

It Was Magic At The Sophomore Fete Friday

In a mystic and magical setting the sophomore class presented the annual sophomore reception February 6, in Middlebrook Hall with the theme "It's Magic." Don Megill, Alexander, Kansas, acted as master of ceremonies in the person of a great magician. He and his troupe of entertainers provided the evening's entertainment for a large group of students, faculty, and friends.

The program consisted of a girls' trio, Diane Blauch, Ramona Burgett, and Joan Heidrick who sang two numbers "Orchids in the Moonlight" and "Make Believe;" a vocal solo by David Morris, "The Green-Eyed Dragon;" "The Cremation of Sam Megee," a reading by Glen Dieren; piano music by Joyce King; a reading by Hope Clark; and a vocal solo by Bill Herrick, "It's Magic."

Dr. J. H. Ness Religious Emphasis Week Speaker

Dr. John H. Ness of Dayton, Ohio, will be speaker and counselor during Religious Emphasis Week at the College, March 15-22. He will speak during the chapel hour at the College Monday through Friday. During the same week, he will be at the York Evangelical United Brethren Church in a preaching mission, preaching every night except Saturday night.

Dr. Ness comes to us out of a very rich experience with life and is one of the best preachers of the Church. He was a graduate of Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pennsylvania, and from there he went to Princeton Theological Seminary to receive his advanced degree. He is a member of Pennsylvania Conference (United Brethren) and was Superintendent of the Conference for many years. At the present time he is Associate Secretary of the Board of Missions of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. He has held this position for six years.

He has been a friend of youth all his life and comes with a very youthful spirit. He will be open for counseling and will be at the guest room at Middlebrook Hall. He will deliver strong, basic, vital, dynamic, and spiritual messages. All the students and faculty will find him a great friend. We believe his visit here will mean much to the College.

March Tourney Sponsored by WAA

The Women's Athletic Association of York College is sponsoring an Invitation Volleyball tournament March 12 and 13 at the city auditorium, York, Nebraska.

The following Nebraska high schools have accepted the invitation to play in the tournament up to the present date:

McCool, Hampton, Thayer, St. Joseph of York, Ohio, Shelby, Marquette, Polk, and Bruning.

Several other teams are expected to register in the tourna-

Mid-year Grad To Replace Mrs. F. Luper As Field Repr.

Mrs. Luper Resignation Effective January 31, 1953

Mr. Lester Hazen has been employed to be a field representative for York College for the remaining part of the present academic year by action of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees at a recent meeting. Mr. Hazen, who replaces Mrs. Fanny Luper, completed his college work for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, at the end of the first semester of this year. His home is The Dalles, Oregon, where he is a member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Mrs. Hazen, the former Mabel Brandenberg, of Russell, Kansas, graduated from York College last June.

During the next four months Mr. Hazen plans to devote his time to recruiting students for York College for next year. He will visit high schools for the purpose of interviewing students, and endeavor to contact pastors of local churches in Nebraska concerning prospective students. During the first week of the second semester Mr. Hazen has been working with the administrative officers of the college in planning his work for the coming weeks.

A Vote of Appreciation

Mrs. Fanny M. Luper has recently terminated her work as a field representative of York College when she submitted her resignation effective January 31, 1953. Mrs. Luper was added to the York College staff in the summer of 1947 by Dr. D. E. Weidler, who was then the president of York College. For the first two and a half years of her official connection with the College Mrs. Luper was matron of the dormitory for women. Along with her duties of supervising the women's dormitory, she took charge of the employment program of part-time remunerative work for women while they were students in the college.

During the past three years Mrs. Luper has served as a field representative for York College,

Press Guild Plans Blue - White Day

At the Press Guild meeting held Tuesday, February 3, plans for Blue and White Day were discussed. The day is to be celebrated in March. The purpose of the day is to create a spirit of campus enthusiasm. Press Guild will cooperate with other campus organizations in the preparations.

It was also announced that new members of Press Guild are Betty Bradberry, Sondra Lovell, Edgar Schrader, Eva Jones, Virginia Goldsmith, and Paul Edie.

Sandburr Again Receives ACP First

The Editor has been notified that the American Collegiate Press has given the Sandburr a "first" rating for second semester 1951-52. The Sandburr also received a "first" for the 1st semester of last year.

Muriel Lester to Speak at Nebraska Ministers' Meeting

The State Ministers' Convocation of the Protestant Churches of Nebraska will be held February 9-12 in the Evangelical United Brethren Church of York. Miss Muriel Lester is the main speaker. Miss Lester is the Founder of Kingsley Hall Settlement House in London's East End. She has been around the world six times and is an ambassador of goodwill, world peace, and reconciliation. She was a close friend and follower of Mahatma Gandhi. She is also an authority on "Mysticism and Prayer."

