

Oklahoma Conference Voices Strong Support

At the recent Oklahoma conference (U. B.) held September 4-7 at Bartlesville, Oklahoma, strong support was voiced for the continuance of York College at its present site. Strong support from the Oklahoma Conference both in students and in material and spiritual support was promised.

After Dr. Noll, head of Biological Science at York College, spoke in behalf of Y. C., many York College Alumni and loyal supporters of the college publicly announced their personal support and urged everyone else's support.

The conference adopted the goal of $1.00 per member of Oklahoma U. B. Churches for College-Seminary day and all above the given quota for the general fund will go directly to York College. This means a total of about $3,000 from this small conference as one project.

Those who represented York College came home from the conference with a feeling of assurance and thankfulness.

Enrollment

Approximately 1951-52 Level

With 167 students and a tendency of decreased enrollment throughout the nation, York College finds the count this semester, only a decrease of five students.

As usual, the men outrank the women. There are 104 men and 63 women; that is 1.79 men to each woman. Out of the total number of students, 34 are in the married bracket.

Eleven churches are represented with the UB ranking first. The students hail from sixteen states.

English, Music Instructors Enter York College Staff

Just as a new hat lifts a woman's morale, new faculty members lift the morale of a college and its students. Two newcomers to the York College staff are Miss Jeannie Lowdon and Mr. Ray Schaumburg.

Miss Lowdon is a part of the English department and is instructing all freshman English classes. She will also serve as the faculty advisor for the Sandburr and Marathon staffs. For the past several years Miss Lowdon has been employed by the Extension Division of the University of Nebraska. She has attended Hastings College, where she earned her A. B. degree, and the University of Nebraska, where she received her Master's degree.

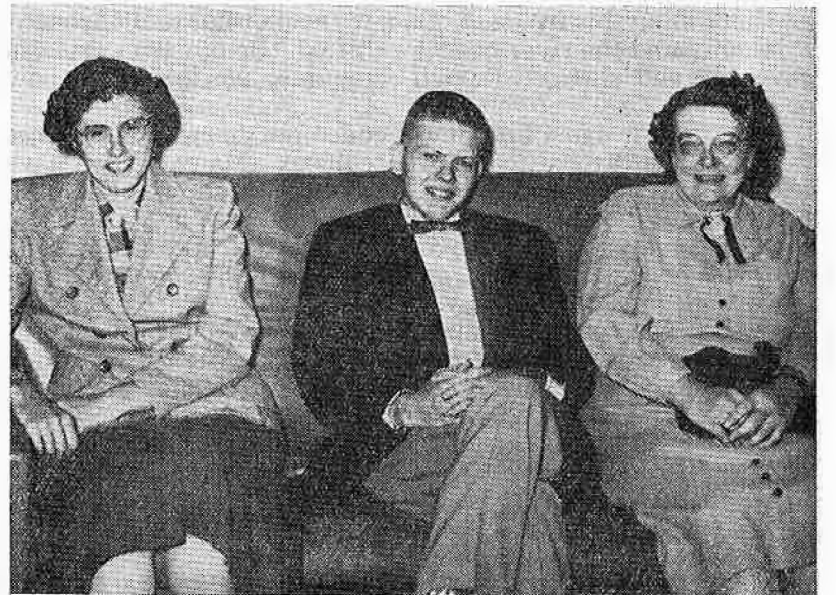

Also coming from the University of Nebraska is the new vocal music instructor, Mr. Ray Schaumburg. Mr. Schaumburg holds both a Bachelor's and a Master's degree and has taught vocal music at Diller and Geneva, Nebraska. In addition to giving private lessons, Mr. Schaumburg will have the direction of the general chorus.

Sears, Boone, Savery Accept Positions Elsewhere

Four members of the 1951-52 Y. C. staff are taking up other jobs or activities this year. Mr. Alden Sears, who has served York College for the past three years as the psychology professor, is going into research at the University of Minnesota with higher degrees as his goal.

Wichita, Kansas, will be the new home of Mrs. Charles Boone, former vocal music instructor, who has been with the staff for four years.

Miss Millicent Savery, former housemother at Middlebrook Hall and instructor in the education and religious education departments, will work as an assistant in the education department of the University of Nebraska.

