

Bright Road Church of Christ in Findlay, Ohio is seeking a pulpit minister to work alongside three elders and five deacons in service to a congregation numbering about 75, a third of whom are members of the local Haitian community who are currently also served by a French-speaking Associate Minister.

Findlay (pop. 40,000), the county seat of Hancock County (pop. 75,000), is a growing community with an attractive downtown, excellent schools, and a robust and stable economy based on the energy, manufacturing, distribution, and agriculture sectors, and has been named the number one “micropolitan” city in the U.S. by Site Selection magazine for five years in a row.

Centrally located between Detroit, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, and Fort Wayne, IN, ample recreational and leisure activities, including Lake Erie, are within a 2-hr drive. Multiple universities including the University of Findlay, the University of Toledo, Bowling Green State University, and Ohio Northern University are within a 45-minute circle.

Salary and vacation benefits will be negotiated. This position is a full-time opportunity, but we are open to considering a bi-vocational or creative part/full time situation. Please submit a resume, references, and any other application materials to:
