Rev. W. P. Watkins, superintendent of Nebraska Conference of the E. U. B. church in a recent talk to the OBN.

He must be open-minded to all phases of life beside being fair to everyone, according to the speaker who pointed out that cleanliness is also necessary.

"The minister must be honest in all ways, loyal to his church, his bishop, his superintendent, and his congregation", the Rev. Mr. Watkins continued.

Each minister should be a lover of people and a good listener. He should be a man of faith to lead people. With these he will be a co-worker.

Mr. Watkins concluded by answering questions concerning church problems.

'Con' Girls Welcome New Residents

A "Con" party to welcome Carol Doak, Alton, Kans., and Nadeen Bochmann, Aurora, as new residents of Hulitt Hall was given by Mrs. Fannie Luper, matron, recently. After a round of introductions and an instructional skit between Ethel Brooks, senior, Cedar Rapids, Ia., an assistant to Mrs. Luper, and Jane Martin, senior, of Concordia, Kans., refreshments of popcorn and gum drops were served.

NEW ENROLLEES FOR NEWSWRITING

Four new enrollees in the second semester news-writing class have strengthened the work of the Press Guild. They are Richard Miller, Mary Alice Riggs, Donald Erfourth, and Robert Patenaude.

Richard Miller wants to put his reporting to good use in his fields of interest in the Y. M. C. A. Life Work Recruits, and OBN.

Mary Alice Riggs has already had the first course in newswriting and is once again becoming an active reporter.

Donald Erfourth's special interest in athletics aims him at the sports-writing field.

Robert Patenaude, campus newcomer from Indiana, intends to use news-writing to further a writing career which began in high school.

VALENTINE DAY THEME OF PALS

A talk on the meaning and customs of St. Valentine's Day given by Cora Marquiz, freshman, Santa Fe, New Mex., furnished the central idea of a recent meeting of the PALS.

Other numbers on the program included a love song in German sung by Maude Ruth Polson of Dacoma, Okla., and two piano solos by Clifford Morgan of York.

Dr. Savery Speaks To Recruits

"To Thine Ownself Be True" was the theme of a recent Life Work Recruit meeting led by Dr. G. T. Savery, pastor of the college church.

"Each person must make for himself a winsome and Christ-like personality," said Dr. Savery. "In this way each of us may, 'To Thine Ownself Be True!'"

Installation of the recently announced new officers for the second semester was conducted by Charles Williams, former president of the group. Scripture was read by Cora Marquiz and Ralph Amen led in prayer.

James McCormick of York, freshman who attended York College last semester, has received an appointment in the office of the F. B. I. and left for Washington, D. C. recently.
