Alumni Plan to Contribute New Heating Equipment

Goal Set at $2,000;
Gallant Is Named
Director of Project

With $128 already received in pledges and cash, the new project of the Alumni Association is well started toward its recently set goal of $2000. The project was presented last month at the annual meeting of the association. At that time Neal Gallant was appointed general director and $78 was received in pledges to start the campaign. Since then many new pledges have been taken and general increased interest is reported.

Recent inspection of the heating plant revealed that the present boiler cannot be continued in use longer than for one more heating season. Present plans are that the new equipment be installed sometime next summer. An estimated $2000 will cover the cost of the boiler, its installation, and other improvements in the system in all buildings on the campus.

As general advisor in the project, President J. R. Overmiller explained. "This comes as a major project which requires immediate attention at a time when funds are limited for anything besides current operation. This can be handled without great sacrifice if a large percentage of former students and alumni can cooperate with the purchase of one or more one dollar shares in the fund."

A chart with squares representing the shares has been prepared and will be placed in the hall of the administration building. Students who are interested will watch the progress of the effort to raise the money by the increase in the number of colored squares as the fund increases.

Names of contributors will be posted with the chart and new names will be added as they come in. The Sandburr will also print these names and report the status of the project from time to time. The list thus far includes:

Percy V. Burke, '18, Sacramento, California.
Mrs. H. W. Kleinschmidt, '22, Stratton, Nebraska.
Marjorie W. Haner, '05, York.
Marian Shambaugh, '34, Lushton.

JEAN WRIGHT ATTENDS PUBLICATIONS MEETING

Jean Wright represented York College at the district meeting of the heads of college publication departments at Lincoln, Dec. 18. Talks and discussions concerning college publications were given by press members and journalistic authorities. The group met at the Cornhusker Club and the University Club. Jean is the York College reporter to state the city papers. She is a member of the present Sandburr staff.

GRAHAM IN NEW YORK

Jack Graham, '35, who has been to South America in behalf of his work in geology, has secured a position in the American Museum in New York City. In March he will return to South America.

EDUCATION DAY IS FEBRUARY 14

"Education Day is planned for February 14," announced President J. R. Overmiller this week. The theme of the observance this year will be "York College Helps Youth Choose".

The observance is designed to acquaint the constituency with the aims and accomplishments of York college. President Overmiller has already informed pastors in the co-operating territory of the plans for the day. Special information will be sent them in a six-page edition of the Sandburr, which will combine the regular news events with a special page devoted to information concerning the college.

Posters have already been planned. They contain pictures of campus leaders with their thoughts on how York college helped them choose a life course. These posters will be mailed to the pastors.

Sophomores Plan Reception Program

Secrecy Pervades Atmosphere as Committees Work Out First All-College Formal Affair

The traditional Sophomore Reception for college students and faculty members will be held next Friday night, January 22 in the United Brethren church at 8:15. It is to be the first formal occasion of the year.

The committees and chairmen appointed by the sophomore class president, John McLaughlin, are as follows: Marjorie Dudek and Isabelle Thompson, program; Nina Brisbin, decorations; Doris Johnson, food; Charlene Hurley, invitations; and Lawrence Deever, general.

After haunting committee members for hours your reporters had to give up. The intended theme of the affair cannot be discovered.

The only clues are the throaty notes of an alto voice and the strains of a swing orchestra mingled with guffaws of laughter coming from behind the doors of locked rooms into which a sophomore who smiles mysteriously is now and then admitted. From this we gather that the program must be some sort of a musical revue. Marjorie Dudek has emphatically announced, however, that everything is to be kept a deep, dark secret until the night of January 22.

Invitations were in student boxes at the library last week.

STAR REPORTER LANDS NEWS OFFICE POSITION

J. B. Spore, former Sandburr reporter, has joined the force of the Republican, one of York's weekly newspapers.

Spore was employed in the back shop of the Republican several years ago. He is a sophomore now but will discontinue his school work for the newspaper field.

He will do local reporting and some work in the back shop.

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUB TO BROADCAST

The York College glee club and orchestra will present a Sunday afternoon program over KFAB of Lincoln at 2:30, January 17. Dean Charles Amadon will direct the glee club while Mrs. Muriel Thomas Clarke directs the orchestra.

BOWLING TOURNEY

A tournament for the bowlers in the W. A. A. has been arranged for Feb. 2 at the York alleys. The winners of the tourney will receive 30 points toward a W. A. A. award, the runner-up 20 points, and entrants 10 points.

MISS COOK TO DIRECT SECOND SUNDAY CONCERT

Miss Wanda Cook, supervisor of music in the York city schools, has been asked by Dean Charles Amadon to direct the glee club of the York college conservatory at the second of a series of Sunday afternoon concerts to be given Jan. 24 at the United Brethren church. The orchestra will also appear on the program.