Other outstanding leaders will be present at this Convocation. Prof. John Biegeleisen, Professor of Eden Theological Seminary will give a Bible Study at 9:10 a.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. President Arthur McGiffert of Chicago Theological Seminary; Dr. Arthur Miller, Minister of the Presbyterian Church in Denver; Dr. Myron T. Hopper, School of the Bible, Lexington, Kentucky; Dr. H. R. Heinger, President of Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville, Illinois; Dr. Roy B. Deer, Council of Missionary Cooperation, American Baptist Convocation; and Dr. William E. Scholes, Minister of Migrants, National Council of Churches will help to make this Convocation very profitable to the Protestant Churches of Nebraska.

ment, and a few teams have had to refrain from entering because of conflicts in dates.

Jolly-Up on Wheels Considered Success

The second semester Jolly-Up was one of the main features of the recent YMCA sponsored activities. This was in the form of an all-school skate held at the Wellman rink here in York. As the intramural basketball program comes to a close, the YM is considering sponsoring more all-school skates.

At the last regular meeting of the YM, held January 29, the officers for the second semester were installed. Officers selected were Myron Fessler, president; Tom Stone, vice-president and program chairman; Dean Hollinger, secretary; Albert Panec, treasurer; Ivan Kurtz, chorister; and Joe Wampler, faculty adviser.

This organization is doing much to foster more and better campus activities. Let us all do our best to help them.

Upperclassmen Re-instate Officers; Freshmen Elect Dillard Griffith

With the starting of the second semester, the classes were given a chance to elect new officers. All three upper classes, those to re-instate the officers of the first semester, with Edgar Schrader, Janice Coleman, and Leon Frankamp, heading the senior, junior, and sophomore classes, respectively. The freshman class elected new officers, however. They are as follows:

OFFICE NOTES

Mrs. James Koontz will entertain the faculty women at her home, February 13 at 8:00 p. m.

The party will be an informal get-together principally for the purpose of getting better acquainted.

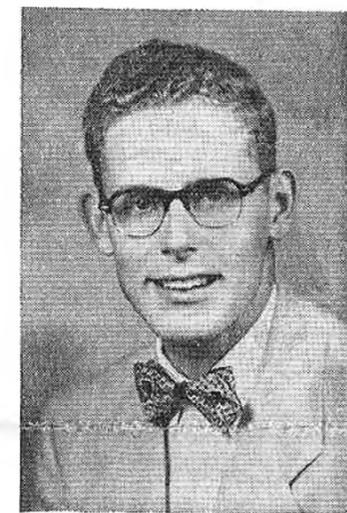

Second semester is under way with a student enrollment of 148. Three students graduated, and several went into service, making the enrollment dip slightly. This was anticipated, however, with the draft program as it is.

YW Members Are Invited to Banquet

YWCA president, Ora Lee Lewis, reports that the organization's annual banquet will be held Friday, February 20, at the Evangelical United Brethren church.

However, this year, the group decided that the affair will be a sacrificial meal. Instead of a regular banquet dinner, the girls will pay sixty-five cents for a light lunch. Although the entire program is not yet planned, there will be installation of new officers.

Any members of YWCA, either from the college or York, as well as the mothers of the girls, are cordially invited.

and her responsibilities have centered in the recruiting of students. The work assigned to her has taken her into a number of states, including Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa, Colorado, and New Mexico, where she has interviewed students and their parents about the opportunities and responsibilities of a college education. She has talked in many churches, summer camps, conferences, and high schools, as well as having appeared before many local church organizations. Mrs. Luper says that even though her official connections with York College have ended, she will always be boosting for the College.

There and Here

Everybody, everywhere is recovering from finals, registration, and the shock of new classes and professors. This phase of college life is peculiar to every campus!

THE DOANE OWL announces that four Doane students will be honored by appearing in the national publications, WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES. All four of these Crete seniors belong to the "male element." YC's contributions, Myron Fessler and Chuck Chipman, seem to confirm the fact that the fellows are receiving their share of recognition this year.

After two tussles with Nebraska Wesleyan University, the Panthers are aware of the fact that Don Boldebuck is a big boy. At 6'11", he is getting up in the world of sports. On the other end of the yard stick is Don's teammate, Leroy Seng, who measures 5'8". Matching this figure is YC's Jim Ekart and trying hard for the high mark is 6'4" Jack Kiser.

Dillard Griffith, Broken Bow, Nebraska, is the new freshman class president.

Men As Examples . . . Lincoln . . . Washington

by Jack Atkinson

One of Abraham Lincoln's greatest characteristics was the lack of self-pity. He never felt sorry for himself or resigned himself to fate. Neither his childhood nor his early political career was promising, but he never gave up to discouragement. He had a constant will to improve life and himself with it! He believed in life to the fullest and gave himself to the betterment of life for all people. This courage and stamina of Lincoln have a deep meaning for us. Maybe we, like Lincoln, do not come from the most advantageous walks of life, but we need not be resigned to the past. We should live in the present and look toward the future.

