

ATWOOD ADDRESSES CHAPEL ON SUBJECT "THE CONSTITUTION"

Declares That Many Are Quite Ignorant of Contents of Document.

"The Constitution of the United States" was the subject of an address given in chapel the morning of Feb. 28 by Harry Atwood, of Chicago, Ill., president of the Constitutional Educational Association. Mr. Atwood is recognized as one of the best, if not the best informed man concerning the constitution of the United States and its provisions.

In his opening remarks he mentioned the relatively small number of people who have even the slightest conception of the contents of the constitution, saying that it has been estimated that not over a hundred persons know what is in it.

He mentioned some of the conditions which existed in the United States following the close of the Revolutionary war and prior to the signing of the constitution. Washington described this condition as anarchy, chaos, and darkness and had grave fears for the future of the country. A greater transformation took place in the three years following the adoption of the constitution than has ever been known in any other five years of the world's history.

"Every word in the constitution," said Mr. Atwood, "can be classed as protest and assertion. There are no principles and no philosophy in it. The men who wrote the constitution approached the problem of government in terms of plan, purpose, powers, and restraints, believing that if they could devise a wise plan, invest the officials with right powers and curb those powers with right restraints they could make a good government."

"Without the constitution we would probably be back in the hands of the monarchies of Europe," continued Mr. Atwood.

In the last thirty years we have started destroying the constitution, he said, by making changes in it. Many of these matters could be taken.

MAXSON AND COLSON GIVE CHALK TALK

"Early Life in the Americas" Illustrated.

Tuesday morning, March 4, Theron Maxson and Ira Colson presented a chalk talk for the Y. M. C. A. The subject chosen was, "Early Life in the Americas."

Maxson told of the many ideas about the possible origin of the Indians here, while Colson drew a map of the northern part of the continent of North America and the northern part of Asia. At one time it is very possible that there were one or two strips of land that connected the two continents. This is indicated by the similarity of the animals found in the same parts of both continents. Asiatic peoples were probably the first to populate America.

He also discussed the origin of animals, and the migrations of the dinosaur and other prehistoric animals. Colson drew a picture of a dinosaur which is thought to be one of the type found here hundreds of years ago.

There were many nomads in what is now the central part of the United States. The products of art of the cliff dwellers in the southwestern states are today being discovered and are serving as a source for research concerning these people. The early Indians had many efficient ways of communication and travel. Their carvings and patterns on the walls serve as possible clues to the time of their work.

"Y" CLUB COMPLETES PLANS FOR TOURNAMENT

Latest Additions to Club Join in Ham and Egg Feed.

The "Y" Club held its regular monthly meeting with a ham and egg "feed" at the Conservatory on the evening of March 5. It was the first regular meeting for the 1929-30 lettermen and twenty-three men were in attendance. More detailed plans for the regional tournament were discussed and committees appointed.

Ira Colson, vice president, conducted the meeting on request of Dean Bisset. The president, Ray Ruppel, under suspension by the Student Council for holding two major offices, will not preside until the ruling is tested. Wayne Gallant, Student Council representative, was requested to be present at all future Council meetings. The same rules as apply to regular "Y" Club meetings for absentees will apply to this office.

An initiation committee composed of McCandless, Dierdorff, and Wildman, was appointed and instructed to plan for an initiation night on the evening of March 18. The secretary was instructed to notify all new members five days before the meeting.

Tournament committees for concessions and check-room were appointed, with Ruppel, chairman of concessions, and Hanshaw, chairman of check-room. Dimig and Davis will assist on the concession committee and Conklin and Martinez on the check-room committee. Two girls, whose tickets will be paid by the "Y" Club will assist in selling the concessions.

Before the meeting closed it was impressed upon the members that by their cordiality and courteous conduct they may win many future students for York College.

After the meeting was adjourned, Gallant, Hunt, and Dierdorff received the "Y" Club penalty for absence.

J. H. WRIGHT SPEAKS TO Y. M. C. A. ON "SERVICE"

Mr. J. H. Wright, the secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., spoke to the College "Y" the morning of Feb. 25. He gave some very interesting hints on how we could serve others, and proceeded to illustrate them with concrete examples.

In doing service one must locate a problem, and find out how to solve it, as in the case of a dog that sees a crab for the first time and doesn't know just where to attack it.

