- Lead youth weekly Bible studies, devotionals, and/or fellowship activities
- Organize service projects, retreats, camps, and outreach events
- Mentor youth individually and/or in groups
- Build relationships with youth, parents, and volunteers
- Find ways to be active in the community
- Collaborate with elders and teachers to align ministry goals
- Encourage intergenerational connections
- Lead Vacation Bible School and congregational events
- Track participation and evaluate ministry effectiveness

Qualifications

- Faithful Christian attending a church of Christ congregation with values that align with the mission and vision of the Waverly church of Christ.
- Degree in Bible, youth ministry, education, or related field - Preferable but not required
- Experience working with youth in church settings (preferably 2+ years)
- Effective communication, organization, and relational skills
- High moral character providing a Christ-like example
- Enthusiastic willingness to collaborate closely with elders, parents, and volunteers
- Background check and references will be required from successful applicants

Ideal Candidate

- Sees value in everyone
- Steady, encouraging, patient with effective communication skills
- Committed to building relationships
- Ready to take ownership of youth ministry success
- Dreams big, works hard, and believes in creating opportunities
- Married or engaged, loves the Lord, and seeks to obey the gospel

Compensation & Benefits

- Beautiful home provided
- Generous compensation and benefits package commensurate with experience
- Family-oriented congregation that values everyone
- Professional development opportunities
- Chance to shape a ministry and make a lasting impact