Faculty, C. of C. Honor New Students Frosh Week at Middlebrook Hall

To start the activities for another school year and welcome the new freshmen to the campus, a reception was given in the dining room of Middlebrook Hall, Thursday, September 4 at 7:30 p. m. Dr. D. E. Weidler, department of religion and philosophy, presided and welcomed all new and returning students to a new school year.

Clinton Carr, junior, York, played a piano solo which was followed with an address of welcome by President Bachman. He emphasized that he hoped everyone would feel at home in York College as it had long had the reputation of being a friendly place. Gene Littler, junior, LaCrosse, Kansas, sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile" and Myron Fessler, senior, Clarinda, Iowa, played a trumpet solo, "Carnival of Venice." Both were accompanied by Ora Lee Lewis, junior, Concordia, Kansas. Janice Watkins, senior, York, led in group singing after which informal introductions of faculty and students were made by Joyce King, sophomore, Great Bend, Kansas.

The remainder of the evening was spent informally in getting acquainted.

The next evening, Friday, September 5, the York Chamber of Commerce gave a reception, which is an annual tradition, for new students and faculty in the City Auditorium at 8:00 p. m.

Mr. Robert Seigel, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, presided and introduced Mr. Gene Osborne who welcomed the group on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce. A response was given by President Bachman who expressed appreciation for the fine relationship which has always prevailed between the business men of York and York College. Ben Perri, sophomore, Ontario, Calif., gave the response representing all new students who already had begun to feel that the coming year would be a successful one.

Brief and informal introductions of the faculty and business men by Mr. Seigel were followed by several contests testing the ability of the freshmen to blow balloons and bubble gum and drive nails.

STUDENT BODY ELECTS

SQUAD LEADERS

Jack Atkinson, Enid, Oklahoma; Janice Coleman, Riverdale, California; Ben Perri, Ontario, California; Ivan Kurtz, Esbon, Kansas, and Darlene Lewis, Concordia, Kansas, were elected Friday morning to head the 1952-1953 "A" cheering squad.

"New and peppier yells are in order," stated Jack Atkinson, squad captain. "We have to watch each other to keep in rhythm and it's your job to watch us and let us lead you."

Herrick, President, Directs First YM

The first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held in Hulitt Hall under the direction of Robert Herrick, president. Plans were discussed for this year's activities, and a fine group of new students contributed to the fellowship and spirit of the organization. The following were elected to fill vacant offices:

Program Chairman, Myron Fessler.

Campus Affairs Committee Chairman, Bill Wortman.

W. S. S. F. Committee Chairman, Ed Schrader.

All new students are invited to take part in Y. M. C. A. activities.

Former Y C Prof. Hon. Mention to

Lee Huebert, Gresham, now of Kansas City, was informed that he had been awarded an honorable mention prize for his review of "Missing," by Hostovsky. The prize is awarded by the Preview Associates, affiliated with the Viking Press.

The honorable mention award carries with it the privilege of selecting a free book from the list of those published by the Viking Press.

Mr. Huebert, former English professor at York College, is now minister of Staton Church in Kansas City. He is also working toward a doctor's degree at Kansas University.

Prayer

A CALL FOR PRAYER

On October 7 a group of men from all of our church areas west of the Mississippi will meet in Lincoln to make decisions important to you. It is urgent that these men be able to think clearly, realizing the purpose of God. All higher Christian education of this part of the Evangelical United Brethren Church will be affected by their planning. God's design must be fulfilled and it is only through the combined prayers of everyone that it can be made known to them. The great need is for you—laymen, pastors and college students—to pray daily and earnestly for the guidance of these officials.

They will be doing their part —WILL YOU? ? ?

Stream of Life Governed by God

The river may be straight or crooked; its pathway may be narrow or wide. The great Missouri river passes through many samples of God's earth before she flows leisurely into the Mississippi and directly to the Gulf.

We students are very much like the river tide. Most of us are at sometime pushed in and drift along with the main current. However, along the way some of us are destined to go our way into short branches with so-called "dead ends." Let us suppose that the former is true. In our places we represent the sand or the foam and driftwood that gets tangled with itself and is drawn to shore by the grasping arms of a low-hanging willow. It may be possible later to pull away and continue with the flow. However, some are not so fortunate. Like the sand that sinks to the bottom, we spend our life thus. Just think how few who begin the journey through life's pathway come through unmarred.

Continuing this frame of mind, we cannot fail to realize that by God's hand the river beds are shifted. So our lives are also governed and changed though sometimes we know not how or why.

Over a year ago a fire almost ended our immediate chances to become an accredited church college. Many events have taken place since then which have left concrete opinions in the minds of the students, faculty and friends of YC. Amazing though it may seem, we have stood the test and are fighting evil with hope, faithfulness, and most of all, the conviction that York College is here to stay.

Again this term, the upperclassmen stand firmly for our college and see a clear happy picture as a result of the decision to be made by the board in October. The freshmen are as yet a bit starry eyed but fast falling in line with the true Christian spirit found on the campus. Of course, the business men of York have expressed their loyal support to the college. All in all, the future for YC looks very bright. Let us pray!

THE EDITOR.

Sympathetic Student Body Extends Welcome to New-comers at York College

Just imagine that there was no York College. Suppose that for some reason President Bachman announced in chapel that school at York College would be discontinued. Upperclassmen wouldn't be worried with studies and the functioning of activities and freshmen wouldn't have to worry about the trials and tribulations of freshman court.

When we stop to think about it, though, it would really be a serious loss to each of us. One loss would be the student and faculty acquaintances which become a part of us. So many of the "little things"—singing in choir, yelling at a football game, enjoying the coach's touching tactics, meeting anyone on the campus with a friendly "hello" and being sure of a similar return—would all be missed.

NCC Closes

This kind of imagining was not "just imagining" for a neighboring church college, Nebraska Central College at Central City, Nebraska. This school has been in existence longer than most of the other schools in the state. This fall circumstances forced the authorities to close the school and send the students to other colleges.

York Welcomes Six

All of them were loyal enough to stand by their alma mater until the day that it was definitely announced that it would be unwise to try to continue. Only then did they leave and enroll at other schools. Six of these students came to enroll at YC. To them we say, "Welcome," and congratulations for their fine loyalty. This type of loyalty displayed for York College would not only be good for the situation at present, but also help preserve the institutions of higher Christian education for the future.

Watkins YW Prexy

The first meeting of the Y. W. C. A., this new school year brought the re-election of offices vacated by students elected last year. Those receiving position of office are: President, Ramona Watkins, sophomore, York; vice-president, Bonnie Witham, sophomore, Agra, Kans.; Student Council representative, Joyce Klingman, junior, Green, Kans.; secretary, Delores Hammar, soph., York; treasurer, Joan Heidrick, sophomore, Virgil, Kans.

The worship service was headed by Lois Cook and those taking part in the program were, Mary Adams, Hope Clark, Maxine Miller, Joyce Klingman, and Marjorie Hall.

Enroute to Missouri, I got a big bang out of screeching to an abrupt halt, causing an avalanche of their junk to

MR. AND MRS. DARRELL ANDERSON

School on Andersons' Future Agenda

Completing four years at York College, both Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Anderson will graduate next spring as psychology majors. Darrell will enter seminary and Violet plans either to teach or work on her masters degree while Darrell is finishing his schooling. Violet has taken an education course and will go into remedial education work.

Darrell and Violet have taken up the same hobby—photography. This takes most of the free time they have. However, Violet likes to do almost anything, "especially loaf." Besides their hobby of photography, both enjoy and spend much time reading.

Violet prefers to play tennis but both would rather watch a good game of football than any other sport. Darrell was editor of the Marathon in 1951-1952.

Violet likes to cook and often fixes Darrell's favorite dish—shrimp. She herself prefers "fried chicken, of course."

Cupid' Back and Y C' Got Him

By Bill Wortman
Good morning and who are you? Because of the many new faces, this is perhaps the understatement of the fall season. It's great to be back and to see the "ole marriage bureau" in action. Just now cupid seems to be using a machine gun instead of the proverbial bow and arrow. Also this year, cupid doesn't shoot at an individual—here at YC he just gets the arrow through the door in Middlebrook and lets mother nature take over.

On the domestic scene YC seems to have out-manuevered itself. For a long time the males of the campus have asked for more and better looking gals; this year, with the best crop in many seasons, we have only two for yell leaders.

Yep, the other three are boys. Either we've got so many girls that they chose the boys or a course given by the birds and bees should be offered to teach us about the people.

