Y. C. To Represent Hungary In Mock Unesco Session

Conference Begins February 16

Archibald MacLeish, famed poet and statesman, will open the mock UNESCO conference on Wednesday, February 16, at Lincoln. The three day project is being sponsored by the University. Y. C. will represent Hungary, and Hastings, Wesleyan, and university organizations will become the other nations of UNESCO.

Constance Roach, educational director of the U. S. commission, Walter Laves, former assistant director general of UNESCO, and Chancellor R. G. Gustavson, of the University, who was our UNESCO representative at the Mexico City conference, will address students at the conference.

York College will send five official representatives and an undetermined number of observers to the mock UNESCO sessions. Certain pertinent topics will be prepared and discussed by the assembled delegates, always from the standpoint of the nation they represent. The international exchange of surplus labor and the part of UNESCO in religious affairs are two of the subjects which will be under consideration.

The Nebraska state legislature will adjourn to the conference, and many state newspapers, as well as national news sources will cover the affair.

Milton Snow Receives Science Scholarship For Second Year

The recipient of the Science Scholarship for the second consecutive year is Milton Snow, senior, Des Moines, Ia. The award was first made to him at the 1948 commencement and has continued through his junior and senior years.

This scholarship is payable at the rate of $50 a semester to a full-time student majoring in science, who on the basis of his freshman and sophomore years in York College ranks high in the judgment of the faculty in character, personality, scholarship, and potential growth. It continues during the junior and senior years if the recipient maintains the standards of the award. Snow has fulfilled these requirements, satisfying the standards set up by the donors.

Dr. Gerald A. Dierdorff, Dr. Verne Dierdorff, and Dr. J. Scott Featherington, who received their pre-professional training in York College are providing this scholarship.

Milton Snow plans to enter a school of osteopathy in September of this year in order to continue his preparation for medical work.

Student Council Presents New Bulletin Board

A new improvement appeared in the main hall recently, courtesy of the Student Council. It is a bigger and better student bulletin board.

Occupying the center bulk of the board are eighteen spaces that have been provided for campus organizations. Small card spaces are lined vertically at each end. The left column of these card holders is for all personal notices, and the right is for notices from the office.

This rich-stained wood bordered bulletin board will be completed with metal name-card holders and fluorescent lighting.

The old student board is to be used for posters, etc., and the faculty board will remain a place for faculty notices.

Representative Y. C.'ers To be Chosen Monday

Donald Dicus Leads Pre Med Discussion

In their regular bi-weekly night meeting, members of the Pre-med club were briefed in clinical procedures by Mr. Donald Dicus.

Dicus, ex-'51, is a laboratory technician at the York General hospital, and drew upon practical experience for his presentation of clinical procedures in running blood tests and urinalysis.

Monday the student body will be voting two people to perhaps the highest honor of the year, the honor of being representative man and woman of York College.

The only absolute qualification for a candidate is that he be a junior or a senior. All qualifications that should be embodied cannot be easily enumerated, but the voting will be on the basis of honoring those most nearly representative of an ideal.

Until last year the representative man and woman were not revealed officially except in the college publications. Last year their identities were revealed at the spring banquet. This year they will be revealed in a special chapel program.

The handling of the voting comes under the duties of the student council. This year the council is setting the voting time ahead to alleviate the end-of-the-year rush and also to give more prestige to the honor by virtue of calendar placement.

This student council action must be approved by student body vote before students actually vote for representative man and woman.

22 Cadet Teachers Begin Semester of Practice Teaching

The old proverb, "Experience is the best teacher," has again been put into operation by the teacher - training department. Twenty-two prospective instructors are beginning their observation and practice-teaching assignments in the York public schools. They are under the supervision of Myron Holm, Director of teacher-training at York College, and T. R. McNickle, Superintendent of the York schools.

Practice teaching is required by law. Qualifications differ, but in general the requisite is from 30 to 80 hours of observation and actual practice teaching.

Apprentice teachers for the Initial Secondary School Certificate are Doris Jean Bason, senior, Albany, Ore.; Fred Koontz, junior, Des Moines, Ia.; Robert McGregor, senior, York; Wanda Miller, senior, Russell, Kans.; Galen Munsinger, senior, Speed, Kans.; Merl Riggs, senior, Merna; Harriet Thomas, senior, Topeka, Kans.; Ruth Weston, senior, York, and Paul Worthington, senior, Muscatine, Ia.

Group demonstrations included in the requirements for Elementary Certificates are being held each Wednesday from February 16 to May 4, inclusive. About 25 observers will visit the three York grade schools and Junior High school for the 30-minute demonstration periods.

Meet The Band

$100,000, in new band instruments which have arrived on the York College Campus should make quite a magnificent band. It was reported recently in our church literature that such was the case. Professor James E. Koontz, director of the band which gave a demonstration in chapel not long ago, found this bit of information amusing. Undoubtedly, this misprint should be corrected to read $1,000 worth of new instruments.

