YORK, NEBRASKA

STUDENT COUNCIL TO OPERATE YET IN THIS SEMESTER

Constitution Accepted by Faculty and Students When Voted Upon Nov. 26

The constitution for the organization and operation of student government in York College has been drawn up and was submitted to the various classes and departments on Dec. 3. Their decision was not known at the time this paper went to press, but it was the opinion of the committee which drew up the constitution that the instrument would be accepted by the student body.

The purpose of the student council, as set forth in the constitution, is to further the interests of the student body, to act as a mediator between students and faculty, to aid in the regulation of student activities, and on petition of ten people, either students or faculty members or both, to investigate and pass on any problem.

The members of student council will be: a president to be elected by the students, one representative from each of the four classes, one from the Business College, one from the Hullitt conservatory of music, one from the "Y" Club and the Women's Athletic Association, one from the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., one from each literary society, and one representative from the faculty.

The student council will meet regularly at least every two weeks at a definite time and place, to be set by the council. The constitution grants the freshmen the power to regulate the freshmen.

The constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the student body, such amendments to be proposed by the student council at least one week prior to voting.

The constitution also provides for the privilege of recalling representatives, and gives the student council power to enforce its decisions.

It is planned to have the election of officers and representatives for the student council take place Wednesday morning, Nov. 28.

ZETA LITERARY SOCIETY

The Zeta Literary Society carried out the theme of Thanksgiving in their meeting on Nov. 20. Verne Dierdorff conducted the devotional exercise, after which the following program was given.

Extempo ----- Anna Marquardt
"What Thanksgiving Means to Me"
Thanksgiving Story -- Hazel Bearss
"The Thanksgiving Guest"
Vocal Solo ----- Marietta Cain
"The End of a Perfect Day"
Thanksgiving Story -- Charles Kraft
"The First Thanksgiving"

Y. M. C. A.

Pres. J. R. Overmiller spoke on "What Place Does Religion Have in College Life?", at Y. M. C. A. November 20.

In his talk, President Overmiller said that men have a purpose more than just to play football, basketball, or engage in some sport, when they come to college. A college man should be spiritually fit when he leaves college. The president said that men are usually broke when they leave college, but if they are not spiritually broke, it does not matter so much, for they will have the will to earn their way.

The topic of discussion at Y. M. November 13, was "Prayer," which was in keeping with the nationally observed week of prayer, Raymond Bryant led the discussion.

Musician: "Yes I wrote a song for her, saying how I loved her and all that, and she sent it back for me to write a chorus."
Friend: "What for?"
Musician: "So that all the others could join in."—London Humorist.

NOTICE

Browne's Metropolitan Jubilee Singers will give one of their unique concerts at the United Brethren Church on the evening of Nov. 30. The regular admission price to this concert is 50c, but college students will be admitted for half this amount.

This company of four trained negro singers will give a full evening's concert, mostly composed of negro spirituals. The Methodist Episcopal national conference last year were entertained by these singers, and they proved so popular that on one number they were encored eight times.

NATHAN B. MOORE DIES; WAS ONCE A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Deceased Man Was One of First
Contributors to Support of York College

Nathan B. Moore, one of the first contributors to York College and at one time a member of the executive board, passed away quietly at his home in York on the morning of Nov. 19. Mr. Moore, who was 85 years old when he died, was a veteran of the civil war and for many years chaplain of Robert Anderson post of the G. A. R.

Mr. Moore came to Nebraska in 1871 in a covered wagon and homesteaded in Colfax county. His early religious training and desires prompted him to set his face in the direction of the ministry and in 1880 he was ordained by Bishop Weaver of the United Brethren church.

Mr. Moore is survived by his wife and three children, Mrs. Mary Moore, Charley D. Banks. The funeral services were held at the United Brethren Church on Nov. 21. Rev. C. L. Young was assisted in the services by Dr. W. E. Schell and Rev. A. P. Vannice. The interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

YORK COLLEGE MUSIC STUDENTS BROADCAST

Regular Weekly Program Given
Over Radio Station KGBZ

At 8:30 p. m. on Thanksgiving the Hullitt conservatory of music, under the direction of Dean Charles Amadon, gives their half hour program over radio station KGBZ. On Nov. 22 the following program was given:

"My True Love" ----- Hadley
"A Song of Fellowship" Harvey Gaul
Theodore Peterson
"Chanson Iriste" --- Ischaikowsky
Clarice Froid
Talk ----- Pres. J. R. Overmiller
"Thanks Be To God" ---- Dickson
Lois Overmiller
"The Allegro Movement from Beethoven's G. Minor Sonata,
Opus 2, No. 1 ---- Margaret Yust
On Nov. 15 the York College Glee Club contributed numbers, while Milan Lambert, Ethel Dixon and Brighton Houston offered piano and vocal solos. Dean Charles Bisset also gave a short talk on this program.