What are the potential capabilities of the students here in York College? What are the chances of students on our campus becoming strong political, religious, or civic leaders? We can rest assured that it will not be those students who resign themselves to their past and hold no hope for tomorrow! Nor will it be those students who have no trust in God or His capabilities. Great leaders will come from students who know God and trust Him. Greatness comes to those who open their eyes to a vision and become determined with an everlasting zeal to attain and make possible that vision! Students who fly banners of loyalty, hard work, faithfulness, and justness will be the leaders of tomorrow!

by Charles Chipman

Washington, father of a country, maker of a nation; all these names are synonymous with a man who dared to step out and do things seemingly impossible of accomplishment. Yet he only started a movement that other men carried on until today we have the United States of America, one of the strongest nations in the world.

These men of old didn't have a great deal of material or military strength. Their power came from within and from above. They knew "from whence cometh their help" and acknowledged it. Thus individuals with powerful personalities developed a nation with great power.

We have inherited this great power. What are we going to do with it? Are we going to turn it into militarism and violence? Are we ceasing to live by the rules of the Almighty, thus becoming only shells of ritual? Are we shaping Christianity to fit our whims, or are we shaping our lives to fit Christianity?

If we are to honor George Washington on his birthday, we as individuals should find those things that are really worth while and practice them, leaving this world, as Washington did, a better place for those who are to follow.

It's Mating Time

by Val 'n Tine

I'm Cupid—and I'm very sad
Cuz all the boys are awful bad
They won't co-operate!
It seems that every time I start
To shoot my arrow through a heart
They break a date.
Then—when everything looks right
They have to go 'n start a fight,
Would you call that "Fate?"
And if I get 'em to call a girl
And ask to take her for a whirl,
They turn up late!
But wait—there is some joy for me,
I open my tearful eyes to see
Him with a mate!

* * * * *

Cupid won't have much to do on this campus this year—what with all the couples already hitched and the others too wise to get involved! There are a few casanovas wandering around and then those who, if they had a nickel for every girl they had ever kissed, could only buy a package of gum. It takes all kinds of people . . .

But for the most eligible . . . , some-one has nominated Phil Lobb whose skill in baking delicate pastries is unsurpassed by anyone of the opposite sex.

One who can smile after averaging his semester grades is today's hypocrite.

Calling All Cupids: Man the Arrows, Full Speed Ahead

(From the two-way radio of the car driven by William Arryme, chief of cupids and director of attractions).

CALLING ALL CUPIDS! Now is the time for every benevolent cupid to come to the aid of those unfortunate females who came up on the short end of leap year. Despite the fact that many damsels around YC have already joined the sparkle-plenty set, there remain others who . . . I repeat—CALLING ALL CUPIDS! !

Valentine's Day is fast approaching, and although the girls realize that men are just like buses and if you miss one, there will always be another one coming along, the fact remains—it is highly advantageous to have a beau to tie around the little finger. Consequently, it will be necessary for every cupid to do his very best in the name of love and engagement and other such institutions held in high esteem throughout Loveland.

There will be a special meeting tonight at half-past-kissing-time in the reception room here at the station. Any of you who break your bows during the evening raid, will report for repairs. Arrows will also be distributed after the business meeting. Keep a careful check of victims scratched, wounded, and completely gone. Our bows must be kept straight.

Do your job well, cupid. However, a word of warning. Observe all the rules in the new hand-holding book. We don't want to break our safety record. And remember . . . your services are so necessary that even ONE lost-time accident might cause a disaster. O.K., Cupids (fanfare from the 17-piece band in the back seat) ON TO YC!

"You do not know what hope is until you have lost it.

You only know what it is not to hope:

You do not know what it is to have hope taken from you."

YC Welcome Four To Student Body

There have been four additions to the student body this second semester.

Among these is Mrs. Mary Ann Miller who is living here in York. She is starting out as a junior after discontinuing her schooling in 1940. She is taking an Education course with an English major.

David Morris from Dawson, Nebraska, started this semester as a sophomore. He is majoring in physical education. He completed his freshman year here last year.

Mrs. Phyllis Woelfle, originally from Attica, Kansas, has taken up her books again after missing the first semester. English is also her major. She sings alto in the a cappella choir. Bill says she is just going to be a preacher's wife after graduation.

After spending her first semester in the Bethany College at Bethany, Okla., Shirley Joan Anderson decided to come to York. She is a freshman and has not decided on her major yet. She sings soprano in the choir.

Couple Climaxes College Career

Roszella and Edgar Schrader

Ed and Roszella Shrader met at York College and were married by Ed's father in June, 1951, in Santa Ana, California. This summer they plan to work in Yosemite National Park; next fall Ed will begin seminary training, probably at Bonebroke in Dayton, Ohio. If the field is still open, they plan to be missionaries in Japan.