The second point made was the ability to discover leaders and get them into some good work. As an example of this Mr. Wright spoke of Edward Kimball, whom very few have heard of, but he was the man who discovered Dwight Moody and enlisted him in the work for which he is so well known and loved.

Service comes not without sacrifice, the sacrifice of our time, money, personal devotions and good thinking.

Here Mr. Wright stated an interesting fact: in 1928, 739 books were barred by United States postal and customs departments. We need leisure time in which to read good books and in which to be alone to think. Tolstoy said, "Drinking started because mankind wanted to stop thinking."

RECITAL PRESENTED TO LARGE AUDIENCE FOR NEW OFFICERS

Program Given With Authority and Perfect Poise on Part of Player.

The post-graduate recital given by Milan Lambert at the United Brethren church on the evening of Feb. 24, was attended by the largest crowd a recital has drawn for some time.

Two years ago Milan gave his graduation recital. Since then he has been a student in the collegiate course, ranking now as a sophomore, and has continued his music with Miss Eda Rankin, of the college conservatory, to whose splendid instruction much credit is due. Besides his school work Milan is occupied in playing the organ at the York Theater. For a while he also broadcasted over Station KGBZ with the "Golden Rod" trio.

Those among his listeners at the recital who are acquainted with musical technique know that his was absolutely effortless. The entire program was given with authority, and the memory work was perfect. The technique being effortless, was easily adequate for all the demands upon it. Those who are versed in music give as favorable criticism of Milan's playing as the less erudite lovers of music, who find their chief pleasure in the harmony of sounds.

From the complicated "Fantasia and Fugue" to the dainty Debussy number, and the charming rendition of the Strauss waltzes, with accompaniment by Miss Rankin, the program was given with finish and precision.

The program was as follows:

Fantasia and Fugue.....Bach-Liszt
Variations Serieuses -- Mendelssohn
Sonatine.....Ravel

Modere

Mouv de Mineut

Anime

Etude de Concert.....Scholzer

The Girl With the Flaxen Hair.....

.....Debussy

Rush Hour in Hongkong.....Chasins

The Blue Danube Waltzes.....

.....Strauss-Chasins

REV. J. L. SAWYER LEADS IN DEVOTIONAL SERVICE

The Rev. J. L. Sawyer, pastor of the English Evangelical Lutheran church of York, gave an inspirational address at the chapel service March 6.

He advised each one to look up in life because people are living in the cellar of their lives and for that reason are not making the growth which they might make in the light. This light, he said, comes from God and provides the strength needed for performing the tasks of life.

We need, also, to look forward, he continued. Those who go out in life with a forward look and who put their trust in God need have no fear for the future because we have the promise that, "All things work together for good to them that love God."

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETS AT DAYTON, O.

Plan Survey of Territories of York and Kansas City Uni.

The annual session of the Board of Christian Education of the United Brethren church was held at Dayton, Ohio, Feb. 25, 26, and 27.

Over two hundred people, representing each conference and educational institution of the church, assembled to develop new plans to work in the combined field of Sunday School, Christian Endeavor and College Education. This work was entrusted to the board by the last General Conference of the United Brethren church.

The Board appointed a commission, composed of Bishop G. D. Abdorff, Rev. M. B. Leach, Pres. W. G. Clippinger of Otterbein College, Attorney J. R. Engle, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. H. H. Baish, to study the educational situation in the South West District in which York College and Kansas City University are serving. It is to determine ways and means of strengthening the educational work of the district by making a survey which will be completed during the month of March.

The Conference was led and inspired by addresses delivered by leading men of the church. Denominational fellowship was fostered by the appearance on the program of Miss Nellie Young of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Harry Thomas Stoch of the Congregational church, Dr. Layman of the Evangelical Synod, and Dr. Harry J. Christman of the Reformed church.

NEW Y. W. C. A. CABINET HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The new officers of the Y. W. C. A. for 1930 held their first cabinet meeting the evening of March 4, at the Conservatory. Devotions were led by the president, Margaret Yust.

During the evening plans concerning the May Fete were discussed. May 9 was set as a tentative date for the affair. The Histrionic Club is planning to present a play for the occasion.

A reading contest was introduced, each girl being required to read something along the Y. W. C. A. line. Two hours of reading are required between cabinet meetings.

Plans were made for redecorating of the Y. W. C. A. room in the basement of the library building.

In order to further friendship between the Girl Reserves of the high school and the Y. W. C. A. girls of the College an afternoon tea will be held sometime in the near future to which members of both organizations will be invited.

