

The Sandburr

Vol. LIII Published at York, Nebraska, September 23, 1953, by York College Students No. 1

Mr. & Mrs. G. S. Burgett
Beverly
Kentucky

Taking time out to be "snapped" are these four active YC students, all newly elected class presidents. Left to right they are: Bill Bradley, freshman; Jari Ann Davis, sophomore; Glen Direen, junior; and Bob Voris, senior.

Class Officers Are Ready for New Year

As a result of the recent class elections, three men and one woman will guide the various class activities this semester. Bob Voris, Riverdale, California; Glen Direen, Olmitz, Kansas; Jari Davis, Red Cloud, Nebraska; and Bill Bradley, Edmond, Kansas; were elected presidents of the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman classes respectively in the meetings September 7 and 8. Other officers elected are as follows:

Seniors: Student Council Representative, June Shields, Parsons, Kansas; vice-president, Dale Smith, York; secretary, Dean Hollinger, Russell, Kansas; treasurer, Dick Alire, Petaca, New Mexico; Panther Club man, Gene Littler, LaCrosse, Kansas; Panther Club woman, June Shields; freshman court man, Bob Voris, Riverdale, California; freshman court woman, Donna Anderson, York; freshman court judge, Dale Smith, and clerk of the freshman court, Dick Alire. Sponsor is Mrs. Bachman.

Juniors: Student Council Representative, Pat Chaney, Whittier, California; vice-president, Morris Churchill, Loveland, Colorado; secretary, Ramona Watkins, York; treasurer, Pete Neidl, Antigo, Wisconsin; Panther Club man, Andy Peterson, Scotia, Nebraska; Panther Club woman, Ramona Burgett, Beverly, Kentucky; freshman court man, Jack Tatro, York; freshman court woman, Joyce King, Great Bend, Kansas. Sponsor, Miss Casby.

Sophomores: Student Council Representative, Eva Jones, Genoa, Nebraska; vice-president, Tom Kirby, Perkins, Oklahoma; secretary, Marjorie Wilson, Sedgwick, Kansas; treasurer, Duane Epp, York; Panther Club man, Jim Eckart, York; Panther Club woman, Darlene Lewis, Concordia, Kansas; freshman court man, Dillard Griffith, Broken Bow, Nebraska; freshman court woman, Joyce Sears, Bynumville, Missouri. Sponsor, Mr. Wampler.

Freshmen: Student Council Representative, Dayle Pfeifer, Powell, Nebraska; vice-president, Jane Oak, Penalosa, Kansas; secretary, Jean Phillips, Tulsa, Oklahoma; treasurer, Bill Lawrence, Kansas City, Kansas; Panther Club man, Ben Weaver, Sapulpa, Oklahoma; Panther Club woman, Patsy Humphries, Salina, Kansas; freshman court man, Charles Wickham, Beloit, Kansas; freshman court woman, Shirley Walkup, Benedict, Nebraska. Sponsor, Mr. Koontz.

those going to stay in Holland have typhus inoculations. Acting on the uninformed advice of a friend who thought typhus and typhoid were the same thing we all had typhoid booster shots and called it good. We found out afterward that they were not the same; so we had to hunt up a doctor and have the shots. We finally got them in Sault St. Marie, Michigan. Driving through the beautiful Minnesota and Wisconsin lake country was really a thrill for all of us. We took our time and stopped in a state park for a little exploring of pot holes and river banks; later in the afternoon we took a pleasure cruise down the St. Croix river. (We wanted a preview of boat travel.)

(Ed. Note—This is the first in a series of articles on the trip to Europe. Details of the trip will appear in coming issues of the Sandburr.)

Personality and pep combined seem to describe these four newly elected cheerleaders. They are, left to right: Bill Lawrence, Carolyn Ziemke, Darlene Lewis, and Ramona Burgett.

COURT GIVES DECISION ON TITLE CASE

Of general interest to all readers of the Sandburr is the recent decision of the Judge of the District Court of York County, Harry D. Landis, who denied the request of the York College Board of Trustees for the removal of a cloud on the title to the college campus.

The court's decision contains the following:

"The court finds there is no legal reason shown why the restrictions in the deed should be eliminated.

The relief sought by the plaintiffs is denied, and case dismissed."

Dated: September 15, 1953.

Coming . . .

Sept. 25—WAA Initiation

Oct. 2—Kansas Tech
Here 8:00 p.m.

Oct. 9—HOMECOMING
game at 8:00 p.m.

Nebraska, Kansas Top in Enrollment

With the late registration of the European travelers, York College enrollment reaches 111. Men students have a slight majority over the women students, 61-50. Twelve students are married and eighteen are veterans. Nebraska leads Kansas by one in the number enrolled, 37 and 36. Eleven other states are represented. Students come from seven denominations.

Trip to Europe Provides Much Enthusiasm, Information For All

"Great things often come from small beginnings" has often been pointed out in the past. So it was with our trip to Europe. The idea developed from our inefficient attempts to answer a question raised in International Relations Club during a discussion of world affairs. The question was "What do Europeans think of us as a nation?" Even the most reliable news sources published conflicting reports; we had no authority from which to take a prefabricated conclusion. We had only one alternative—to go to Europe and find out for ourselves.