ENTERTAINS FOOTBALL MEN

Mr. Guy Uhrich, manager and leasee of the Opera House, extended an invitation to the football men of York College and York High School to attend free of charge his entertainment at the Opera House on Nov. 8. A good number of the men accepted Mr. Uhrich's kind invitation, and Floyd Mann, captain of the York College team, stated that the men appreciated it very much. Mr. Uhrich is a University of Chicago man, and evidently appreciates athletics and the association with football men.

He: We must stop going to the theatre so often. I must think about our bills.
She: Well, can't you think about the bills in the theatre?

HON. CHARLES H. SLOAN

Mr. Sloan visited York recently and addressed the student body of York College on Armistice day. Mr. Sloan, who was elected to congress in the past election by a majority of 218 votes, spoke on "Peace". He discussed at length the topics of disarmament, world peace, causes of the World War, and similar topics.

FRESHMEN METED OUT PUNISHMENT BY BOOSTER CLUB

Court in Session in Pals Hall
Tries Offenders of Rule to Wear Green

"Judge" John K. Miller called the court to order in the Pals' hall Tuesday noon, Nov. 20, for the purpose of trying 13 offenders. Nearly 75 students were in the court on the day. Brookhart and Harlon Moore entered the court, and took seats on the south. The judge wore his top-coat.

Nita Caldwell, freshman representative on the Booster Club, was the first offender called up. Her accuser was Edna Coffey, and the charge was wearing cosmetics in the College on Monday morning. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and the judge ordered that the trial would be held at a later date for Miss Caldwell. Miss Caldwell wore a red hat, and appeared very calm. She resumed her seat after the judge had dismissed her and engaged in removing superfluous lip-stick and rouge.

Ethel Jose was accused by Edna Coffey, and the defendant pleaded guilty. Considerable trouble was caused by the fact that The Sandhurr rules said nothing about cosmetics at a football game. It was decided that Mildred McCloud, Josephine Spore and Martha Evans would receive half the usual penalty for this offense. Vivian Hoyle pleaded guilty to two charges made by Lucille Edmundson. Gertrude Statz and Mildred Adkins pleaded guilty to their charges.

John Boren failed to appear in court, and will be tried at a convenient time by the Booster Club. The jury finally declared Anna Samuelson guilty, who stated that she did not know of the first trial held Nov. 13. This statement caused considerable controversy. In the course of the session Leo Anderson, president of the Booster Club, stated that the ribbons and caps could be called for any time.

At the first session of the court, on Nov. 13, it was decided that the rules of procedure concerning accusers and offenders would be made more definite. A large number of offenders were tried at the first session of the court, most of which were found guilty and punished accordingly.

In London recently a man was knocked down by a perambulator and injured. A newspaper suggests that if no horn is provided, nursemaids should give the baby a sharp pinch at crossings.—Boston Transcript.

Y. W. C. A.

An all-musical program as presented at the Y. W. C. A. meeting on Nov. 20. The first number of the program was a piano duet played by Ardith Kull and Margaret Yust. After a song by the entire group a quartet composed of Jean Haner, Martha Evans, Josephine Spore and Nita Caldwell sang. In place of a scripture reading Mildred Adkins and Mildred Dann sang the Twenty-third Psalm. Lois Overmiller then sang a prayer, after which the life of Fannie Crosby was briefly sketched by Ardyce Chapin. At the close of the meeting Mrs. J. R. Overmiller led in prayer.

FOUNDATION OF NEW GYM IS NOW LAID; WORK IS PROGRESSING ON TIME

Coach R. B. McCandless and Men of College Are Doing
Most of Work

The concrete foundation of the new gymnasium is entirely laid, and on the morning of Nov. 26 the work of tearing down the forms began. With the exception of the carpentry work, and the work done by Coach R. B. McCandless the concrete foundation was laid by the men of the College.

Almost daily the call was made for men to work, and a good number of the men responded, some putting in a full day's work, others a half day's work or as many periods as they can spare. Coach McCandless, who is directing the work, announced in chapel on Nov. 22 that more men would be needed.