NEW Y. W. C. A. PRESIDENT SPEAKS AT FIRST MEETING

The program for the Y. W. C. A. meeting of March 4 was as follows: Prelude.....Jeanette Bisset
Devotions.....Marie Anderson
Vocal Solo.....Julia Wilson
"Assembling Life", talk.....

.....Margaret Yust

This program begins a new year for the Y. W. C. A. New members are added and a new cabinet takes up its work. In the talk by the new president, Margaret Yust, the aims of Y. W. C. A. were mentioned and the tasks of the coming year presented.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS ANNUAL INSTALLATION BANQUET FOR NEW OFFICERS

Seventy-Five Girls Present at Banquet Held at United Brethren Church.

The annual Y. W. C. A. banquet was held Thursday evening, Feb. 27, in the basement of the United Brethren church.

The "spring" idea was carried out both in decorations and program. Lighted tapers and potted hyacinths, cyclamens, and jonquils decorated the small circular tables at which the guests were seated. The room was lighted only by the glowing candles. Programs were dainty green folders decorated with painted daffodils.

The program:

Toastmistress.....Onita Stone

Seniority.....Hazel Bearss

Prophecy.....Margaret Yust

Recess.....Trio

Instrumental.....Mrs. Loreman

Nature.....Ruth Kunkel

Growth.....Mrs. McCandless

"Seniority" was the subject of the toast given by Hazel Bearss, retiring president of Y. W. C. A. Miss Bearss brought out the idea that Y. W. C. A. should and could be made the most vital organization on the campus. "Seniority" was made the basis for nine topics suggestive of making Y. W. C. A. a vital organization. These topics are simplicity, effort, nucleus, imagination, object, responsibility, initiative, trust, and youth. Miss Bearss brought her toast to a close with a popular quotation from Browning's "Pippa Passes."

"Prophecy" was the toast responded to by Margaret Yust, president-elect of the Y. W. C. A. Participation, not cooperation is what Miss Yust requires of her fellow Y. W. C. A. workers. Another year of work, fun and usefulness was prophesied by the president-elect.

"Recess" included two numbers. A vocal trio, composed of Lois Overmiller, Edith Lawson, and Julia Wilson sang "Danny Boy," arranged to "Londonberry Air," and Mrs. Loreman read "The Universal Impulse" by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow.

Y. W. C. A. CONVENTION HELD AT LINCOLN

Well-known Speakers Address Students.

A Y. W. C. A. convention sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. on the University campus at Lincoln, Feb. 21, 22, was attended by several of the girls from York College.

Invitations were issued to all the college organizations in Nebraska and several of the schools sent representatives. The girls were entertained at various sorority houses in the city.

The theme of the convention was racial problems. The speakers were: Mr. Wolfe von De Vol, a representative from Germany who is the editor of a widely read German newspaper. He was president of the League of Nation Union, and at present is president of the Rotary Club of Germany. He spoke on the value of the League of Nations, also giving hints as to Germany's condition as a country at the present time.

Mr. Frank Wilson, who is the negro traveling secretary for the Y. M. C. A. and who works mainly in the negro colleges, spoke on the racial problem. He conducted several very interesting discussion groups along this line. Miss Margaret Reed, traveling secretary for Y. W. C. A. in Australia spoke of the world Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. convention held at Geneva, Switzerland, a year ago.

ON THE AIR

The College has lately been receiving letters from alumni expressing a desire to hear York College "on the air." It does seem that there should be some cooperation between the College and Dr. Miller's broadcasting station. The many alumni, scattered within the broadcasting area, would be very pleased to "tune in" and listen to York college programs.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS

Getting out this paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, readers say we are silly. If we don't, they complain we are too serious. If we write all our own stuff, they say we lack variety. If we stick to the desk, we ought to be about digging up news. If we are out digging up news, we are letting things go hang in our office. If we don't print contributions we aren't showing the proper appreciation. If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk. Likely as not, some one will say we swiped this from another medium. We did.

IMPRESSIONS

The past week scores of young athletes and their followers visited our college campus in attendance during the regional basketball tournament. What were their impressions of York College?

These impressions were furnished by the student body, and the students themselves were responsible for the attitude of these future college students as they left the campus. Did they see our College as a friendly, Christian group of students having a broader outlook on life than that which surrounds them, or did it present a view antagonistic to their minds.

A college's best medium of advertising is its student body. Students by their actions, by their works and by their attitudes present to the public, the college's reason for existence. Our influence on prospective students, if in the right direction, gives to our Alma Mater a larger student body on which to expand. Are you a booster, or are you just absorbing knowledge, digesting lectures, and presenting a bored countenance to the outside world. If you greeted these young people, made them feel at home on our campus, and told them of the many opportunities to be gained, you are a loyal York College Booster.

Y. C.

Help us give you a better paper by mentioning THE SANDBURR when calling on our advertisers.

The President's Message

By Pres. J. R. Overmiller

I am quite sure that there is no time or period in the lives of young people which is fraught with more of vital importance than the period of college life. Fellowships, and facts; adventures in investigation and experiences; activities and demands of every sort crowd the life. A student may at times stop and ask his soul soberly, Whither art thou bound? . . . Many of the experiences of this period will not necessarily determine the destiny of the soul nor the end of the life. Yet in the midst of this intensely interesting, epoch making period of life the prophet of wisdom would whisper to the student of today as he spoke to the pilgrim of days gone by when he said, "Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God."

I would gladly grant much of opportunity for unhampered thought and freedom of exercise during this period. I am convinced however, in my own mind, that all truth is centered in the maker of us all and that truth that is eminent must radiate from that source from which flows the life of the universe. The individual who forgets this source is apt to wander in paths which have no end and grapple with phantoms which seem to be real but which have no body or reality. I will beware.

Y. C.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Have you ever stopped to think when picking up the latest issue of "The Sandburr" that the paper represents the school? The members of the staff can tell you just how particular they have to be when planning material. It takes most of the news that can be found, heard or scraped up around the campus to make the four full sheets you read every two weeks.

We think you will all admit that articles which you have contributed yourself give you a little thrill of pride when you behold them in black and white. Personal essays are widely read and enjoyed. "The Sandburr" is your paper. We want your work. A student opinion column would be interesting, would it not? Well, then, let's have your opinion. What of? Of anything—organizations, campus problems, or your personal opinion on student problems.

Funny things are happening every day on the campus. They add spice to the paper under the head of "Kampus Kwips." Whenever you hear anything funny or unusual, write it down and hand it to some staff member or deposit it in the Sandburr box in the main hall of the Administration building. Any personals will be accepted with pleasure.

Come on, students, help make a good representative paper. Pull out your pencil and paper and get started!

SUMMER SCHOOL SESSION OPENS ON JUNE SECOND

For a number of years York College has conducted a summer school session which has drawn a splendid attendance to its course. The courses offered are adapted to the needs of students who desire summer work to add to their credits leading to a degree and to students and teachers who desire to improve their equipment for the teaching profession. The courses offered, although not as broad as the regular winter term courses, offer a splendid range for choice of work.

Personals

Ivan Caldwell, '28, supervisor of music in the Dannebrog schools, visited relatives and friends in York last week end.

Helen Oliver visited her parents in Shelton March 1 and 2.

Mrs. Hugo Carpenter, of Hampton, died in the Lutheran hospital at York March 1. Marjory Carpenter, her daughter, was a student of York College last semester.

Eleanor Zike and Bessie James visited the former's parents in Merville, Ia., the week end of Feb. 22.

The Rev. and Mrs. Dye, of the Calvary United Brethren church, of Lincoln, visited on the college campus Feb. 25. They attended the Pals' program and the basketball game that evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dye were once associated with a New Nexico mission school.

Miss Alice Coffey, '29, visited friends in the Conservatory Feb. 22. Miss Coffey is teaching English in the Shickley schools this year.

Hazel Bearss, Margaret Yust, Opal Mitchell, Jeanette Bisset, and Lois Overmiller attended the Y. W. C. A. convention held on the University campus at Lincoln, Feb. 21 and 22.

Opal Mitchell, Hazel Bearss, Ray Ruppel, Jeanette Bisset, Nita Caldwell, Jean Haner, Ruth Peterson and Evelyn Coufal attended the National Honor Society banquet, Feb. 25. The banquet was held in honor of the new members for the year. It was held at the York high school.

Mr. Eldon Henry and Miss Esther Barker, former York College students, were united in marriage Feb. 14 at Central City. They are now residing on a farm southeast of York.

Vonda Mae Overmiller, one of Miss Pearson's Kinscella students, has been quarantined with measles for the last two weeks.

Pres. J. R. Overmiller returned from Dayton, Ohio, after attending the Board of Education conference. On his trip home he spoke at Albia, Ia., and at Clarinda, Ia.