We had a second objective in mind, also. It was that if the opinion was unfavorable, perhaps we could help to make it more favorable. This wasn't as conceived as it sounds for many groups work on the assumption that close association of the common people of various nations helps to cement international goodwill. Because we had more in mind than a pleasure trip, we were willing to work very hard to earn the money for our expenses. When the final assembling was done, there were eleven of us from York and two others to join us later who applied and were accepted by the Brethren Service Commission for its tour and work camp sessions.

More Enthusiasm than Money, Luggage

With this background we set off for Quebec, Canada, on June 2, 1953. We had as little luggage as we thought we dared take, as much money as we could rake together and enough enthusiasm for three groups our size. We spent much of our time that day pinching ourselves and each other to be certain that we were awake and not dreaming. We arrived in St. Paul that evening tired and hungry but still interested in watching the coronation ceremony on the Casby T. V. set. The next day a cloud in the nature of inoculation shots appeared on the horizon for those of us on our way to camp in Holland.

It had been recommended that

Cheering Squad To Promote Pep

Regular chapel on Monday, September 14, 1953, produced the new quartet of cheerleaders who will lead the Panther's cheering section for the next season's athletic contests.

Darlene Lewis, a sophomore from Concordia, Kansas, was returned to the squad of which she was a member last season. Another upperclassman, Ramona Burgett, a junior from Beverly, Kentucky, was selected from the seven contestants. Giving the group fresh, but not inexperienced enthusiasm are two freshmen, Carolyn Ziemke, a veteran of four years of cheerleading at Benedict high school, Benedict, Nebraska, and Bill Lawrence, an equally well-qualified leader from Kansas City, Kansas.

New staff members seen on the campus include these, shown, left to right: Mrs. Esther Blays, housemother of Middlebrook Hall; Mrs. Lee Gilbert, dietician; Mr. Robert Evans, English Department; and Mrs. Mary L. Hursh, accountant. Not pictured is Mrs. Aaron Schmidt, voice instructor.

New Additions Made To Faculty, Staff

Several additions have been made to the York College faculty and staff, each contributing to a stronger college program.

Mrs. Aaron Schmidt is assisting in the music department as private teacher of voice and string students. A graduate of the University of Nebraska with a B.M.E. degree, she majored in stringed instruments. She also has a wide background in the field of vocal music. Before coming to York she was on the public school staff for two years at Dunning, Nebraska, where she taught high school music and was supervisor of grade music. She, her husband, and five-year old daughter live in York.

Mr. R. Evans, who is a native of York, is another member added to the York College staff. He teaches freshman composition and play production. Attending the University of Nebraska on a Regent scholarship, he majored in English and received his B.A. in English in 1947. After an interruption for Army duty, he worked as an assistant in the English department at the University while working on his M.A. which he received in 1950. He taught music in Hyannis, Nebraska, before coming here.

Coach Duane Wilson also is a new addition. He is a graduate of Sterling College and comes from there highly recommended since he also was coach there. He is married and has four children.

The new treasurer, Mrs. Mary L. Hursh, is a graduate of Otterbein College. Fourteen years of her life were spent in Africa as a missionary. Her husband was a professor for twenty years at Otterbein where she taught a course in Marriage and the Family during three of these years. In 1945 the Hursh's retired and lived in the mountains of North Carolina. Since his death she has remained very active being a librarian in a hospital, helping with craft work in Kentucky at the Mission at Barnett's Creek, and now York College is privileged to number her among its staff members.

Mrs. Lee Gilbert is York College's new dietician. For many years she has been the dietician at the College of the Ozarks at Clarksville, Arkansas. Mrs. Gilbert attended York College before finishing her college work at Iowa State College in Ames, Iowa.

The new house mother at Middlebrook Hall is Mrs. Esther Blays from Russell, Kansas. Mrs. Blays has always been an active member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, being very much interested in missionary affairs. She has three daughters and one son. Two of her children live* at the dorm, Dorothy, who is a YC freshman and Ellen, who is in the second grade at Willard School.

Frosh Catches Idea of 'Loyalty to York'

Personalizing the campus scene, I wish to throw light on the primary social life that has enveloped the student body in this fall semester of the year 1953. I shall attempt to delve into morale in its entirety as is prevalent on the York College campus in the minds of the new students as well as those of the upper classes. The statements are not opinion but rather facts.

Dr. Bachman, in a recent freshman class meeting, said, "This class of freshmen is the best in spirit of any freshman class I have witnessed in a long time." His statement was backed by another prominent member of the faculty. That is a good record to obtain in only two weeks of school. This name, however, is not entirely an original one but rather partly due to the fine spirit and example that was set by those who have attended York College in former years. Their explicit loyalty was and is indeed worthy of recognition. This does not diminish the integrity and ability from the freshman class but adds to it.

A sophomore, when asked to give an opinion concerning the extent of good spirit and morale in comparison to last year, said, "Last year was a very successful year. All of the students were very 'York minded' the entire year, and the freshman class last year was very much like that of this year, including the same spirit and morale; therefore, this year should be a successful year also."

Morale and good spirit are the 'backbone of a good college.' Without them there is nothing, for they are essential to growth, yet it is self evident that they cannot stand in themselves. They must have something to stand on. This something must be the student's own initiative and ability. Organizations are not formed for profit and yet they may be to the student who participates in them and activates them.