The band has played at several basketball games already and has a marked effect upon the morale of the cheering section as well as upon the players. When our team played one Friday evening against Chadron, the band spurred them to victory. The next evening, with the band absent, our boys lost to the same team.

Although the band yet needs much sharpening up, according to Mr. Koontz, it has already won its place in campus life.

NEWS BRIEF

Mr. Gene Jameson, ex-'49, Tulsa, Okla., introduced his bride to friends on the campus last week. Mr. Jameson won the conference two-mile run during his freshman year at York.

Today's Chapel Initiates

Miss Gretta Riddell Is Speaker

The guest speaker in chapel today is Miss Gretta Riddell from the general office of the WSSF (World Student Service Fund). Her appearance is sponsored by the Student Council through the YM-YWCA. This is the beginning of a new WSSF drive, an international organization which started in the Orient in 1937 and spread to Europe in 1939. It is for the purpose of giving relief to students in war-torn countries. Its aid falls into five fields: food, clothing, medical aid, books, and housing.

The fund also encourages student self-help programs in countries where it works. The organization cooperates with CARE and is endorsed by UNESCO and the Association of American Colleges.

To advertise support, there will be posters put out, and next week personal solicitations will be made. George Harris and Frances Porter, YM and YW chairmen, respectively, and Max Garcia and Lois Miller are on the WSSF drive committee.

Attention Y's Men

The Y Club banquet is scheduled for the afternoon of February 19th at 4:00 P. M. The banquet is for all former Y Club members and letters of invitation have gone out to all whose addresses could be obtained. Each member has been asked to bring with him one or two guests of the Y Club.

The speaker for the occasion will be Rev. John Shell of the York Presbyterian Church. Following the banquet, those present will be the guests of the active Y Club members for the remainder of the evening. The evening program will include a regularly scheduled basketball game with Nebraska Wesleyan and after-game CAGE activities.

The purpose of the banquet is to bring former York College athletes together again and strengthen the tie between them and the present Y. C. athletes. The second purpose is to contact possible future Y. C. athletes.

Rev. Leaming Adresses Life Work Recruits

Rev. Vaughn Leaming, pastor of the college church, presented some helps in personal evangelism in keeping with the work of the Life Work Recruits during Youth Week. Rev. Leaming stressed the need for personal evangelism in everyday life. A group sing of lively choruses preceded the pastor's address.

Y. C. Graduate Is Mission Appointee

"It's just like coming home," Ethel Brooks, '48, said with a smile when talking about returning this week for a brief visit to her Alma Mater. Miss Brooks is under appointment at this time to the mission field in Africa. She has just completed a semester of training in the Kennedy School of Missions at Hartford, Conn., and plans to sail for her mission field on March 10.

When asked about her recent training she said, "What I enjoyed most was the fellowship at the school. Nearly every country in the world was represented by either nationals or missionaries. The membership even included nearly all of the states."

Teaching math, composition, and some expression work at the Hartford School for Girls in Moyamba will be her duties.

"I'm very anxious to go. Since I've had this recent specific training, I've come to realize more fully the need and I'm anticipating starting the work."

Introducing Mr. Danker

Donald Danker, University of Nebraska graduate, has accepted a position on the York College faculty as a professor in the political science department. This position will help to fill the vacancy created by the temporary retirement of Dr. Earl I. Doty, head of this department, who has taken a leave of absence due to ill health. No changes are planned in the curriculum outlined by Dr. Doty at the first of the year with the exception of the substitution of an international relations course for that of labor relations.

Professor Danker, who has been assistant to Dr. Alden of Nebraska University, has both a B. S. and M. A. degree. After having held classes for two days, Professor Danker states that he likes York very much. "Everyone is so friendly here," he reports. Having spent three years in the army, 18 months of which were in the Pacific, Mr. Danker is eager to establish his wife and 16-month-old son in the veteran hut which will be their home.

York Noses Tigers, 47-39

SVEHLA AND HOLBROOK PACE PANTHERS WITH 15 AND 14 POINTS RESPECTIVELY.

The York College Panthers nosed out the Doane College Tigers 47-38 in a rough and tumble make up game. Two stars from each team fouled out to even the score on fouls.

Finding the basket early in the game, the York quintet held the Tigers scoreless for two and one-half minutes. The Tigers soon found the range and the game became anything but one-sided. York was trailing Doane at the halfway mark 24-22.

The second half was even more of a hit-and-run affair. It was in this tell-tale period that Harvey Holbrook and Gus Munsinger of York, and Don Erickson and Merrill Rose of Doane dropped out of the game on fouls. Last minute scoring by Svehla and Hedrick cinched the fray for the Panthers.