Miss Emma Fye spent March 1 and 2 at her home in Aurora.

Donald Fisher spent Saturday and Sunday, March 1 and 22, at his home in North Loup.

Verne Dierdorff visited with his parents at Hastings, March 1 and 2.

Thelma Dierdorff, a former York College student, and her mother, Mrs. H. A. Dierdorff, from Hastings, attended Milan Lambert's recital Feb. 24.

Rev. A. R. Caldwell is again engaged in field work for York College. He has previously worked for the college and is well known over the conference.

Mr. Roland Ruppel, of Sargent, visited his brother, Ray Ruppel, on the campus March 6.

"Meinholtz, the Times Wants You ---"

FRED E. MEINHOLTZ of the New York Times sat in his home on Long Island, listening-in on a radio press dispatch from the Byrd expedition. Someone on the Times staff wanted to reach Meinholtz on his home phone. And quickly! But the receiver there happened to be off the hook.

Radio science was equal to the occasion. The Times radio operator sent a request to the fur-clad operator at the other end of the world. And Meinholtz was quickly made aware of the situation by a radio message from Antarctica saying: "Meinholtz, the Times wants you to hang up your receiver so that they can call you on the telephone."

In The Library

By Miss Vera Herrick

The educational classes have found the set of books called The Classroom Teacher very helpful and instructive. Until just lately only the first six books were available. Now the entire set of twelve volumes is in the library.

In these last six volumes one will find a very comprehensive treatment of the field of education, especially methods of teaching in the intermediate grade section. Beside this, there is a division called the Junior High School section which ought to interest greatly those who expect to teach in high school. The nature study class will find them extremely valuable in that study.

A new book entitled "The Rise and Romance of the American Tropics" is to be recommended to students interested either in the study of Spanish history in America or to those making a study of the future of economics and industrial America in this section.

Besides these, some very up-to-date books on missions have been placed in the library. Ask for "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem," by Montgomery; "Youth and the New America," by Oxnam, or "Blind Spots," by Leiper.

Y. W. C. A. CABINETS HOLD SLUMBER PARTY AND FEED

The old members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet entertained the new cabinet at a slumber party held in the Y. W. C. A. rest rooms the night of Feb. 28.

The cabinet members, although they are dignified co-eds, threw care to the winds and frolicked the greater part of the night. Mrs. McCandless and Miss Cone and all of the cabinet members except one, were present at the luncheon served at midnight. This luncheon consisted of fruit salad, sandwiches, cookies and pickles.

The one flaw that marred the happiness of the occasion was the mysterious appearance of a goat. No one knows from whence it came, or just why, but certain people are suspect of treachery.

The new cabinet in taking up its duties feels more interested in the coming year's work because of the reception given by the out-going cabinet, and the Y. W. C. A. slumber party will be long remembered.

PLAY "TAPESTRY WEAVERS" GIVEN AT Y. W. C. A. MEETING

"Tapestry Weavers" was the title of a short playlet presented by a group of girls at the Y. W. C. A. meeting the morning of Feb. 25. This was the last meeting in charge of the old cabinet, and the play presented showed the value of Y. W. C. A. in the lives of the girls. Just as threads were woven into the Oriental tapestries of old, so are the threads of good times, of books, of service, of music, and of nature woven into the tapestries of Y. W. C. A. New threads are always being chosen and woven into the design. The code is the pattern of the tapestry weavers in the organization of Y. W. C. A.

The prelude was given by Thelma Gilmore on the bells. Mrs. Morgan dismissed the meeting with a short prayer.

en care of by statutes and save cluttering up the constitution with them. He scored attempts to set up a democracy and included the direct primary and the referendum in his denunciation.

In closing he commented upon conditions which exist in the United States at the present time, pointing out that during the past thirty years the United States has dropped from its position as the most law abiding country in the world, to the most lawless in the world when considered from the standpoint of murders, and that the average age of the criminal has been reduced from 38 years to 23 years.

"Instrumental" was responded to by a violin quartet, Misses Muriel Thomas, Genevieve Rystrom, Zeldia Wakelin, and Hortense Pointer, who played "Prelude" by Chopin, and "The Mill" by Rebikov.

"Nature" was the subject of the toast given by Ruth Kunkel. Miss Kunkel stated that it is natural for every girl to desire admiration. Y. W. C. A. is the means through which beauty and spirit, which compels the admiration of everyone, can be developed.