The good student or students must have the hungering to seek out the better parts of the campus life if he or they intend to find those parts.

All of the afore-mentioned items of importance are indeed prevalent on the York College campus this year and appear very likely to remain throughout the semesters. The only part left for the students now is the self-employment of the individual to enter into the 'work and play' that is set before them.

To the reader I might add that if you are looking for the best in religious, social, and educational values, then turn to York. Such morale as is displayed on the campus this year is not attained through mere character but rather more by reputation that has come from years gone by. The beginning is gone, but the growth is evident. Books are good, but experience is better. The theme for the whole student body this year seems to be, "Loyalty to York," a very fitting title.

The friendly smile of a fellow classman and the better association that are felt as the year progresses enlighten the fact that morale is 'tops' on the campus and no better students can be found in so fitting a place as are the students on the York College campus.

Idea of 'Sandburr' Seems to Stick

Who named our paper and when? The story of the naming of the college paper is really a very simple story, but full of meaning that carries down from almost fifty years ago.

When the administration building was still standing, the staff regularly met there to discuss the various problems of a college staff. This particular meeting was to decide upon a name for the paper. The campus was not landscaped into the attractive greenery that now covers it. There were weeds, shrubs, and sandburrs scattered along the paths to the buildings. As the styles of that period measured skirts several inches longer than they are today, the skirts of the lady faculty members picked up these sandburrs. As sandburrs are known to be prickly and irritating, the ladies lost no time in removing these from their skirts. A sandburr then might be said to "stick" and travel far.

While discussing ideas for a title and busily picking Sandburrs from her skirt, Mrs. W. H. Morton suggested that they dub the paper, "Sandburr." Perhaps we might think of the "Sandburr," as being

Panther Patter

Pogi The Panther Goes to Court

"Will the court please rise, freshmen bowing at the waist." This is Pogi the Panther's BIG moment. He has finally worked his way up until now he is the judge of Freshman Court. He gloats over all the bowing freshmen as he saunters into the court.

Clerk Alire reads off the charges, and the various suspected freshmen are sworn in. They promise to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help the upperclassmen. Then the questioning begins. Intelligent freshmen plead guilty, some even procure lawyers to aid them. Pogi is amazed at the ingenuity of the frosh. One bright one pleaded insanity, but this plea was overruled by Pogi and the other members of the jury since insanity is common among freshmen.

As a rule, the suspects are found to be guilty and various punishments are devised by hardened upperclassmen. Pogi sorrowfully pronounces the sentences, for he is very sympathetic toward the freshmen. Such is the attitude of all upperclassmen.

Watching the frenzied freshies stumble to their lowly seats on

The Poet's Corner

September

To thee we bow, September!
Favorite month of all,
Yet comes a tinge of sadness
As leaves begin to fall.

They don their lovely colors
Of russet, gold, and red.
They sadly bid each twig adieu,
Then flutter down to bed.

'Tis time to glean the harvest,
To reap the ripened grain;
'Tis time for Youth, so happy
To start to school again.

The nights so cool and fragrant
With scent of goldenrod,
Sweet cosmos . . . stems so slender . . .

'Tis all a gift from God.
Sadie Watson

Do all the good you can,
By all the means you can,
In all the ways you can,
In all the places you can,
At all the times you can,
To all the people you can,
As long as ever you can.
—John Wesley

A Ketchup on the New Kitchen Help

"Gee! This food is really good, may I have a second?" is heard rather often in the dining hall this year. The preparation of this delicious food is done by the busy hands of Mrs. Lee Gilbert, Mrs. Gordon Mohler, and Mrs. Elsie Schlegelmilch.

Mrs. Gilbert comes from Clarksville, Arkansas, and is a graduate of Iowa State College with a Bachelor of Science Degree, and also a Master of Science Degree. Formerly, she taught home economics at the College of the Ozarks. She also attended Columbia University, Colorado University, and York College.

Mrs. Mohler is from York and has lived here since she was seventeen. She was a York College student in 1907-1908.

Mrs. Schlegelmilch — just call her Elsie — is from Seward and Beaver Crossing. She said that she had no previous experience in this type of work.

Mrs. Gilbert says that her hobby is painting like Winston Churchill and President Eisenhower. Mrs. Mohler and Mrs. Schlegelmilch said they did not have any special hobbies, unless it was just the college kids.

undestroyable with "stick to it" qualities. Perhaps the faculty thought of it in this manner, because it was adopted as the official tile.

Mrs. Morton is still living, and her husband is on the staff at the University of Nebraska.

Building A Temple

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;

Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said as they saw its beauty
"It shall never know decay,
Great is thy skill, O builder:
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care.
Planning each arch with patience.

Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts

None knew of her wondrous plan
For the temple the teacher
builded

Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher
builded

Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen
temple
Is a child's immortal soul.

Anonymous

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes;
Give me understanding, that I may keep thy law
And observe it with my whole heart.

The Psalms

Bookplate

Devour me Adore me
Digest me Or spurn me,
Dog ear me But burn ye,
Divest me Return me!
—Sue Wyatt-Semple

'Twas the Night Before . . . ? ?