The first of these programs was given on Nov. 15, when Miss Eda Rankin, head of the piano department of the conservatory, appeared as guest artist.

Varcoe Elected to Teach at Ong

Donald Varcoe, who graduates at the mid year, has accepted a position in the Ong schools as principal of the high school. He will teach Spanish, International Relationships, Commercial Law, American History and coach athletics. His term begins January 18.

MALE QUARTETTE TO TOUR OKLAHOMA

Appearing in district meetings on Christian Education, the male quartette will spend the first week in February touring in Oklahoma. Evening programs will be presented in towns which include the following: Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Enid, Alva, and Blackwell.

Field Representative Guy Ordway will accompany the quartette, and those who will make the trip are Everett Sorenson, Alden Marvel, Wilbur Overmiller, and Robert Gale. Betty Owen will serve as accompanist for the group.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT REPORTS TWO MORE SECURING POSITIONS

The commercial department reports two more positions for former students. Miss Vesta Johnson, commercial student last year, has been employed in the county treasurer's office at Harrisburg, Banner County.

Miss Dorothy Yost, first semester commercial student, is now employed by the Swanson Motors of York. This firm has the Ford agency vacated by the Fate Motor Co.

Wilson Gilmore is a recent enrollee in the departments work.

Y. C. GRADUATE TO TEACH NORMAL ART

Miss Erma Thomas, '31, will succeed Mrs. J. A. Giauque as the art instructor in York college. Because of ill health, Mrs. Giauque has been forced to give up her position as art instructor, which she began at York college in 1922.

Miss Thomas substituted for Mrs. Giauque during the two years of work which she spent in the art department, and was responsible for all of the art work in the Marathon which was published in 1931.

WILL PRESENT PLAY AS DEBATE BENEFIT

In an effort to send the debate team to the Rocky Mountain debate tournament at Denver, Colorado, next month, members of the Histrionic Club are collaborating with team members in the preparation of a play, the proceeds of which will go to defray expenses of the trip.

Although the play has not been definitely cast, Miss Emma Mayfield, head of the expression department, announces that the work selected is "The Imaginary Invalid", by Moliere, and that the outstanding dramatic talent of the college will be recruited for the various parts.

Miss Mayfield hopes the play will be ready for its first presentation within three weeks. She plans at least one out-of-town performance in addition to the one for the student audience.

Advisers Aid in Charting College Courses; Emphasis Put on Payment of All Fees

Second semester registration nearing completion this week as Dean Walter E. Bachman and other faculty advisers finished charting courses, paying special attention to the schedules of the juniors and seniors. Semester examinations are scheduled to begin on January 27 and continue through January 29. Regular classes will be held on Monday and Tuesday of that week.

Particular emphasis should be given to the payment of fees before the semester ends. The Student Council ruling on this matter states that "no semester credit be granted any student until he has satisfactorily met all financial obligations to the institution including tuition, fees, books, and supplies required for classroom work, all library fines, and bills for board and room." This is further enlarged upon to include all reasonable assessments made by organizations which the individual has voluntarily joined.

GOSPEL TEAM CONDUCTS VESPER SERVICE

A Life Work Recruit gospel team captained by Erwin Branson conducted the regular vesper service at the Congregational church at 4:00 last Sunday afternoon. The theme used was "Jesus—the All in All". Barney Rees gave the invocation. Speakers on the program were Erwin Branson, Betty Burton, Charlene Hurley, and Lawrence Deever. Special music was supplied by Bernard Cook and Creston Klingman.

DORMITORY PLAYERS WIN, 23-20

The dormitory girls of the W. A. A. outscored the non-dormitory girls 23-20 in a game Dec. 18. The non-dormitory girls were in the lead until the latter part of the last half, when Lucile Heins fouled out, and the victors forged ahead. Rex Lutz refereed the game. Another game is scheduled between the girls later in the season.

PROF. DOTY DISCUSSES WORLD POLITICS

Professor Earl Doty emphasized the fact that the Spanish situation is the present trend in world politics in a talk to the Y. M. C. A. on January 12. The speaker discussed many aspects of the foreign situation and emphasized the need for the United States to entirely forsake arms shipment and commerce with nations at war.

Lyle Anderson led devotions for the meeting.

Bowers Addresses Mid-Year Alumni Meeting

Association Accepts New Project; Speaker Emphasizes Modern Possibilities

Charles A. Bowers, a graduate of York College in 1913, was the speaker at the annual mid-year banquet and business meeting of the York College Alumni Association, held at the United Brethren church on December 26, 1936. In the business session the most important item of business transacted was the acceptance of a new project for the association, that of a fund toward new equipment for the college heating plant.

