

Youth Minister Job Posting

Taylor Street Church of Christ – Hobbs, New Mexico

Website: www.hobbschurch.com

Contact: Mary Brewster, tscsearch@gmail.com

About Us:

Taylor Street Church of Christ in Hobbs, New Mexico is a welcoming congregation focused on serving God, supporting families, and helping youth grow in faith. The church values Christian education through Sunday and Wednesday classes, as well as small groups. It also offers various opportunities for community service.

Community Profile:

Hobbs, New Mexico lies in the southeast part of the state, about 5 miles from the Texas border and 100 miles from both Lubbock and Midland, Texas. As of the 2020 census, its population was 40,508. The city hosts New Mexico Junior College and College of the Southwest, with main employers including oil and gas, education, healthcare, retail, and public service.

Position Summary:

Provide overall leadership for the Youth Ministry. Develop a Christ-centered and encouraging ministry that nurtures spiritual growth for youth (6th through 12th grade) and supports families. Partner with parents to equip them as spiritual leaders in their homes. Serve as part of the Taylor Street Church of Christ staff, collaborating with elders, ministers, and volunteers. Aid in coordinating Sunday morning and Wednesday evening services.

Job Responsibilities:

Administration & Leadership:

- Manage planning, coordination, and evaluation of youth ministry.
- Submit annual budget and manage expenses responsibly.
- Produce and maintain a yearly calendar.
- Keep elders informed of teaching materials and program effectiveness.
- Maintain contact with other youth ministers in Eastern New Mexico and West Texas
- Publicize youth activities effectively.

Ministry Programming:

- Organize and implement middle/high school classes, groups, retreats, outreach, and mission trips.
- Support area-wide events.
- Encourage youth leadership in worship and emphasize service projects.
- Ensure safety, and liability documents for all events are completed.
- Develop outreach programs to engage youth in the community.

Parents & Families:

- Support parents in raising children through biblical resources, seminars, and workshops.
- Foster unity between youth, families, and the church.
- Communicate regularly with parents to partner in the ministry.

Teaching & Curriculum:

- Teach biblically sound lessons and review curriculum effectiveness.
- Encourage spiritual maturity and discipleship in youth.

Ministerial Duties:

- The Youth Minister is encouraged to participate in and help lead worship in ways consistent with their gifts and abilities. Opportunities may include leading worship, preaching, presiding over communion, and other forms of service. While occasional preaching will be expected, no one will be asked to serve outside their areas of skill or calling.

Qualifications:

- A growing vibrant Christian faith
- College graduate (Bible degree preferred) OR School of Preaching graduate OR relevant ministry experience
- Strong communicator with youth and parents
- Spiritually, biblically and morally mature
- Able to teach and preach effectively

Application Process: Please submit the following:

- Resume
- Three references with contact details
- Video of a class or lesson taught/preached (if available)

A background check is required before starting work.

Send applications to:

Mary Brewster

Email: tscsearch@gmail.com

Or mail to:

Mary Brewster

Taylor Street Church of Christ

219 E. Taylor

Hobbs, New Mexico 88240