'Twas the night before Jolly-Up and all through the dorm
Every creature was stirring, Egad! what a storm!
The clothes were scattered 'round the room everywhere
In hopes that the house mother wouldn't be there.
A few weary freshmen were snug in their beds
While visions of football men danced in their heads.
With some in their dusters and some in their gowns
We'd just quit making our usual sounds.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter
We sprang from our beds to see what was the matter.
Away to the window we flew like a flash
Pulled up the blinds with a mad dash.

And what with our wondering eyes should we see
But eight daring fellows from good old YC
More rapid than eagles these fellows they came
They whistled and shouted and called out girls' names.

Hey Burgie, hey Jari, hey Janna and Jane,
Hey Dottie, hey Helen, they called them by name.
From the top of the porch of old Thompson Hall
Some looked in the windows of Middlebrook Hall.

So up to the windows the girls all flew
To pull down the blinds like good girls would do.
We drew in our heads and were turning around
When in came Ora Lee with a bound.

Showers tonight at 10:30, she said.
Maxine has just gotten ready for bed.
We tore down the hall to room 313
Piled in her room and all grabbed Maxine!

After cooling her off Jean got the sink
And Pat got it, too, as quick as a wink!
We went to our rooms, so tired you see,
After a day of classes, who wouldn't be?

We jumped into bed after dousing the light
And dropped off to sleep after saying good-night—You-all.

Follow in the Footsteps - - -

The things taught in schools and colleges are not an education, but the means of education.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Many men build as cathedrals were built: the part nearest the ground finished; but that part which soars toward heaven, the turrets and the spires, forever incomplete.
—Henry Ward Beecher

* * *

As patient as a dusty Bible.

—Harvey N. Albright, Jr.

Force never changed anybody's mind; but education and understanding have won a lot of victories, even though they take longer.

—Charles E. Wilson

With God's help, an average person, one simple idea, one act of love, can start a world-wide chain reaction.

—Guideposts

* * *

I remember when children used to say "Thank you" when you gave them a penny. Now they usually ask, "What's it for?"
—Hal Boyle

* * *

But we must remember what Shakespeare said . . . "Who steals my purse steals trash; 'tis something, nothing; 'Twas mine; 'tis his, and has been slave to thousands; But he that filches from me my good name Robs me of that which not enriches him, and makes me poor indeed."

the grassy floor of the court, Pogi recalls the days when he himself wore a blue beanie and tried in vain to learn the college song only to be written up and sentenced. Take heart, faint frosh, even the great Pogi was once in your beanie!

THE SANDBURR

Published every other Wednesday by the York College Press Guild. Entered as second class matter January 15, 1925, at post office, York, Nebraska, under the Act of August 24, 1912.

Member

Associated Collegiate Press

SANDBURR STAFF:

Editor-in-chief Joyce King
News editor Eva Jones
Feature editors Diane Blauch,
Barbara Bearnth
Sports editor Dillard Griffith
Alumni historian

Dr. J. C. Morgan

Faculty adviser Jeannie Lowdon
Photographer Richard Edie

Reporters and Contributors:

Justine Wickham, Marjorie Wilson, Darlene Lewis, Janet Wright,
Nadine Watson, Sally Roberts,
Dixie Nichols, Bill Bradley, Lowell Johnson, Sam Gillett, Betty
Bradberry, Virginia Atkinson,
Eugene Littler, Paul Edie, Gerald Johnson.

In The Spotlight

By Paul Edie

This fine sunny day we pause to look at the spotlight, and we see several interesting sights.

First we see, in looking around here at home, a new coach with a new team, with a New Look. We find a few more than twenty out for the squad at YC this year. With practice sessions in preparation for their opener with South Dakota Wesleyan, we have seen some extra poundage falling by the wayside and a spirit apparent to get a lot of work done. Along with the mistakes that showed in the scrimmage on Monday evening, there were several promises of "I'll know the plays tomorrow." We indeed hope this promise holds true, for in order to repeat last year's victory over our northern opponents, everything will have to be down letter perfect. For even with our shortened schedule this year, we want our Blue and White to come with the bacon everytime. With a game under their belts to relieve pre-season jitters, there is no reason why the Panthers can't go on to scalp their remaining opponents.

Looking away from the scene around York, we find further activity along the pigskin line in finding the Cornhuskers at Lincoln rounding into shape. Their opener with Oregon had been looked to with great anticipation. We are looking for a very successful season for our neighbors of the University of Nebraska.

With a final glance at the baseball season we see both pennants already won, with the Dodgers taking honors in the National and the much disliked Yankees (disliked for their winning ways) taking the American League bunting. With the situation looking to a tight World Series and all things being equal, we see the Yankees making five World Series conquests in a row. The Dodgers have the works this year, hitting, pitching, and fielding with Dressens moving his line-up around very effectively. The Yankees may be weak in the pitching department with Allie Reynolds carrying the load, but the never-dying spirit of Yankee greats in the past will prove ever present and revive the World's Champions to repeat and to take the series by six games.

Well, dear people, so I may be wrong by your figuring, we shall wait and see with great expectancy the outcome of this Fall's greatest classic.

National Poetry Contest Announced

The National Poetry Association announces the tenth annual competition of College Students' Poetry.

The closing date for the submission of Mss. by all College students is November fifth.