The 1953 Nash they have been driving recently has attracted much attention—Ed is a demonstrator of these cars. The senior class and O.B.N. both have Ed as their president. Other activities have included: treasurer of O.B.N., president and gospel team chairman of Life Work Recruits, treasurer and W.U.S.S.F. chairman for Y.M.C.A., press guild, and a cappella choir. Also the man in this family has held pastorates at Beaver Crossing, Fullerton, North Star, and this year at the Wayland Christian Congregational Church near Gresham.

Roszella is the Delta Lambda Mu recipient for 1951-52. She is secretary of the student council on which she represents the Life Work Recruits. Formerly she was a representative from the Panther Club of which she was vice-president. Other activities have included a cappella choir, program chairman and pianist of L.W.R., and press guild. Also, Roszella is secretary of the E.U.B. Church in York.

Both Ed and "Rosie" enjoy fishing; Ed loves duck hunting and also is interested in auto mechanics. Roszella's hobbies are cooking and sewing.

TV or Not TV

With apologies to Shakespeare

TV or not TV, that is the question;
Whether 'tis nobler in the minds of students to suffer
The loss of dollars and cents of outrageous fortune,
Or to take a collection from the poor, who have their own troubles.

And by opposing? . . . NO TV!! To cry? To weep? No more!
For by crying I say we end the TV question.
(And the thousand natural shocks that flash on the screen, too.)

TV's a delight, devoutly to be wished, watched, and loved.
(Speaking of love,) No more in the reception room; ay, there's the rub.

For in that room of love what an audience may come!
And when we have shuffled off this mortal pleasure,
(I here give pause;) There's the TV set,
Which makes bearable so long the college life.

Enough of Hamlet for awhile. Let us think seriously of the pro and con of TV in Middlebrook Hall.

In The Spotlight. . .

Jack Kiser is one of our returning lettermen, although he is only a sophomore. He comes from Fullerton, Nebraska, and plays center on the YC five. Although he is handicapped by his poor eyesight, he is always a good bet for a lot of points.

Jack is 6'3½" and sees his share of action in all the games as he plays on the first five for 40 minutes.

In high school Jack played basketball and lettered all four years. He was in all-conference three of four years. When you see Jack play, you can tell why he lettered as a college freshman. He has a hook shot all his own and when he gets in position you know two more points are in order. As a result of lettering in basketball he is a member of the Y Club, and last year he received recognition by the local Sertoma club for outstanding sportsmanship.

Jack Kiser

The second player who is in the spotlight is a blond fellow with a crew cut. His name is Jack Tatro. Jack is a favorite son so to speak, for he has grown up right here in York. He attended York High where he was an outstanding letterman. During Jack's freshman year of college ball he broke in as a forward on the B squad. During the season he was called upon to see more and more action and then this year he has advanced to the varsity.

Our little boy stands 5'8" which is rather short when compared to fellows 6'3" or 6'5" or even Mr. 6'11" of Nebraska Wesleyan. However, Jack isn't to be denied, for even though Jack may lack a little extra for rebounding he makes up for that with his "never miss" one-hand push shot. Jack plays with the other four guys who are on the court with him and is a good team man. He knows how to pass and if he can't begin a play or series then he passes to the fellow who is open.

Jack played baseball the last two summers with the York Braves and so is not a one-sport man. He does divide his time between the outfield and the hardwoods but that is sufficient to keep anyone busy. Jack is a sophomore this year, and Uncle Sam is about ready to use his services for a few months; he is as yet undecided about his future as most of the fellows of draft age are at this time. He believes it will be the Navy for him probably this summer, and upon returning he doesn't know. Jack is a member of the squad that isn't heard too much about as some of the taller fellows seem to make the headlines. Just remember that they too once upon a time were little; so we can expect great things from our friend Jack Tatro.

Jack Tatro

voters as a Greek Bible to a Chinaman, from which the politician suspends himself so that he may touch nothing solid.

As I have said before, the leaves usually begin to turn just before a test and shortly afterwards many of the nuts drop. During this time many of the nuts get such a shelling that it is no wonder most of them become cracked. The main difference between a man and a monkey is the thumb. This may be easier to understand when you see some humans with their hands in their pockets. Horses don't bet on people, but they couldn't anyway for who would they bet with? Question for the day: If a dog is a man's best friend, how come so much fuss over getting in the doghouse?

That just about does it except to say lots of people who set out to cultivate friends end up plowing them under.

Nebraska Wesleyan's Height Too Much For YC Panthers

With seven-foot center Don Boldebeck pouring in 34 points, the boys from Lincoln took a 95-81 decision at York. With "Bolde" forcing fouls or making shots from close in, Coach Haight's charges began dropping out, via the foul route, early in the game.