"Growth was discussed by Mrs. McCandless. Growth of the Y. W. C. A. can be brought about only by the cooperation of the president and the cabinet, and of the Y. W. C. A. officers and members.

The evening was brought to a close with the singing of "Follow the Gleam," the Y. W. C. A. song.

Installation of the new officers took place immediately preceding the banquet. The customary candle-lighting ceremony was used.

SUPT. VANNICE ADDRESSES STUDENTS AT CHAPEL

The Rev. A. P. Vannice, superintendent of the Nebraska Conference of the United Brethren church, was the speaker at the chapel service Feb. 27. He used as the basis of his talk the Sermon on the Mount. He brought out the thought that happiness is not the end to be sought, but rather that it is a result of right living; that character attainment is a goal and happiness the reward. He stated that we get the most and are the happiest when we contribute something to the welfare of our fellowmen. We all encounter difficulties, he said, which will destroy our happiness unless we accept the help which God offers us. In order to get the most out of life we must follow God's laws. No one, according to Doctor Vannice, ever achieves true happiness until he first achieves those characteristics mentioned in the Sermon on the Mount.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served and the members visited until time for the regular evening service.

GRAND ISLAND ZEBRAS DEFEAT YORK QUINTET IN SEASON'S LAST GAME

Panthers Are Unable to Hold Lead Gained in Last Quarter.

The York Panthers lost one of the most hectic games of the season to the Grand Island Zebras Tuesday evening, February 25, on the local floor by a score of 18-19.

The first half opened with the Zebras gathering five points before the Panthers scored. The Zebras seemed to baffle the York quintet by their stalling game and had things much their own way during the first few minutes. The Panthers succeeded in finding the hoop for three field goals before the end of the half. The score at the half was York 6, Grand Island 12.

The second half found the Panthers determined to whittle down the lead. They succeeded quite well and with but a few minutes to play went into a two point lead. A free shot and a field goal put Grand Island in a three point lead that the Panthers brought down to one point with a field goal, but were unable to slip in another basket during the last moments of the game.

The work of Captain Gallant and Verne Dierdorff was outstanding for the Panthers while Aurand and Wells took the honors for the visitors.

SOCIAL EVENING AT U. B. CHURCH WELL ATTENDED

Approximately one hundred and fifty people, including a number of college students, attended Church Night at the United Brethren church on Wednesday evening, March 5. It was the first service of its kind held here and proved to be very popular.

The evening began with a supper served cafeteria style. This was followed by a reading by Dorothea Hintz, exercises by the junior and intermediate departments of Christian Endeavor, and a violin solo by Clarice Froid. The last part of the meeting was given over to the Quarterly Conference. Reports showed that a total of more than 1400 dollars had passed through the various treasuries of the church during the last three months.

SOPHOMORE CLASS IS VICTOR IN INTERCLASS BASKETBALL TOURNEY

Junior-Senior and Freshman Girls' Teams Play to Tie Score: 19 to 19.

The annual inter-class basketball tournament was held at the College gymnasium on the afternoons of March 5 and 6.

The sophomores captured the finals in the men's class by defeating the juniors 33 to 8. In the consolation round the freshmen bested the seniors 23 to 7.

In the women's tourney the upper-class and freshman women battled to a 19 to 19 tie for first honors.

PANTHERS LOSE GAME TO MIDLAND, 29 TO 25

Gallant and Hersey Are High Scorers of Blue and White Squad.

York College Panthers lost a rather slow game to Midland on the Midland court at Fremont, Saturday evening, Feb. 22, by a score of 29 to 25. Both teams seemed to be playing rather listlessly and there were few thrilling moments during the fray. Krebs for Midland was the high point man of the evening with eight counters. Nordstrom and Johnson of Midland and Gallant and Hersey of the Panther quintet tied for second honors with seven points each. The score at half time was Midland 13, York 10.

MRS. E. C. ANDERSON TALKS TO LIFE WORK RECRUITS

Mrs. C. E. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools in York County, spoke to the Life Work Recruits at their meeting, held at the Hulitt Conservatory reception room on Monday evening, March 3. Her subject was, "Opportunities for Service in the Teaching Profession." Among other things she emphasized the teacher's chance to encourage the student to do great things and the help she can give the child in his physical development.

It was announced that Mr. John Dougherty, a lawyer, of York, would be the next speaker.