The American Society for the Prevention of Mental Cruelty to People Who Suffer from Lack of Love and the Society of All Lost Dogs Should Have a Home are co-operating this year. Their slogan is, "Take home the love, only money can buy a pup." If you think a dog's life is bad, remember how many movie stars have dogs. Sometimes they say it rains cats and dogs and most everyone has read of Sir Walter Raleigh, known to dog lovers as Our Walter Collie, who put his coat over a puddle.

cascade down on the craniums of the back seat occupants. In the Missouri camp, I was parked right outside their cabin where I got full benefit of their screams when they found a tarantula in the tall one's bed—Josie, they called her.

Chevey Suffers Blow

The following week, they appeared in some of the churches of that state and it rained all week. It was a blow to my vanity to be covered with mud. Next we went to Colorado where it again gave me great pleasure to scare the liver out of my passengers by careening over the mountain roads. When we left that state, I felt like an ambulance, for the Joyce Maybelle had sprained her ankle, the Diane had dislocated her back, and the Miriam Joyce had hayfever. With much less horse-power than what they had commenced with, they adjourned for about three weeks and returned me to Wichita.

Singers Shift Gears

They had shifted into a slow second, when they came after me again on August 3. It was really quite good to see the maniacs again but I could have eaten these words on August 4. Over Kansas and Nebraska they went and to a place called Virgil. On August 31, they sang their last concert. In a little over two months, they had lost their voices, one shoe and their minds but gained experience, new friends and pounds.

Frustrated Frosh Bemoans Fate

by Sondra Lovell

Freshman Week! Well, its hardly that—
"Don't lean on this and where's your hat?"
Those upperclassmen are all around
Just waiting to get me if I sit down.

'Course, don't get me wrong, I love YC.

I was just wondering why they pick on me.

Now if I were judge, I'd be real nice

Instead of laughing while the freshmen pay the price.

And that deal about sitting way up in a tree—

I'm about to let a guy make a sap outa' me.

'Course a lot of good it does to complain—

Gary tried it and is still suffering pain.

'Course chapel hour hasn't kept us in shape.

You look like a bean, and feel like a grape.

Can't lean on the chair or Pat gets your name

So just sit light while revenge racks your brain.

Then no make-up on Monday sure goes over;

And with my hair not combed I look like Rover.

But as they'll tell you, it's all in fun.

Your mind recovers but your day stays numb.

Frosh Initiation Begins

Freshmen initiation began officially with the Jolly-Up at 7:30 p. m., September 12, with all freshmen wearing their clothes backward to carry out the theme of the event, which was "backwards".

Patricia Chaney, sophomore, Whittier, California, began the evening by bidding everyone goodnight. This was followed by the closing speech given by Coach Mark Haight. Refreshments were next served cafeteria style (to the boys first).

After playing several games the freshmen carried out the age-old tradition by rendering the college song. On behalf of the YWCA and YMCA, Bob Herrick, senior, Concordia, Kansas, read the greeting.

One of our faculty members, who has just come back from a trip to Europe, reports that over half of the homeless on the continent have no homes. She also said many people there sleep on boxes but that didn't impress the students much for what could be harder to sleep on than those goofy one armed chairs they give us.

LWR Future Wise

Ed Schrader, San Bernardino, California, spoke at Recruits Monday night, on the purposes and aims of the Life Work Recruits. He gave a review of past duties performed, the present officers, and future ambitions of the organization.

The song service was led by Bill Herrick, Concordia, Kansas. Kenny Wilson, Salina, Kansas, read the scripture and led the group in prayer.

1952 Y. C. Football Schedule

Football season opens Friday, September 19, with Friends University here. Kick-off time for all home games is 7:45 p. m.

The eight game schedule is as follows:

- Sept. 10—Friends Uni., here
- Oct. 3—Concordia*, here
- Oct. 10—Dana*, away
- Oct. 17—Dakota Wesleyan, here (Homecoming)
- Oct. 24—Yankton, away
- Oct. 31—Bethany, away
- Nov. 7—Tarkio*, away
- Nov. 15—Sioux Falls, here

* Starred games are Conference games.

Experience and York's inability to capitalize on breaks gave Friends University of Wichita, Kansas, 20-7. Friends drove 96 yards for their first score. This drive featured a vicious ground attack with Downing getting the score. The first quarter ended with the score 6-0.