The Panthers had their best crowd of the year and played their best ball. The first quarter ended with York trailing 24-23 with Kiser and Frankamp providing York's offensive punch. Leon played his best game of the year, but charged with stopping Boldebeck fouled out in the first half. He had 9 points in the first quarter and in his offensive and defensive punch, he held Bolde to 11 during the first period. Leon's drive was missed during the remainder of the game.

Jack, 40 minute, Kiser pumped in 23 points. Jack has come in for lots of criticism, especially his defense, but I will venture there are no more than two or three centers in the state who spend more time in the ball game. His hook is something to watch, and he takes the game with a seriousness that brings a smile to any coach.

Panthers Played Ball

Surprise of the night was Ralph Dey, a freshman and a second semester ball player. Ralph picked up 5 points and looked very good in his baptism under fire.

Each player played his best ball and the "ohs" and "ahs" of the stands were often heard. Ekart seems to have conquered his trick knee and was a real threat with his 10 points plus lots of good passes to Kiser for two points. Lopez and Nordberg also played outstanding ball.

In fairness to Nebraska Wesleyan they had dropped Kearney State the night before and there "Bolde" grabbed 39 points. They used 15 men against the Panthers 12. Thirty-seven fouls were toted on Wesleyan to 34 on York so the new foul rule got lots of work.

	Fg.	Ft.	F.	Pts.
Watkins	2	5-9	5	9
Menzie
Dey	0	5-17	5	5
Lopez	2	4-6	5	8
Nordberg	4	3-3	5	11
Kiser	6	11-13	2	23
Megill
Beaver	0	1-2	1	1
Tatro
Ellison	0	1-2	3	1
Frankamp	5	3-6	5	13
Ekart	2	6-9	2	10

To quote a phrase "heros are made, not born" I think coach's material is coming around and we can expect more thrilling contests.

Outlaws, Hulitt Take Intramurals

Last Thursday night was the second semester Jolly-Up which forced intramurals to wait one night before resuming their feuding. On Friday night, two more games were played, Hulitt vs. Thompson and the Outlaws vs. Kroyville.

The Outlaws kept their unmarred record by decisively trouncing the married fellows of the campus. The final score read 57 to 33.

Hulitt took stock of Thompson who had defeated them earlier in the season and came roaring back to whip them by 15 points, 47-32. John Mann was high for Hulitt with 16 and Bracken second with 12. Kirby and Kurtz potted seven each. Hollinger was high for Thompson with 11 and Rabuck a close second with ten.

Pre's vs. Paine's with the Preachers coming out on top.

For the Outlaws, Lobb was high man with 15 and Ellison came

Mr. Wesleyan himself, Don Boldebeck, is matching height with Jack Kiser in the Wesleyan-York game. Mr. Boldebeck is taller.

As I See It

By Paul Edie

Dear Sports fanatics: This time I shall be short and sweet and to the point. As I have been laid up in the noble institution of the hospital, it has been most impossible to see any of the sports that have come and gone since last issue. On a Saturday night about a week ago it seems our Panthers had another combat with "Mr. Boldebeck and Co." I guess it was mostly Mr. Boldebeck. From the accounts I have heard of the game, the Panthers must have really come to life and played mighty fine ball before several bowed out on fouls. I was sure wanting to see that game, but I must admit I wanted to see the outstanding feature of the opponent in action.

Paul Edie

Due credit belongs to all the Blue and White and since I can't pick any one player as most reports say all did a splendid job, I'll just pass the bouquet of orchids to the whole team for displaying the potential that came to the surface and gave the Plainsmen a good run for their money.

The national sports scene shows Indiana still running atop the big Ten standings and with prospect of staying there. That Seton Hall was chosen for the No. 1 rating is no surprise to almost everybody but is poor consolation to those who favor Kansas State as the first team. However, it matters little to this writer as long as the team who is best is on top; that's what counts.

A brief word about baseball and the Hall of Fame pickings. As I saw it, Dizzy Dean would be picked; and sure enough he was. My prejudice for the Yankee Clipper proved too much however as he was overlooked this year as a choice for the National honor to be immortalized at Cooperstown.

The snow is melting slowly and the ground will be dry before long and it won't be long 'til the gloves and bats and gear for our national pastime come back into the open. Spring training for the majors is just around the corner; what new rookies will be turned up? Your guess is as good as mine.

Well, sports fans, I said this would be short and sweet; so I'm signing off for this time. Be seeing you in the paper.

YC College Talent Marches on and on

York College feels fortunate in having among its students several talented pianists and organists. From among these talented students, the following girls are to be complimented for their fine work of playing organ-piano duets as accompaniment for the Sunday evening services at the Evangelical United Brethren Church: Marjorie Hall, Joyce Klingman, Janna Lee Woelfe, and Ramona Burgett.

Joyce King also deserves a vote of praise for the fine job she does at the Evangelical United Brethren Church as director of the Sunday evening choir, composed of college students.