High scoring honors of the evening went to Svehla of York with 15 and Holbrook with 14 points; Don Erickson was high for Doane with 13 points.

WAYNE DROPS YORK

Holbrook Garners 17 Points As Panthers Absorb 67-49 Loss

The Wayne Teachers, after a two weeks rest imposed by the snow, came out of hibernation last week to trounce the York Panthers 67-49. Al Bahe, speedy sharpshooter of the Wayne forward wall, led the scoring with 18 points, one more than the Panthers Harvey Holbrook could garner as he tallied 17.

The Yorkites exchanged goal for goal with the Wayne aggregation throughout the first half and finally emerged with a halftime lead of 31-30. However, the liberated Teachers were not to be trifled with as they uncorked a second half flurry of points, 37 to be exact, to move into a substantial lead and coast to a 67-49 final count.

PANTHERS NUGGED BY KEARNEY, 64-62

This story lacks only three points of being on the front page. Kearney State Teachers successfully stalled out the closing minutes of play to thwart York's attempt to close the two-point gap that spelled 64-62 victory for the Antelopes.

With only seconds to go, Warren Monnington stretched the Kearney lead to four points with a lay-up shot, and Kenny Nordlund had a matching two-pointer in the air at the final buzzer. Nordlund's last effort still left the Panthers a basket short in the hectic, but crowd-pleasing tussle.

The opening minutes of the game were all York as the home team racked up eight points before allowing the Teachers to break into the scoring column. The Antelopes then settled down to the business at hand, whittling the margin down to nothing, and forging to a 31-29 half-time lead.

The second half never found Kearney trailing, but their lead varied from eight points to none, as the score was tied at least once in the low fifties.

The biggest Panther problem of the evening was Bob Korte, who claimed top scoring honors with twenty-three points. Two sharp-eyed Panthers were thorns in the Antelopes' sides, Holbrook netting 19 points and Nordlund potting 15.

The floor game and passing of Munsinger and Svehla held the Antelopes at bay in the early moments of the game, but the double threat of Korte and Marzolf was too much for the Panther defense. Marzolf and Simanek were banished on fouls for Kearney, as was Munsinger for York.

YORK TOPS WARRIORS

Midland Dropped 70-62 by Sparkling Team Play of York Quintet

YORK DEFEATED BY BRONCOS

Hastings Emerges 70-60 victor in Game of Multi-Fouls.

It was a case of too much height well employed as the Broncos of Hastings College came to town to hand the Panthers of Y. C. a 70-60 defeat. However, it was not until the final five minutes of play that the Broncos could feel reasonably safe in their margin of points.

The York team held even for the first half as every member of the team tallied in the closing minutes to bring a deficit of 34-35 at half time. After the brief rest of half time the Panthers and Broncos fought on an even keel until the Broncos moved from a 58-58 tie to a rather commanding lead.

The loss of Holbrook, Watson, and Miller, via the five-foul route was of obvious damage to the York boardbeaters. However, Hastings was also blitzed by excessive fouls as they lost Moody, Knickrehm, and Smith.

High scoring honors for the evening went to Hastings' towering center Sieckman, with 17 points. Nordlund paced the Panthers with 15, while Holbrook and Watson each potted 11.

LARGE SELECTION OF SPRING SUITS AT RUSS WILLIAMS CO.

by Harold Walker
The York College Panthers brought home a Nebraska College Conference victory from their two-game invasion of northern Nebraska by virtue of their 70-62 victory over the Midland Warriors.

Meeting the Warriors on their home ground, the Panthers settled down to play perhaps the best game thus far on this season's schedule. After taking an early lead, York continued to hold a small margin all the way. The blue and white had to give less height advantage than usual, and the two teams very nearly matched styles of play.

The game was characterized by good ball handling and openness of play. The Warriors were the more reluctant to allow their opponents to shoot and in their endeavor to block shots, they drew a few more fouls. However, fouls were not of an underhanded nature, but should rather be credited to the hard-driving type of ball playing displayed by both teams. At times the game even took on the guise of an exhibition game.

Although the Warriors drew more fouls, they timed and spaced them so that they lost no men until the closing minutes of the game. York was not so lucky, and Munsinger and Nordlund both took the five-personal exit in the third quarter. Their replacements showed the caliber of reserve strength that is often needed to pull a tight game out of the fire.

Top scoring honors for the night went to Midland's Gribble with 19 markers. Close on his heels was Harvey Holbrook with 18, followed by teammates Svehla and Nordlund, with 16 and 14 respectively.

Hi-lair-ities By the Sports Editor

AN OPEN LETTER:

Many of us think of a good sportman as a football or basketball player, but the word applies to more than just the players. It is applicable to each one of us. You and I have a job to do in making sure that our conduct at the games is that of good sportsmen. If all of us will do our part in accepting the decisions of the officials even though we do not always agree with them, this will go a long way toward making the game more pleasant and in the long run more profitable to us.