Midway in the second period the Quakers took to the air and then bulled their way across from the 3 yard line in two plays. They made the extra point and the score was 13-0. In the last minute Walkemeyer intercepted Megill's pass and went all the way. The half ended with the score 20-0.

After a scoreless third period, a Megill to Thorson pass clicked and Watkins made good the kick and scoring efforts ended 20-7.

Panther backs Miller, Cook, and Paine ran very well with Paine averaging over 5 yards per try. The running attack is quite well balanced and as the blocking picks up, individual points should rise.

Defensively the Panthers had trouble with long runs of the Quakers. Pete Neidle did a good job along with Smith and Allen.

Other scores around the conference include Dana 26, Tarkio 0; Midland (non-conference) 21, Concordia 7.

Scores by quarters:
Friends U. 6 14 0 0—20
York 0 0 0 7—7

Friends U. scoring touchdowns—Jim Downing, Jack Huebner, Roy Walkenmeier. Points after touchdowns—Jerry Young (2).

York scoring—Touchdown—Larry Thorson. Point after touchdown, Bill Watkins.

Conference Battle

By Bill Wortman
Concordia, Dana, York and Tarkio. This is the way the sport scribes are picking the finish in the Central Church Conference. Many say it is always wise to stick with the champ but due to the shape of a football it can take some funny bounces.

Coach Meyer and his Concordia Bulldogs loom up very strong with 10 returning lettermen to fight for backfield positions. This includes Larry Keiser, All Conference fullback. The Bulldogs also have seven lettermen who will be back to man the line. They play their first CCC game here, October 3, 1952. Last year on a very muddy field the Bulldogs stopped the Panthers 25-13.

Dana and Tarkio are both potential threats but individual statistics have not come in as yet. Mark Thompson Danas' Little All-American and very fine quarterback is reported to have a broken collarbone. Last year Mark suffered a broken leg. This absence will be felt by the Vikings and a great competitor will be missed throughout the conference. A year ago the Panthers dropped the Vikings 14-0, here.

The Owls from Missouri were on the short end of the 33-0 score in the game with York last year. Tarkio had a very young team but one that seemed to boast size and depth.

W.A.A. Initiates at Slumber Party

WAA initiates were entertained by the association at a slumber party Saturday morning. The party was held at the home of the sponsor, Miss Zelda Wakelin, Modern Language professor.

The prospective members met on the Middlebrook Hall lawn at 12:05 a. m. equipped with a pillow, blanket, and tooth brush. Those initiated were:

Carol Bender, Janna Woelfe, Carolyn Keyy, Lois Cook, Maxine Fickel, Joyce Sears, Marilyn Oak, Eva Jones, Shirley Hoff, Marjorie Wilson, Helen Teter, Joyce King, Maxine Miller, Shirley Hedges, Pat Chaney, June Shields, Ruth Ann Bott.

At a recent WAA meeting, Miss Lorraine Casby and Miss Zelda Wakelin were elected co-sponsors of the organization. Ramona Burgett, sophomore, Beverly, Kentucky, was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy left by Ardith Wiebe.

College Church Is Host to Students

Games, speeches, informal singing, and refreshments are on the agenda for the reception tonight at 8:00 at the E. U. B. Church. York College students are all cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Tonkin '38, will be the master of ceremonies; Dr. Ashcraft will give the welcoming address. On the committee for this informal evening are Miss Warner, Mr. Tonkin, and Mrs. Koontz.

CHAPEL NOTES

President Bachman welcomed the freshmen and new and returning students with a fleet of ships. The president offered these ships to the individual students and asked that they use them properly during the coming year.

Beginning with the flagship called worship, Dr. Bachman spoke on the merits of each of the following ships: Scholarship, citizenship, workmanship, sportsmanship, friendship, courtship. —

"Living can have a lot of advantages," proclaimed Dr. C. E. Ashcraft, college pastor in this fall's first formal assembly. Enthusiastic living was his theme. He warned that "Man is made for growth but he can grow two ways — up or down."

Man is the crown of creation, and the capacity for fellowship with other men will make a life rich, full, and happy, Dr. Ashcraft stated. The way to gain strength is to get God in our body, in our mind, and in our soul. If we do that, he declared, "Life is worth living."

Girls with hair of four different colors were seen by Dr. Casby, on her recent trip through Europe. Miss Casby addressed the student body by telling of some of the curiosities of Europe.