Any student attending either junior or senior college is eligible to submit his verse. There is no limitation as to form or theme. Shorter works are preferred by the Board of Judges, because of space limitations.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet and must bear the name and home address of the student, as well as the name of the college attended.

In 1952, some 20,000 Mss. were received in the college competition, from practically every college in the country.

There are absolutely no fees or charges for either acceptance or submission of verse. All work will be judged on merit alone.

Manuscripts should be sent to the offices of the association. National Poetry Assn., 3210 Selby Ave., Los Angeles 34, Calif.

SEEN AROUND

Maxine's diamond . . . New faculty members . . . Lazy M Bar B . . . Ellen . . . souvenirs from Europe . . . new bedspreads . . . blue tennis shoes . . . squaw dresses . . . Sear's haircut . . . Bill and Mary . . . white bucks . . . lollypops . . . neckties . . . bushel basket . . . wet bottoms . . . tennis players . . . white X's . . . big ears . . . air mail letters . . . Jean and Dillard . . . Tom Sawyer . . . human birds . . . new chapel altar . . . flashy moccasins . . . freshman beanies . . . new reporters . . . suitcases in the halls . . . scrimmage under the lights . . . sleepy people . . . Mrs. Sill . . . gnitirw sdrawkqab . . . Coach Wilson . . . new faces . . . pigtails . . . new housemother . . . new records . . . Jo's haircut . . . toast . . . Chauncey . . . fall.

HEARD AROUND

"You all" . . . "so help the upper classmen" . . . "you're leaning" . . . trios . . . "when's the deadline?" . . . "dig that crazy scooter" . . . "What's this?" . . . "wait until I get enrolled" . . . "okay fellows, scam" . . . "twas the night" . . . knock knocks . . . "bye Fess" . . . "Pung it" . . . "insubordination!" . . . "mine's too short to braid" . . . Dragnet . . . "cloudburst" . . . "now you're deceiving" . . . court decisions . . . A Cappella choir

Bus Calls Foul On YC Panthers

Discouragement in several forms met the Panthers as they traveled to Mitchell, South Dakota, Sept. 19 to open the season playing South Dakota Wesleyan. Item number one was the bus breakdown ninety miles from Mitchell, which required chartering a bus to take the team on to Mitchell and also to return them to York.

The Panthers, still further handicapped with team injuries, were willing and tried hard but were not quite able to defeat the Tigers, who overpowered York 57-0. Although the final score seems too one-sided, lack of experience and endurance should be considered in comparing the two teams. With one game's experience under their belts, the Panthers can now concentrate on going all out in preparing for the games ahead.

. . . 3-D . . . "less noise please" . . . "did you sign out?" . . . R-E-D-S . . . B-E-S-T . . . cheerleader try-outs . . . ping pong race horse . . . school song . . . "Oh, Red" . . . "I plead insanity" . . . "take that hat off" . . . "put that hat on" . . . "are the books here yet?" . . . "where's Dr. Savery?" . . . gab from the labs . . . "is Diane coming back?"

New Coach Gives Added Zeal To Both Team and Students

Duane Wilson, our athletic coach this year, is in full swing making football players out of anyone wanting to play football. Coach Wilson is a graduate of Sterling College in 1944. He obtained his Master's Degree from Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. He took post-graduate work at Penn State in 1946-48. The coach has had very successful seasons, both in playing and in coaching. During his high school and college years, Mr. Wilson played both football and basketball. He served with Seventh and Ninth armies as a football coach in Germany while putting in a two-year hitch in the army.

After serving Sterling College as head coach three years, Mr. Wilson went to Ionia, Kansas, where he served as coach, principal, and superintendent for four years.

Coach Wilson and wife, Mary, and children, Deanna, Marcia, Sharon, and Greg reside at 649 East Eighth, York. The coach stated, "We are very well satisfied with the city of York and community. We also are proud of York College and everything the college stands for."

Besides coaching at York College, he teaches Theory of Football, Recreational Leadership, and First Aid. The coach said, "I enjoy teaching these courses very much as they are a great help to all who take them."

The prospects for a good season aren't too promising; however, the speed with which the boys develop can change the outlook from a pessimistic view to an optimistic view. The coach is fairly well satisfied with the achievement on the practice field. The coach stated, "The spirit with which the boys are working is going to be a determining factor in the outcome of our season." The coach feels if everyone will put in more effort we will have a good season. This includes the ones that are out regularly and those who come out part time. At the present time we can field eleven men who will compare favorably with other colleges. Lack of depth will hurt our team most of all.

A good-natured, hard-working fellow, new to the YC staff this year, is Coach Duane Wilson shown here relaxing between football practice and class sessions.

Maybe we are handicapped somewhat this year, but we must overcome our handicap by working extra time and building up the spirit of winning in ourselves and also in others. So let's all get behind the Coach and give him and the school a winning team this year.

WAA Looks for Busy Year Ahead

WAA will participate this year in state-wide sport days that are announced from Lincoln, it was learned from the president, Maxine Fickel. The sport days will be four different days throughout the year at different places in the state.

Also on the agenda for WAA members is the freshmen-upperclassmen basketball game which will occur near Homecoming. Initiation of new members will take place September 25 at Miss Wakelin's home. Other officers include vice-president, Marilyn Oak; secretary, Jari Davis; treasurer, June Shields. Co-sponsors are Miss Casby and Miss Wakelin.

Prospects For Football Gain Momentum As Season Opens

"There will be no football at York College," was a statement heard last spring. This, however, is not the case. When Coach Duane Wilson was hired for this year, he said York would have a football team, and games would be scheduled. We do have a team and games have been scheduled, although no conference games are on the schedule.

The team may not be so large and well trained as a university team, but these fellows will do their best to win for YC. The twenty-five fellows out include only seven last year's lettermen. These boys made a good showing in the scrimmage held under the lights September 14, even though a number did not have years of experience.

The roster includes:
Ends: D. Griffith, Broken Bow, Nebraska; B. Findley, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Ray Battreall, Lush ton, Nebraska; and A. Roybal, Santa Fe, New Mexico.
Tackles: S. Gillett, Esbon, Kansas; A. Peterson, Scotia, Nebraska; L. Brekke, Bosen, Montana; and E. Coleman, Cheyenne, Wyoming.
Guards: A. Murdock, Tilden, Nebraska; D. Hollinger, Russell, Kansas; A. Panec, Dubois, Nebraska; and D. Alire, Antonito, Colorado.
Backs: G. Cook, Cushing, Nebraska; B. Paine, and N. Menzie, Lincoln, Nebraska; R. Edie, Denver, Colorado; J. Tatro, J. Ekart, and D. Epp, York, Nebraska; B. Voris, Riverdale, California; and V. Valdez, Antonito, Colorado.

 We are very proud of the spirit, tenacity, and hard work of these boys who are making possible this year's York College football team.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

We are proud to state that we will have a football team at York College this year. No conference games are scheduled, but we do have a team, and we shall have games.

The schedule is:
 Sept. 19—Dakota Wesleyan at Mitchell, South Dakota
Oct. 2—Kansas Tech, here
Oct. 9—Sioux Falls, S. D. here (Homecoming)
 Oct. 15—St. Mary's at Dodge City, Kansas
 Oct. 24—Kansas Tech at Top-eka, Kansas
All home games at eight o'clock.

Hi, Sports Fans

This is your new sports editor speaking. When Miss King appointed me to this position I began to wonder how I was going to put out a page of sports every two weeks, but then as I thought a little further, I realized that it is not I, but all the athletic-minded people on our campus who make the athletic program. And the percentage of the male population on the scrimmage field indicates that there is going to be fine co-operation and good spirit. With a five-game football schedule and a full basketball schedule, the Panthers are going to have plenty to cheer for. I've heard rumors that the girls are also going to be in competitive basketball this year. So what do you say, gang? If you can't play, get out there and cheer!

Much hard work and time in exacting plays and gaining endurance is required of a team enabling them to win. Our boys are "out there fightin'" as this typical scrimmage shot shows.

Freshmen Get Many Previews to College Life

As the sun rose on the old YC campus Thursday, Sept. 3, 1953, it beheld a group of bright shiny faces, better known as the freshmen. Thursday was a leisure day for the freshmen; all they had to do was carry their suitcases up three or four flights of stairs, unpack, and get settled. That evening a reception was given in honor of the freshman class in Middlebrook Hall.

Bright and early Friday morning this group started on a long journey of entrance examinations. At 8:30 A.M. all were settled at tables in the library. They were given a test booklet and pencil, then told to begin. There were many worried, sad, and smiling faces during this period. When the tests were over, the freshmen all got up and with a look of confusion left the building. At 1:30 P.M. the group filed back into the library, took their seats and went through the same procedure as in the morning. By the time night came, every one was ready to retire.

Saturday morning was spent in much the same manner as Friday morning. A music test was given and by the time they had finished they all thought they were hearing bells. Saturday afternoon was spent in enrolling. This was a very confusing ordeal for the freshmen, as they didn't know where to go or what to do, but with the aid of the faculty and staff members they were enrolled.

Sunday morning was a morning for a late sleep and a late breakfast. After breakfast every one donned his Sunday best and went to Sunday School and Church. Dr. and Mrs. Bachman held open house Sunday afternoon from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. for the entire student body. That evening everyone journeyed down the hill for Youth Fellowship and church. Almost everyone retired early, because the next day was the beginning of a school term.

The first special activity for the week of Sept. 7 came on Friday night. Friday night was a night of nights for the Freshmen because this was the night of the Jolly-Up. The Jolly-Up is the beginning of the freshmen initiation; therefore it is a very special occasion.

The days are fairly quiet now but beware! With a group of freshmen, good-hearted and spirited, anything can happen.

Organization News

It Happens At Y. C.

Installation of officers provided the program for the first meeting of the Y.W.C.A.

Ora Lee Lewis, past president, directed the meeting, with Jari Ann Davis, Red Cloud, in charge of the devotions. A girls' quartette consisting of Marilyn Oak, Penalosa, Kansas; Joyce Sears, Bynumville, Missouri; Ramona Burgett, Beverly, Kentucky; and Joan Heidrick, Virgil, Kansas; sang, "Does Jesus Care." Installation of officers then proceeded with the past officers and members of the organization calling each new officer to the front of the room and informing each of her duty as a newly elected officer. The meeting was closed by Ora Lee Lewis.