Ramona Burgett and Myron Fessler played a cornet duet of the old familiar hymn, "Our Best," at the Evangelical United Brethren Sunday evening church service, February 1.

The girls trio and their accompanist will provide a 20 minute program at the Valentine's meeting of the Rotary club, February 12. The trio has also been requested to sing February 20, for the World Day of Prayer meeting.

Sen. Weakknees Advocate Tax Cut

I usually begin with a figure of speech, but I can not decide which movie star to speak of; so I shall just say, "Hi." One boy I know can't remember facts, but he sure knows figures, and Pearl Buck wants us to marry cows yet!

This time of year in our college daze we get our first semester grades. This is to show how much we have learned, in the classroom. Some day I would like a test given on extra-curricular activities. Lots of students major in this field (or any suitable parking space) but complain there is no test or grade given on it. (What of finger rocks or diamonds?)

I would like to comment on the speech by your lying senator J. Spineless Weakknees. The senator comes from a dry section of the U.S. It is so dry they raise their fish in a camera; this gives the fish a film over its eye and protects it from going blind in some of the dust streams. Mr. Weakknees introduced a new type bill yesterday. It is a duck bill. He wants vast collections started in this field which he states will save great quantities of corn, for he is not too sure of the productive ability of the new congress. He will be remembered for his firm stand on issues of no importance. He also was among the first to advocate increased government spending which should be offset by drastic cuts in taxes. This recently has become a bi-party platform. A platform is a group of planks, which means as much to most

WE THANK YOU!

In appreciation for the basketball team and the fine spirit they have shown this year, Dr. C. E. Ashcraft, college pastor, treated the boys to a supper at the McCloud Hotel, Feb. 3. The boys say, "Thank You."

along with his share at 13. Bill Herrick added 11. For Kroyville Walker was high with 15 and Sanchez potted 10. The smoother teamwork of the Outlaws, who include several members of last year's B squad, has proved the winning factor for them. Only a couple more games remain for the Outlaws, and it is fairly well assured that they will finish first for the year.

The rest of the runners-up are still uncertain; with Hulitt a dark horse and Paine's losing part of its team via the semester, no one can predict for sure the final outcome.

The top five scorers are:
 Sanchez (Kroyville) 59
 Walker (Kroyville) 43
 Lobb (Outlaws) 42
 Perri (Pre's) 29
 Rohs (Paines) 41
 (These totals do not include games of week ending Jan. 31).

They Tramped These Halls

by J. C. Morgan

At the spring meeting of Delta Lambda Mu it was voted to increase the scholarship award from twenty-five to forty dollars. This action was taken because of increase in tuition rates and was made possible by the commendable way in which dues have been coming in the past two years.

The good spirit of the alumni of YC was shown at the meeting of the association at commencement. When the president of the Association presented the request of the College Board of Trustees that the alumni contribute a thousand dollars to the endowment fund, in just a few minutes the sum of sixteen hundred was paid or pledged.

Miss Ellen Walkup, daughter of Mr. Dwight Walkup, a member of the College Board of Trustees, recently was crowned queen at the Benedict, Nebraska, high school homecoming.

The Rev. Robert Tupper, '45, has been assigned to the First Evangelical United Brethren Church, Wichita Falls, Texas. The street address is 1503 Broad St. His successor at Lissie, Texas, will be the Rev. Paul Reger, '49.

Former students will learn with sincere regret of the passing on January 23 of Mr. Robert Gale, Sr., the York photographer. They will remember his good nature and helpful attitude as he contributed to their good looks in his well known studio. Sympathy is expressed to his family and especially to Robert Jr. of the class of '39.

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Kamm, '39 and '42, (Catherine Woolever) have adopted a baby daughter, Deborah Joy, born November 6. They lost their own baby the same day, and Deborah Joy is taking its place. Rev. Kamm is serving as chaplain of the Clifton Springs Sanitarium, New York, an institution now more than a hundred years old.

Wedding:

DORM DITTIES

Something new has been added on second floor of Middlebrook Hall. This new addition is a devotions room. It is appropriately furnished and is open to all Middlebrook girls at any time. All girls are urged to feel free in using it for their own personal devotions or any group devotions.

The hospital bug seems to have become quite a pest around Middlebrook. Mary Jo Colson was admitted to the York hospital January 22 for surgery. Although Mary Jo had a rather hard time of it, we are happy to report that she has been back at Middlebrook for a few days and is home at present, regaining her strength. She will be back in school by February 15. Ruth Johnson underwent surgery at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, on February 2. She returned to college to resume classes the following week-end. All Middlebrook girls extend a cheery, "Welcome Back," to you girls, and here's hoping you've chased away that hospital bug along with your troubles.

The scene on third floor was not that of a crime but of a birthday party the evening of February 3. The guest of honor was none other than Ramona Burgett. A belated happy birthday, Ramona.