The next task at hand is to construct the steel framework of the building which the building will be stuccoed. The new gymnasium is still expected to be completed in time for the first home game, although the date of that game is not definitely set as yet.

MARATHON STAFF STILL SOLICITING ADVERTISERS

Sales Campaign Is Also Not To Be Complete Yet

The sales campaign for The Marathon, the York College year book, has not been ended as yet. The Marathon staff has sent letters to all the members of the class of '28 to encourage them to purchase a year-book. All of these solicited have not been heard from, but some of them have sent in their orders.

At present the specifications for printing The Marathon have been given the local printing companies, and they are preparing to submit their bids. Onita Stone, editor of The Marathon, states that the cooperation of the students in having their pictures taken on time was genuinely appreciated by The Marathon staff.

Although all the business men have not yet been solicited to advertise in the yearbook, a number of merchants have signed up for space. Those who have promised to advertise so far are: Gale's Studio, F. A. Hannis, Feaster's Floral Shop, Bradwell Drug Company, Freeman's Market, Middlebrook Beauty Parlor, Sledd Wholesale Merchandise Company, Rogers Shoe Company, Bear & Company, City National Bank, York Floral Company, Fair Hat Shop, Standard Printing Company, Dr. C. H. Bugh, Dr. Charles M. Cox, Dr. H. L. Vradenburg and the American State Bank.

In a colored family one of the boys, Mose, had been away to school and on his first morning at home on vacation his brother, Sam, said to him at the breakfast table, "Mose, pass the 'lasses'."

Mose replied, "Sam, you shouldn't say 'lasses'. You should say 'molasses', to which Sam answered, "Huh! Hoy you goin' 'a say 'molasses' when you ain't had none yit?"

FORMER COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYER WILL BE HONORED

Neal, Member of Championship
Team of '22, Starring in the East

Orville Ellsworth Neal, a former backfield man on the York College football team, will probably be mentioned on an All-American football team, according to a report in the York Republican. Neal played with York College in 1921 and 1922 when Ernie Frank was coach. This was during the year that York College walked away with the conference championship, and Neal was recognized as one of the toughest backs in the conference.

Neal is now attending Western College, at Westminster, Maryland, where he is working under Coach Dick Harlow, former Colgate athletic mentor, who stated that Neal is without exception one of the hardest hitting backs in action this season, and has caused considerable comment the past two seasons. In Harlow's opinion he rates with Eddie Tryon and Nick Mehler, two of the greatest backs that Harlow has ever coached.

Orville "Greasy" Neal came to York College from Beaver City where he had played football on the high school team. After two years with the College team he joined the marines at Quantico and played with them for two seasons, during 1923 and 1924. In 1925 Hugo Bezdek, Penn. state coach, recognized his possibilities and offered him assistance if he would play with his team.

the year following he entered Western College at Westminster, Maryland.

York friends and football fans remember Neal as the lad with a big broad smile, a hearty laugh—a good all-round fellow. Neal worked his way through his two years at York College by waiting tables at the Kroy cafe. He was one of Pete Schnitzen's boys.

PALS LITERARY SOCIETY

At the Pals' Literary Society meeting on Nov. 20 a Thanksgiving program was presented, with the following as numbers of the program:

Impromptu ----- Lyle Clements
"Turkey"

Prelude ----- Abe Goertzen
"Meditation" by Morrison

Paper ----- Thornton Miller
"The Significance of Thanksgiving"

Pantomime in charge of Edna Coffey. Although Clements was taken by surprise it was said that "he did the turkey justice". Goertzen, who has composed several pieces himself, contributed a number which was thought by many to be the best of the program. In Miller's talk he called to mind the many things to be thankful for, and mentioned the debt owed to the Pilgrim Fathers. The pantomime was in a colonial setting, presenting a colonial couple in costume. Mildred Dann and Wendall Estal took the two parts. During a part of the scene Mary Marjorie Haner sang softly, "Love's Old Sweet Song."

After the program a social period was enjoyed, with Margaret Hill directing. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served to the members.

The subscribers of a small western town newspaper were startled one week when they received four blank pages, and the following story printed small in the center of the first page:

We are thorry to thtate that our compothing room laht night and thtote every eth in the ethtabliment. We have reathon to thome unknown thcoundrel entered thuthpect who thith thcoundrel th and when we catch him we'll thhoot thith onery hide full of hoeth.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

From present indications York College will have a definite system of student government. Some have expressed some doubt as to the need of a clause in the constitution concerning faculty regulation of all activities of the student council.