The first 1953 Y Club meeting convened September 7, to organize for this year. Norman Menzie was installed as president. Although there were only nine returning lettermen, there will be several more after the football and basketball seasons. The club will continue to sell concessions at the games.

A short meeting of Life Work Recruits was held Monday evening, September 14, in Hulitt Hall reception room. Jari Davis led choruses and Helen Teter gave a short talk on the purpose of LWR. Ben Perri was the main speaker using as his title, "A Quiet Time."

College Youth Fellowship opened this year's schedule on Sunday evening, September 6, 1953, at the college church. In order that upperclassmen and freshmen might become better acquainted, an hour was spent with everyone participating in games, under the direction of June Shields. In the devotional hour that followed, a vocal solo was sung by Bill Bradley and the worship service was carried on by members of the York College YF. The topic, "Prayer and Its Part in the Life of a College Student" was presented to the group for the evening's discussion.

A complete list of officers, commission chairmen, and co-chairmen was presented to the YF group at the second meeting held September 13. They are as follows: President, Eva Jones; vice-president, Charles Wickham; secretary, Mary Jo Colson; treasurer, Tom Kirby; worship and devotional life, Elmer Coleman and Marge Wilson; missions and social action, Justine Wickham and Gerald Johnson; evangelism and stewardship, Bill Bradley and Helen Teter; recreation and leisure time, June Shields and Bill Lawrence.

At the YF executive meeting, it was decided that each commission would be in charge of one meeting a month. The carrying out of this plan was begun at the second meeting with the commission on Missions and Social Action in charge. A very inspiring meeting was presented under the leadership of Justine Wickham with the help of several YF members and a special musical number by Darlene Lewis.

Cupid Kept Busy Ringing Bells

Cupid must be a satisfied matchmaker after seeing the results of his efforts the past year. Of the large number of weddings which occurred, two will be described in this issue of the Sandburr.

Miss Virginia Goldsmith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Goldsmith, Harlem, Montana, and Jack Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Atkinson, Enid, Oklahoma, exchanged marriage vows the evening of August 14th, in the EUB church in Harlem, Montana. Rev. W. F. Clingman, pastor of the church officiated at the ceremony. Jack is serving a pastorate at Bradshaw, Nebraska, where they are living. Virginia is a sophomore at York College this year. Helen Teter, sophomore, from Harlem, Montana, was a member of the wedding party.

August 23, at 2:00 o'clock in the Salina EUB church, marriage vows were exchanged between Phyllis Light, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Light, Salina, Kansas, and Bruce Rabuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rabuck, Coon Rapids, Iowa. Rev. Harry Simms, pastor of the Salina church officiated at the ceremony. Phyllis is a sophomore and Bruce is a senior at York College this year. Those from York college participating in the wedding were: Marilyn Oak, Penalosa, Kansas; Lavon Howland, Iola, Kansas; Pat Humphries, Salina, Kansas; June Shields, Parsons, Kansas; Norman Menzie, Lincoln, Nebraska; Dick Alire, Petaca, New Mexico; Delores Hammar, York, Nebraska, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brotton, York, Nebraska.

"The pause that refreshes," as Mrs. Bachman is shown entertaining members of the Sandburr Staff at an informal get-together at the Bachman home. Seen in the picture are Mrs. Bachman, Marjorie Wilson, Darlene Lewis, Janet Wright, and Nadine Watson.

SANDBURR STAFF BEGINS NEW YEAR WITH A PARTY AT PRESIDENT BACHMAN'S HOME

Those interested in feature writing, news stories, sports, and art work gathered at the home of President Bachman, September 10, at 7:30 p.m., for a Sandburr Party. Joyce King, editor-in-chief, called the meeting to order by introducing members of the faculty and other guests who told of their Sandburr interests. Dr. Bachman spoke on the purpose of the Sandburr and the effect it has on the college and the people who read the paper. Miss Lowdon, faculty adviser, explained the style sheet and gave writing tips for preparing Sandburr copy. The group discussed ideas for the forthcoming year of Sandburr publication.

Guests present were: President and Mrs. Bachman, Dr. Savery, Dr. Morgan, Mr. Evans, and Mr. Rachow. Others present were: Marge Hall, Marge Wilson, Justine Wickham, Janet Wright, Nadine Watson, Bill Lawrence, Dillard Griffith, Barbara Bearnth, Dixie Nichols, Sally Roberts, Lowell Johnson, Bill Bradley, Richard Edie, and Sam Gillett.

Active Senior Plans for Work As Missionary

SWISH! A flash of yellow rounds the corner of 9th and Kiplinger. There is no question in anyone's mind but that it is Bob Voris and his yellow Chevrolet dashing home to get a book or grab a bite to eat.

Bob Voris

Bob came to York from Riverdale, California, four years ago. He is the president of the senior class and a member of the Y club, YMCA, LWA, A Cappella Choir, and also a member of that popular organization, the Freshman Court. Bob is also a letterman in track and plays football for York College.

Bob and his wife, Evelyn, live in a hut on the College campus. Evelyn is a 1951 graduate of York College. Bob and Evelyn someday plan to enter a mission field.

Koontz and Choir Are Hard at Work

Another year of singing together has begun for the A Cappella Choir under the direction of Professor James E. Koontz. As is the policy every year, tryouts were given to those freshmen and upper-classmen desiring to be in the choir. Following is the new group as selected by Mr. Koontz.