Mr. Bowers is the executive secretary of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association with offices in Lincoln. Using the subject of "Pioneering" he emphasized the present day importance of such a theme. In effect he said that while there are not now great new territories to be explored, other areas have opened up, particularly since the depression. Modern pioneers find opportunities in fields of government, education, social relations, and religion.

The banquet tables were decorated in appropriate holiday fashion. Following the dinner each of the sixty-one persons present introduced himself, telling date of graduation, present place of residence and occupation. Percy V. Burke of Sacramento, California, had traveled the longest distance while others had come from Indiana and Illinois. Ted Peterson led the group in singing college songs and Christmas carols.

Myron Holm, president of the association, conducted the business session. The Alumni Association has for several years sponsored a project to enlarge the college library and during that time has contributed more than $2,500 to the fund. At this meeting a new project was proposed and accepted, and pledges were taken. The project is a fund toward new equipment for the college heating plant.

MISS SLEE CONCLUDES Y. W. C. A. SERIES

Concluding a series on the topic, "Graces of Womanhood", Miss Mary Alice Slee led a discussion on "Courtesy" at the first meeting of the Y. W. C. A. for the new year on Tuesday, Jan. 5. "What to do, what not to do, and where and when to do it" were points brought out on simple acts of courtesy.

Jewel McNeill led the devotions and brought thoughts on the new year to the group.

DIFFICULTY IN CASTING "OPERATION AT ONE"

Due to difficulties in casting the one-act play, "Operation at One", by Mrs. Maude Taylor Sarvis, practice has been irregular and the date for the first presentation has not been set. Requests have already been received for the presentation of the play and the director, Dorothy Riggs, is endeavoring to finish the play for presentation by the middle of February.

The cast includes Roderick Stafford, Lawrence Deever; Amah, Patricia Steen; Elinore Stafford, Edith Rabuck; Meng Elan, Jean Mattingly; Knox Fleming, Bernard Cook; Ko-Yo-han, Erwin Branson; Lao Da, Glenn McPherson, and Yang, John Dowd.

SECURES POSITION

Joy Dunker, freshman, has secured a position in the J. C. Penny store as cashier. She will complete her first semester here.

THE REGISTER

AN ENGAGING ARGUMENT

They had a big argument over at the "Con" the other day. Of course, they have them every day but this one just happened to be a special one which would help Penelope, the society editor of The Register to introduce some other material.

It seems it concerned the interesting topic, "When is an engaged couple not engaged" or "Are you or are you not" Anyway, Doris claimed that a couple is engaged just as soon as she whispers "yes" or nods, or sumpin', while Dulcie said they weren't really engaged until she was wearing a ring and thus had visible proof that she had hooked someone. Both parties to the argument had quite a lot to say on the subject, citing precedent, calling in supporters, and finally agreeing to continue to disagree on the matter.

All of which simply gives me the opportunity to say that there have been a number of couples who became engaged the way Dulcie said they had to be. It all happened over Christmas vacation, too. For instance, there is Bernie and Chanute, Lorena and Merrill, and Leta and the boy who came back for Thanksgiving in an airplane. There might be more, for all that I know.

Now as to the ones who are engaged the way Doris says they can be. Well, there is - - - we'll save that until next time when Penelope can do more accurate work. This kind sometimes isn't as lasting as the former type.

And then there is the collegian who said that he had been going with a blonde before Christmas vacation but she dyed.

Leviticus read in the paper that a traffic expert said that the number of accidents at night could be greatly reduced if the highways were lit up at night. "The same results might be obtained if drivers were not," opined Levi.

Maine is expecting a big winter season. Many from all over the country will come to see the republicans. Heh, heh, Branny, we just can't let you rest.

And then there is the ru-more circulating around (and it is vouched for by many) that Dorothy R. and THREE other girls actually squeezed into the "Con" phone booth, all at one time. However, when that was done, these women had little room to talk.

About this time every year The Register usually gives its readers the famous Lasting-Friendships predictions.

Due to the cold weather and the resultant crowding of the fellowshiping facilities of the reception room, many of these affairs have been rather slow to develop. However, we notice that some of those pairs who do not have to depend on the Con for "space and opportunity" seem to be flourishing.

Among the latter we find Otis and Lucille leading the way. When the weather got too chilly for moonlight strolls, someone told Otis he might hire a Hall. This seems to have solved the problem wonderfully, according to reports from "the cottage."

Why Not Study on Saturday?

The proposition of the Student Council to keep the library open on Saturdays is one worthy of consideration. A recent poll of students revealed that about thirty of them would use the library on Saturday afternoon and about half that many would use it all day, should it be kept open.

Some three years ago a similar project was launched by the same organization. That was the attempt to have the library kept open in the evenings. For the first few months, the results of that attempt were not especially encouraging because the study habits of that college group were not easily amenable to the new opportunities. However, with a new college group the following year, evenings at the library took on a decided interest. At the present time, one finds practically every library study table in use during evenings of the school week.