Some of the "curiosities" were more thought-provoking than curious. Workers wore house slippers daily because shoes were too expensive, and a farmer who owns a horse is rich. Miss Casby said she stayed a few days with a D. P. family in a one-room home. The nine people slept in shifts. She spent some time in another home where the one room was furnished with discarded boxes.

Many sidelights of humorous nature were presented to the students. For example, Miss Casby stated that she had her first drink of beer while in Europe, then added, "Don't drop your teeth; it was completely non-alcoholic." She spoke of many things concerning customs, fashions, sanitation and sandpaper.

"The sidewalks are to walk on and the grass isn't!"

Guild Holds First Meet at Bachman's

Ten new members were in attendance at the first Press Guild meeting which was held at Dr. Bachman's home on Tuesday evening, September 7.

Editor Alta Aldrich, senior, Longmont, Colorado, called the meeting to order and welcomed the new associate members. The Guild constitution was read explaining the point system of becoming full-fledged members of the Press Guild. This year's officers were elected as follows: Diane Blauch, sophomore, York, president; Bill Wortman, junior, Woodland, Washington, vice president; Mary Schneider, sophomore, York, secretary; Chuck Chipman, senior, Independence, Kansas, treasurer; and Hope Clark, sophomore, Dumont, Iowa, librarian.

Miss Jeannie Lowdon, the new Press Guild sponsor, gave an introductory speech; Dr. Bachman told of the important role the "Sandburr" plays in the outreach of York College. Dr. J. C. Morgan, alumni historian, was also at the meeting.

Koontz Selects A Cappella Choir

Opening a new year, the York College A Cappella choir under direction of James Koontz, is eagerly putting its best foot forward in the march to another successful season. This year's membership of 47 consists of 26 former choir members and 21 new members.

New members are: First sopranos: Justine Wickam, Marilyn Oak, Sondra Lovell and Maxine Miller. Second sopranos: Jaralie Davis and Eva Jones. First altos: Ruth Ann Bott and Lavon Howland. Second altos: Joyce Sears, Bonnie Witham, Roszella Schrader and Darlene Lewis. First tenors: Ivan Kurtz and Edgar Schrader. Second tenor: Gary Bracken. Baritones: Ben Perri, Jack Atkinson and Dave Miller. Basses: William Watkins and Charles Chipman.

The choir will make its first public appearance this year on September 30, 1952, taking part in a union service to be held at the First Evangelical United Brethren Church, York, Nebraska. Preparations are also being made for Homecoming Day, October 17, 1952.

Schedule Changes; Offer New Courses

Two new courses have been added to the schedule this semester. Another course has been renamed in accordance with the state educational requirements. The new course by name is Health Education formally called Physical Health and Hygiene.

New to the catalogue is Human Growth and Development taught by Mr. Holm of the education department. This is a combination of adolescence and child psychology for the benefit of future teachers.

Also new is a course in the English department, English Grammar, instructed by Miss Lowdon. This is given so freshmen may have a stronger foundation in Rhetoric for their college work and for future reference.

Chosen to head their classes through 1952-'53 are Edgar Schrader, senior, San Bernardino, California (left front); Jan Coleman, junior, Riverdale, California, (center front); Leon Frankamp, sophomore, Scottsville, Kansas, (back row); and Ivan Kurtz, freshman, Esbon, Kansas (right front).

NEWS BRIEFS

Stone Assumes Associate Pastor Duties at Church

Tom Stone, a junior in York College, is the new assistant pastor to Dr. Ashcraft.

Tom was born in 1930 in Antigo, Wisconsin, and studied for a time at Stephens Point State Teachers College in Wisconsin. Through Coach Haight's influence he also went to Nebraska Central College in Central City and from there to York College.

As a sophomore, Tom played football and basketball but due to an injury suffered last year he will not be with the team this season.

While in Wisconsin, Mr. Stone signed a contract with the Cleveland Indians farm team. But feeling that this was not his type of profession he soon decided to work and go on to school. It was while he was in school that he realized that his life work belonged with God as a minister.

When Tom graduates from York College next year he and his wife Jean will move to Dayton, Ohio, for his training at the theological seminary.

Notice!

Anyone having the address of a former YC student, who is now in the armed service, would you please contact the Y Club? The student need not have been a Y Club member but will receive a Club paper if his address is received. Help our service men get news from home!