The student body influences the actions of the crowd. Our boys are fighting hard to keep the game on a high level of sportsmanship and to come out on top. Although we can't play, we can do our best to be good losers and graceful winners.

Let us each go to these remaining games and exert our energies a little less in booing the officials and more for cheering our team to victory.

—Clarolynn Meeker.

Seven Former Students Among New Registrants

Second semester at Y. C. brought seventeen new names to the chapel role. Seven of these are former Panthers, returned to complete degree requirements.

R. Branson, Tulsa, Mrs. Pauline Dado, York, Art and Bonnie King, Des Moines, Eugene Larsen, Hampton, Glen Dey, Gresham, and Eileen Teinert, York, are beginning their college work, although Miss Tinert has attended a summer session.

Sophomores Robert Jaquiss, Brookfield, Mo., and Doris Kirkpatrick, Fayette, Mo., began the new term. Mr. Jaquiss is a former student.

Dick Shapland, McCool, Robert DeBoer, York, and Rex Wochner, York, rejoined the juniors, and James Townsend returned to graduate with the class of '49.

Mrs. Trudy Brown, Garfield, Wash., Donald Gilmer, Lincoln, Doris Harris, York, a former student, and Francis Riley, York, are special students.

MUSIC IN DINER IS NEW FEATURE

"Music For Your Eating Pleasure" will be an established thing at the Con during Sunday dinner hours. Denny Auchard, professor of mathematics, is acting as disc jockey and general technician in following up student council action which initiated the project to furnish musical entertainment at meal times.

Ethel Brooks Speaks To Life Work Recruits

Life Work Recruits had a touch of home and foreign missions on Feb. 7. Ethel Brooks, '48, under appointment to the Harford Girls School at Moyamba, West Africa, was a visitor to the campus and told of the preparation she has had at the Kennedy School of Missions, Hartford, Conn., and her sailing plans. Rosella Carpenter, sophomore, Espanola, N. Mex., related customs and culture of the people in New Mexico. Superstitions and customs of the people of Kentucky were given by Norma Harris, sophomore, Martland, who was one of five York College students to spend four weeks at the Red Bird Mission in Kentucky. The thought for the evening meeting was "Millions are waiting for Christ; Christ is waiting for you."

George Harris Installed As Y. M. C. A. President

With George Harris, sophomore, Nelson, as their president for the coming year, the Y. M. C. A. installed a complete new corps of officers. A former Recruits president, and a WSSF chairman, Harris is a pre-med student and a potential missionary.

Retiring president Merwin Kurtz, senior, York, presided during the installation and challenged the association to new advances in Y. M. work. Responding in behalf of the new electees, Harris accepted the challenge and expressed a desire to cooperate to the fullest extent in making the organization a successful one.

Other officers installed were these: vice president, James Bergland, junior, Glendive, Mont.; secretary, Clair Marvel, junior, Valueda, Kans.; treasurer, Walter Noble, freshman, Inavale; financial chairman, Dean Strong, sophomore, Garfield, Wash.; program chairman, Doyle Gustafson, sophomore, Polk; publicity chairman, Forrest Hergert, sophomore, Alexander, Kans.; campus affairs, Paul Deever, junior, Parsons, Kans.; world affairs, Leo Austin, freshman, York; WSSF chairman, Max Garcia, sophomore, Ojo Caliente, N. M.; song leader, Dale Smith, junior, Concordia, Kans.; sergeant-at-arms, Keith Spahr, freshman, Loveland, Colo., and Bill Watkins, freshman, York; student council representative, Elvin Eastman, sophomore, Twin Falls, Idaho; sponsor, Lee Huebert, of the English Department.

that people hear the voice of God in various ways, but fail either to recognize it or to go into action after hearing it. "There is no real worship unless service follows," said Mr. Cook.

After hearing the voice we must have a true experience whereby a change should come into our lives. Prayer must become eminent in our lives. The Rev. Mr. Cook stated, "Prayer is the most powerful thing in the world." Finally, our daily lives must reflect the voice of God in that which we do. Rev. Cook closed by saying, "Until we place a higher value on our daily experiences we will not be able to hear the voice of God."

Mrs. F. Luper Advises YWCA To 'Build Lives'

"Girls, you need to build your lives now in preparation for the last one-third of your lives," challenged Mrs. Fanny Luper, hostess of Hulitt Hall, at the first YWCA meeting of this semester. Taking a "long-look view" at the strategy of life, Mrs. Luper illustrated her talk by telling of women whose lives were inspired and dedicated to an outflowing of service for others.

"Close the first chapter of your life so that the last third of your life will be an outflow of the other two-thirds. The kind of fruit the tree will bear is determined before the bud has died," concluded Mrs. Luper.