Did someone say she heard the hot water running on third about 11 o'clock each evening? Don't be alarmed. No one is attempting to drown herself; it is only preparation for June and Aunt Joyce's nightly coffee time. What brand of instant coffee do you girls prefer?

Middlebrook Hall is much honored to have Miss Muriel Lester as a guest the week of February 9, during which time she is giving several talks at the Evangelical United Brethren Church on international affairs. Miss Lester is from London, England, and is widely known for her knowledge on world happenings and her excellent speaking ability.

Mrs. Irene White, '33, and Mr. Charles Place were married at Fairfield, Nebraska, January 8. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Norman Crouse, '50. Mrs. Place served as superintendent of schools of York county 1945-51. She is the mother of Mrs. Doris White Carlson, '40. Mr. and Mrs. Place will make their home in Oregon.

Mrs. Fanny Luper has announced her coming marriage to Fred L. Johnson, Alva, Oklahoma. They will be at their residence in Alva, February 15.

Girl Athletes Play Volley, Basketball

The WAA girls have found themselves quite busy of late with volleyball and basketball games.

On January 28, at 4 p.m., in the college gymnasium, the college girls met the York High School girls in a volleyball game. Although the cheering section was small, the York College girls came through victorious with a score of 51-21.

Upperclassmen Win 54-47

Enthusiasm ran high among the girls Saturday, January 31, as they practiced in preparation for the Freshman - Upperclassmen game that evening. The game was held at 6:30 p.m. at the York city auditorium in advance of the Wesleyan - York College game. The girls played a hard, fast game and gave the referees. Frances Amon and Norman Allen, quite a race, trying to keep up with girls' rules.

The limited number of players on either team made it necessary for the forwards on both teams to play during the entire game with the one exception that Marilyn Oak fouled out and was replaced by Ruth Ann Bott a few minutes before the end of the game. Although the score was quite even during the whole game the upperclassmen came out on the winning end of the 54-47 score. The freshman forwards—Marilyn Oak, Joyce Sears, and Maxine Miller scored 33, 10, and 5 points respectively. The upperclassmen forwards—Joan Heidrick, June Shields, and Ramona Burgett shot for 19, 18, and 17 points respectively. The coaches for the teams were Miss Casby for the freshman and Bonnie Witham and Ramona Watkins as co-coaches for the upperclassmen.

Future Games

The WAA girls are scheduled for their next basketball game with the Dana College WAA members on February 21, at the York city auditorium.

Amon and Fickle Elected

State Women's Athletic Association convention is to be held on the Doane College Campus, Crete, Nebraska, on April 17 and 18 this year. Frances Amon and Maxine Fickle were chosen as York College WAA delegates. The program presented for the convention is sure to prove both educational and enjoyable.

WHAT A CHANCE

"Cheer up!

You have two chances,
One of getting the germ
And one of not.
And if you get the germ,
You have two chances,
One of getting the disease
And one of not.
And if you get the disease,
You have two chances,
One of dying, and one of not.
And if you die—Well, you still have two chances!"

Pessimistic About Peace Changes . . .

College students have little hope of either a speedy end to the Korean war or of peace between Russia and the United States.

In a survey taken by the ACP National Poll of Student Opinion, students across the nation were asked: Do you think the Korean war will be over within six months?

The results:

Yes	5 per cent
No	82 per cent
No opinion	10 per cent
Other	3 per cent

Students were also asked: How do you feel about chances for a peaceful settlement of differences between Russia and the United States? Here are the answers:

Chances are good	3 per cent
Chances are fair	27 per cent
Chances are poor	54 per cent
No chances	12 per cent
No opinion	4 per cent

In a Student Opinion poll taken one year ago the same question was asked. At that time only 45 per cent of those interviewed said "Chances are poor."

Most students lay both the Korean war and Cold war at Russia's doorstep. "Russia is not looking for peace but for power," says a junior from Mount Mary College, Milwaukee.

And a Purdue University student sees "no chance" for peace "unless there is a civil war in Russia."

An engineering student at the Citadel, a military school in Charleston, South Carolina, comments on Korea, "The situation should be turned over to the military entirely; 'statesmen' have already blundered away two years in Korea."

"There will be no compromise," says a sophomore coed from Regis College, Mass. "Either Russia or the United States will be the victor."

Those who feel there is still a chance for peace, tend to pin their hopes on:

A revolution in the Soviet Union and its satellites.

Soviet fear of Western power. U. S. "patience and diplomacy."

Eisenhower.

"A turning back," as one student puts it, "to religion and God."

But a coed at Trinity College, D. C., sums up the feeling of many students when, having granted there's a chance for peace, she adds, "But it will take a miracle."