However may we not point out that no government body should have absolute power to make decisions without any possible check on them? Of course the clause in question could effectively smother anything planned by the student council if the faculty so desired, but we cannot believe that the faculty entertained any such intention. Besides planning for the students now at College, the faculty must take into consideration the students that will be here five and ten years from now, when student government would still be in operation, for perhaps the attitude and intentions of later students will make such a clause important.

The success of the student council will depend entirely on the students whom we elect as president and representatives, and the amount of time and thought those elected give to the functioning of the student council.

WANTED

The Sandburr is a student publication. It is managed and edited by students, and should be interesting especially to the students, for the greatest number of the known readers of The Sandburr are the students. It should be, of course, made interesting to the alumni also, as the alumni now claim a paid circulation. With apologies to that man of the ages we might say that The Sandburr is a paper of the students, for the students, and by the students.

Therefore we wish to invite students to contribute to The Sandburr. We are especially interested in building up a better humor column, and we would prefer that jokes handed in are true. In almost every class attended, not to mention other sources on the campus, someone in some situation offers a good joke. It is these jokes we want particularly. When you hear them, write them down and drop them in The Sandburr box, in the hall on the main floor.

Suggestions and criticisms will be entirely welcome also, for we should like to make The Sandburr an intensely interesting paper to the students, and if possible one of the best in the state. Read the papers from the other colleges and compare them with ours. Many, we know, are much better, and this fact is one reason for this rather intrusive "want ad". We want contributions, jokes or otherwise. Will you help us?

A CHALLENGE

A standing challenge is hereby issued to any "frat" house in York to a basketball game. It comes from the College men rooming at the S. A. Myers' home on Seventh street, who call themselves "the Seventh Street Panthers."

"We are an all-star team having a twenty year record untarnished by defeat. Naturally we feel that ours is the best "frat" house team in this territory", states one of the members of this team, who further describes the team.

"The team is comprised of Poulson and L. Hanshew at guards, U. Hanshew and Stream at forwards, and Mahlin at center. John Boren, all-American waterboy, is another great aid to the team. Furthermore our success is warranted by having at the helm as coach and manager, Captain Neil Robson, a man of unquestioned ability and experience in athletic circles. For games see any of the squad."

Gruff father (to son): Why don't you go out and find a job? When I was your age I was your age I was working for $3 a week in a store, and at the end of five years I owned the store."

Son: "You can't do that nowadays. They have cash registers."

KAMPUS KWIPS

Helen: "So you always serve doughnuts when Fred calls?"
 Alice: "Yes, that's the way I try to remind him of rings and dough at the same time."

Stranger: "I represent a society for the suppression of profanity. I want to take profanity entirely out of your life and—"

Anderson: "Well I won't sell it for less than $200. It's a '26 model, and it's still in good running condition."

Nita Caldwell: "Have you bought your tickets for the football banquet?"

Jeffers: "How much are they?"
 Nita Caldwell: "$5.00 for a half a dozen."

Estal: "Does football require any particular application?"

McCandless: "No, armica or horse liniment—one is as good as the other, if not a little better."

Mrs. Crosby (in Y. W. C. A.): "Y. M. has done so much for the boys."

YORK DROPS TWO GAMES: MIDLAND AND TO HASTINGS

Strong Midland Team Wins 51-0; Conference Champions Win by 52-6

On Nov. 12 the Panthers journeyed to Fremont and received the worst drubbing of the season when Midland's Warriors crushed them 51-0. In the first half York held Midland to two touchdowns, one of which should have been prevented, but the second half found the Panther team less efficient.

The game opened by York kicking to Midland. The ball was downed on Midland's 35-yard line. On the first play a Warrior plunged through the middle of the line and ran 65 yards for a touchdown. The Panthers then tightened up and held for the rest of the quarter. During the second quarter on a series of fake end runs Midland again carried the ball over for their second counter. The kick after goal was good, and the half ended with score 13-0.

In the third quarter the Warriors counted out two more touchdowns. The Panthers were fighting valiantly, but the passing attack of the Warrior team and their hard hitting backs was slowly but surely wearing them out.

In the last quarter the Warriors seemed to be able to score at will over the tired and crippled Panther Line. In this quarter they scored four more touchdowns and made good most of their kick after goals. The final score was 51-0.