Sopranos—Virginia Atkinson, Bradshaw, Nebr.; Maxine Fickel, Earleton, Kansas; Barbara Jacobson, Central City, Nebr., and Helen Teter, Harlem, Montana.

Altos—Dorothy Biays, Russell, Kansas; Patsy Humphries, Salina, Kansas; Jane Oak, Penalosa, Kansas; Jean Phillips, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Emily Pfister, York.

Tenors—Glen Dieren, Olmitz, Kansas; Sam Gillett, Esbon, Kansas; Frank Kipple, Long Island, Kansas; William McNeff, Fullerton, Nebr.; Morris Churchill, Loveland, Colorado; Tom Stone, Antigo, Wis.; Ben Weaver, Sapulpa, Oklahoma; Bob Voris, Riverdale, California.

Basses—William Bradley, Edmond, Kansas; Dale Smith, York; Dean Hollinger, Russell, Kansas; William Lawrence, Kansas City, Kansas; Doyle Pfeifer, Fairbury, Nebr.; Charles Wickham, Beloit, Kansas.

The choir has begun work on programs to be given in October and November, and tentative plans have been made for a trip to California on the tour this spring. Homecoming, October 9, will be the occasion for the choir's first appearance.

"Second childhood?" you wonder. No it's only the freshmen in typical dress as they were seen at the Jolly-Up.

They Tramped These Halls

By Dr. J. C. Morgan

Former students of Lane University will be interested to know that the administration building which was once intended to be the state capital building, is to be made into a memorial museum, dedicated to all Kansas war dead. A group of war veterans is sponsoring the project.

Lee Huebert, '47, an instructor in English 1948-'51, will enter Bonebrake Theological Seminary this fall. Mrs. Huebert will teach at Xenia, Ohio, Route 4, where Lee will serve as pastor.

Stanley Hedrick, '51, Airman First Class, has been chosen as Airman of the Month of the 6565 Research and Development Group at Randolph Air Force Base at Randolph Field, Texas. "This is the first time such a recognition of leadership, appearance, and performance has been made by this organization," so writes the commandant of the base to Stanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hedrick, of Gresham, Nebraska.

Professor Myron Holm, '25, attended the University of Nebraska this summer and completed the residence requirements for the Ph. D. degree. He will continue his work toward this degree while teaching part time in the college.

Paul Embree, '51, is football coach and physical science instructor in the St. Paul, Nebraska, high school.

Miss Mary B. Martin, who taught Expression at Campbell College 1905-'13, is living on a farm near the old home place. This old home place has become a landmark, being built by her father in 1870. It is located near Wayside, Kansas, in Montgomery County.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, '51 and '52, were campus visitors, September 10. Mr. Harris will continue his medical course at Omaha this year.

Other visitors seen about the campus this summer and not mentioned in the Tie, include Nathan and Marion Gutschom, '33 and '34, of Whittier, California; Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Wochner, '34, of Tempe, Arizona; Mrs. Audrey Black Lithicum, '38, San Diego, California, and Mrs. Helen Black Pierce, x'40, also of San Diego; Dorothy Feaster, '23, Mt. Vernon, New York; Mrs. Ruth Havener Caldwell, x'24, Medford, Oregon; Omar Wetherell, '42, Missouri;

Blanche Watt, x'32; Leslie Callahan, x'36, Rochester, New York.

Birth: Mr. and Mrs. Brandt Kennedy, x'54, announce the birth of Steven Paul, July 30, Spokane, Washington. Brandt is a deputy sheriff at Spokane.

New address:

Mrs. Wayne Douglas (Helen Tumbus, '41), 4400 Overland, Apt. D, Culver City, California.

No graduate of York College ever displayed more versatility than did Dr. Winnie Smith, '44, now Mrs. Lester E. Bradford, in describing her wedding which took place last December at Rotifunk, Africa. The usual bride or bridegroom has only faint ideas of what happened at their wedding, but Mrs. Bradford, with astounding memory, an extensive grasp of details, a keen sense of humor, and unequalled versatility, describes the events of her wedding in some four thousand words. Sometimes the society editor of a newspaper will fill a whole column describing some important wedding, but Winnie's write-up of her wedding would fill a whole page. Winnie was justified in this extensive account, because her wedding had to conform to both American and African customs. Her description of the wedding can be read in a letter to her friends under the date of March 2, 1953.

Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Smith, '46, Alan and Gary Neil, visited friends in York, Wednesday, June 24. Dr. Smith is registrar at Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, North Carolina, and teaches Philosophy, Ethics, and Logic. Mrs. Smith was formerly Maurine Marvel.

Kenneth W. Hicks, '47, received the degree of Master of Theology from the Iliff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado, June 11.

Visitors seen in York this summer were Mr. and Mrs. "Si" Partlow, x'18; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sterner, '28 and '29; and Mrs. Esther Strickler Ronsh, '29. The Partlows now hail from Arizona; the Sterners from Wyoming, and Mrs. Ronsh from Bonebrake Seminary, Ohio. Mrs. Kathryn Stone Taylor, '21, Yankton, South Dakota, is also in this list.

Miss Hazel Bearss, '30, was granted the Master of Arts Degree at Denver University this commencement.