

EQUIP CONFERENCE SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

7:00–8:25 Breakfast and Registration (Mackey Center First Floor)

8:30–9:00 Morning Worship (Prayer Chapel)

9:00–9:45 Keynote: Jim Tuttle “The Most Important Lessons I’ve Learned from 30 Years of Ministry”

10:00–10:30 The Well (York University’s Chapel in Campbell Activity Center)

10:45–11:45 Breakout Session 1

- Prayer Chapel: Evertt Huffard, “Hope for Small Churches: Enriching Values in a Small Church”
- 2nd Floor ARC at Levitt: Justin & JL Gerhardt, “The Storied Church Pt 1: Biblical Narrative”
- Museum: Garrett Best, “Jonah the Prophet: A Complex Character”
- 3rd Floor Hulitt: Jeff Hill, “The Relationship between Spiritual Health and Mental Health”

11:45–12:45 Lunch (Mackey Center Second Floor)

- Garrett Best and Sam Smith YU Update

1:00–2:00 Breakout Session 2

- Prayer Chapel: Evertt Huffard, “Hope for Small Churches: On Mission in a Small Church”
- 2nd Floor ARC at Levitt: Justin & JL Gerhardt, “The Storied Church Pt. 2: Witness: Cultivating a Proficiency in Seeing and Sharing the Stories God’s Writing Now”
- Museum: Garrett Best, “How Ancient Roman Coins Help us Better Understand the Book of Revelation”
- 3rd Floor Hulitt: Glenn Dallmann, “Strengthening Marriages and Families in our Churches”

2:00–2:30 Coffee and Snacks (ARC at Levitt First Floor)

2:45–3:45 Breakout Session 3

- Prayer Chapel: Jim Tuttle, “The Importance of Keeping the Main Thing the Main Thing”
- 2nd Floor ARC at Levitt: JL Gerhardt, “The Whole Story: A Brave Approach to Teaching (And Living) Complex Truth”
- Museum: Terry Seufferlein, “Saved By the Blood of the Lamb: From Passover to the Lord’s Supper”
- 3rd Floor Hulitt: Caleb Smith, “Youth Ministry: A Death-Defying Balance Act”

4:00–5:30 Clayton Museum of Ancient History Open (guided tour with Garrett Best)

6:00–8:00 Ides of March Dinner (Evertt Huffard: “Antiquities: the Real, the Replicas, and the Restored”)