Injuries hampered the Panthers. Casebeer played only part of the game, and Sterner was unable to play at all. Knolle is to be complimented on his punting which was a feature of the game. Hunt played a commendable game in the line. Gallant also showed up well.

conference to score on the powerful Hastings team.

The game opened with York defending the north goal and kicking to Hastings. York downed them deep in their territory and held them fairly well. However, before the quarter had ended Hastings got away for a touchdown.

In the second quarter a pass netted them another touchdown, and before the half had ended they had again carried it over for another. The half ended with the score 20-0.

The Panthers came back and showed a little fight, but Hastings got away for another touchdown and a little later followed it with still another. Then York showed their best exhibition of football of the whole game. They recovered a fumbled punt, and from scrimmage Mann passed to Gallant who barely caught it, making 30 yards. Following this play Mann passed to Casebeer who carried it a yard across the goal line.

In the last quarter Hastings again crossed the goal line for three more touchdowns. The game ended with York in possession of the ball deep in their own territory.

SPORT/TORIAL

What is school spirit? We wonder. We have heard much about it. Yet we also have noticed that some who have talked the loudest in chapel pep meetings were conspicuous by their absence on the wheelbarrow gang who poured the concrete for the new gym. Is this school spirit? Again we wonder. We heard nothing on the campus about the Hastings game until the morning of the game. Why not have our games in mind and talk them up beforehand?

FRESHMEN WIN SECOND OF SERIES OF CONTESTS

Women's Volleyball Game Won by Freshmen, Score 3-2

The second of a series of contests to decide whether or not the freshmen must wear "the green" until Christmas was played off at the College gymnasium on Nov. 15. It was a volleyball game between the women of the three upper classes and the women of the freshman class. Five games were played, three of which were won by the first year class.

The games are close, not to mention how exciting they were. The sides were fairly evenly matched and the last game was contested fiercely by the players, but the freshmen finally pulled through on top. The freshmen won the first game and won every other game of the series.

A number of rooters witnessed the five games, both students and also faculty members, and considerable spirit was demonstrated during the games, especially the last game, which was not as close as its importance would seem to have made it. Coach R. B. McCandless refereed the five games.

YORK TIES DANA 6-6 ON OUR FIELD NOV. 24

Pass from Mann to Dierdorff Saves Day for York

York College tied Dana College on Nov. 24 on the home field. Although comparative scores had Dana doped to win two to one, yet if York had played just a little bit better brand of football the score would have been different.

Dana scored their touchdown in the first quarter, while York made theirs in the early part of the fourth quarter by completing a pass, Mann to Dierdorff. L. Hanshaw, Jeffers, and Dierdorff showed up well in the game, Dierdorff making some fine plays. The game was rather loose at times, especially so in the passing, as many were fumbled.

YORK LOSES TO HASTINGS

The Panthers fell before the Hastings Bronchos to the tune of 52-6 on the home gridiron Nov. 19. The Bronchos, riding at the head of the N. C. A. C., simply pounded the Panthers to pieces. There is some consolation in the fact that the Panthers are the second team in the

POLITICS AS A CAREER FOR THE COLLEGIAN

"Politics never used to be considered a gentleman's game," says Leo A. Borah, in the December issue of College Humor. "College folk looked down on the whole business with disdain. They wouldn't give it a minute's consideration. But the attitude of the college is changing today; he recognizes politics as a real force in the country. If the students who really feel an active interest in government will consider politics as a career and enroll in the courses intended to prepare them for it, the United States will be able to mix in world politics without fear. It will no longer be the tenderfoot sitting in the other fellow's game.

"The student who would go in for politics needs to obtain first a thorough cultural education. At the same time he must learn how to put his knowledge to work, how to get out of the academic rut and talk the language of the electorate. A charlatan with full complement of campaign tricks can beat the most brilliant theorist in the world if the theorist does not know how to put his stuff over.

"The trouble with most American college students today is that they know nothing about public affairs. In an examination in current event in a certain university, one student identified George Washington English as a famous negro educator. Another thought Maxfield Parrish was the headquarters of the Ku Klux Klan. With that sort of knowledge, how can college students expect to do anything at politics? Fortunately not all students are like that. With the coming of professors of practical politics has come a growing interest of students in the business of government.

"Politics is not a crowded profession. It gives you a chance to use your personality and your education and at the same time to be a regular human being."