Students of Chadron State heard the famous violinist, Yfrah Neaman, at a Community Concert on January 18. The Tucson Boys' Chorus will be performing soon at the York auditorium in the third and final Community Concert of the year.

Peru State Teachers College received a high honor this year when their coach Al Wheeler was chosen "Little America" coach of the year.

Council Chooses Six YC Student Leaders

Six students were recently chosen by the Student Council to be listed in the "American College Student Leaders" publication. This publication is an important reference in public, industrial, and college libraries. It is used by employment counselors of business firms who are seeking outstanding students. It is also an "honor listing."

A committee appointed by the Student Council selected ten names from the senior class. These ten were Janice Watkins, York, Nebraska;

Melvin Brawn, La Mesa, California; Edgar Schrader, San Bernardino, California; Darrell Anderson, Laurel, Nebraska; Alta Aldrich, Longmont, Colorado; Larry Thorson, San Diego, California; Jack Atkinson, Enid, Oklahoma; Charles Chipman, Sycamore, Kansas; Bob Herrick, Concordia, Kansas; and Roszella Schrader, Sidney, Montana.

From this list, the Student Council voted to select six. The six chosen were Alta Aldrich, Jack Atkinson, Larry Thorson, Charles Chipman, Bob Herrick, and Roszella Schrader.

CHAPEL NOTES

President Bachman: Convocation Chapel "Where do You Live?" "Students may go to several colleges at one place. They may be living in a college of athletics or of books, or of social functions, etc. Where are you going to live?"

Dr. Ashcraft: "What amazes me about Jesus."

Three things are amazing about Jesus—His concept of God, the value He placed upon man, and His faith in man.

"Jesus invariably found the best in man . . . How different we are; we pass judgment which is often revealing more of ourselves than an insight of others."

"Jesus said that God loved all men, not just those who deserve His love. God sees what a man can be."

Jesus chose to follow him, four fishermen, one zealot, one quivering, and others of less ability.

The Rev. Robert E. Gaston:

"Keeping our treasurers safe." Sometimes life confronts us as a highwayman and robs us of those things precious and necessary. When this happens, we know it. Sometimes a sneak-thief robs us of things and we don't know it till later. If we are robbed of money, we know it sooner than if the loss was an opportunity. When we know our loss, we can adjust and recompense for it. When we do not know our loss, we discover it only when we turn to the stolen object and it is gone and we are left defeated.

"We are often willing to shoot it out with the highwayman but are unwilling to guard against the sneak thieves of indifference and self-centeredness that steal our spiritual resources."

Parlez - Vous Francais?

Demain reason for writing such a story is to acquaint the reader with that romantic language—French. Vousville be taken on autour of a famous clef, from which a faire lady threw herself to death because of ecole. Now vous mai think this is strange to comment suicide for a dog, but this was a special dog.

The lady's father gave the dog to her juste to garder. If the dog, who was called, Rovier, would hier his mistress eraie, he would ruine as fast as he could to hier. They were quite the paire.

One day, up the river came two men rowing inconnu. They stopped to rester weary bons. "Permi, maladie," they monde, "give us somme food." "No," she answered, as she was sur that they would never have their fil and she didn't have food to spare.

So in the night, to get revenge, the men stole away with her beloved dog. "Aux nuits," said our heroine, as she jumped off the clef, "why savoir-self when your dog ame gone."

THOMPSON TRITE

A small tornado created a good deal of confusion in the house of the elite, but it proved to be only Bode moving the position of his bed. That's OK, Rick, but don't ever enroll in a speech class unless you plan on attending.

Hollinger got his lip run over by a diesel the other night. Sam G. was under the weather (this doesn't mean out on the roof). He cut class until his money and food ran out then lost his cold.

Menzie and Rabuck have their room under lock and key; no one is sure what they're hiding. His ex-roommate Charles Stark moved up in the hallowed room on the cold corner so he could get to bed earlier. Now he sings until about two o'clock. Gene Littler, his roommate, says with a brain Charlie would be dangerous.

Dave Miller is handling the social life but then you can't get to sleep 'til one or so anyhow. Lobb and Wortman are quite busy with income tax; Phil has a small income and guess who has tax in his bed.

That's all for now, see you on the phone. Our number is 626.

Campus Briefs

At the YWCA meeting on January 27, Sondra Lovell led the group in opening choruses and hymns. Following this Pat Chaney read the poem, "Cross at Crossways;" Ramona Burgett gave a story, and another poem was read by Pat which followed the theme of the meeting: "Challenge to Youth." Joyce Klingman sang, "God who Touchest Earth with Beauty." The closing prayer was given by Joan Heidrick.

Election of YC's "American College Student Leaders," and TV question were main items of business at the last student council meeting, Tuesday.

A box was placed on the student union bulletin board so that students may deposit their opinion about TV. It is important that these reply cards be placed there so that the next move can be made. The student council wants the decision on this question to be up to the students. Students, take it away.