It is the belief of the Council that similar circumstances would follow the inception of the plan for Saturday library work. The fact that thirty persons have indicated their desire to use these facilities gives the project a sound basis.

There would be little expense involved in this plan. The library has to be heated over the week-end, regardless of whether or not it is in use. As for the librarian, we feel that Miss Cone would not have to be on duty, but that this could be handled by student labor.

May we strongly urge that the administration consider the recommendation of the Student Council in the light in which it was made, and if feasible from the administrative viewpoint, inaugurate a program allowing Saturday study at the college library.

The Vote Was 484 to 1

Irrespective of the really ominous situation which exists in Europe today, Americans were somewhat relieved this past week when their highest legislative authorities voted 484 to 1 in favor of a measure prohibiting the shipment of arms and munitions to a country torn by civil war. The measure also prohibited shipment to a foreign country for re-shipment into the strife area.

The Congress did not act quick enough to prevent a New Jersey firm from sending a cargo of valuable fighting equipment to the Spanish loyalists, but it did stem any further actions of that nature. Many Americans saw in this firm's actions, events paralleling those leading up to the World War. It is undeniable that unrestricted shipment to the Spanish rebels or loyalists could have led to catastrophe.

However, with a senate which votes 80-0 for an arms embargo and a house which votes 404 to 1 for the same measure, we can feel that the legislative representatives are in tune with public sentiment. The problem facing Congress during this session is one of continuing and strengthening the present neutrality legislation. We have no doubt but what they will do so.

Yes, We Can Nicely Use That New Heating Equipment

The alumni could hardly have chosen a more worthwhile or timely project than the installation of new heating equipment. Most certainly, the present system is inadequate to heat the various buildings to a comfortable degree and it is fast becoming a menace to safety because of its age.

A contribution from each alumnus will do a lot toward reaching the goal which they have set. Twenty have already signified that they would contribute toward the project. Others are expected to back the project as it gets underway with Neal Gallant in charge of general operations.

As undergraduates, we can urge the alumni in this project because we have a fairly accurate idea of the need. Severe cold weather, lasting as long as it did last winter, would do a lot to complicate matters at the college this year.

Squibs Recopied

Ohio's Governor Martin L. Davey was not called upon to give the shirt off his back, but he was requested to give up a pair of shorts. This is the story as told by the Associated Collegiate Press:

As an initiation stunt, Charles A. Fernald, Ohio State University senior, was ordered, by his Delta Kappa Epsilon brothers, to obtain an autographed pair of Governor Davey's shorts.

Fernald telephoned to find out the governor's size; then he bought a pair, called at the executive's office and proposed a swap.

Governor Davey consented, went into a side office, and, a few minutes later, presented Fernald with the autographed shorts.

Dr. Charles H. Elliot, New Jersey commissioner of education reports that 80 per cent of the states' high schools are already conducting automobile-driving courses.

Swarthmore, Pa. (ACP)—Twenty-seven universities and colleges, representing every section of the country, contributed the 1937 Rhodes Scholars-elect to Oxford University. In announcing the complete return of the thirty-two scholars selected, Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore college and American secretary to the Rhodes Trustees, pointed out that the distribution was more wide-spread than in recent years, only three universities or colleges having more than one scholar-elect.

Princeton University is represented by four scholars, nominated from Connecticut, Ohio, Texas and Missouri; Harvard by two, from North Carolina and Florida; and Swarthmore by two, from Virginia and Maryland. Twenty-four other colleges and universities supplied the scholars.

The scholarships represent an annual stipend of 400 pounds sterling for two years' study at Oxford University, with the option of a third year's study if their work warrants it. Founded under the will of Cecil Rhodes, the scholarships are available to thirty-two men each year.

PROJECT FUND GROWS

Growing steadily, the African project fund has now reached approximately $35. The nickel-a-week club and candy sales have contributed $25 of this amount and one $10 pledge has been received.

With $50 assured by pledge and with the Life Work Recruit play to be presented next semester, the outlook is bright for a boom year in the history of the African project on the York college campus.

York's Second Win Is Over Concordia

Score Is 31-26 in Panthers' Duplicate Victory Over Non-Conference Foe

With both teams showing vast improvement, York managed to take a close decision from Concordia Teachers on the latter's court last Friday night by the score of 26-31.

According to Coach Neal Gallant, the game was the best one of the season for the local boys thus far. The team as a whole was far above par and there was a great deal more teamwork shown than has been to date.

Concordia exhibited a nice team with plenty of speed, teamwork, and a scoring punch that was felt more than once. In Rath the Teachers uncovered a forward who had the locals in hot water several times.

At halftime the score stood York 18, Concordia 10. Coming back with a vengeance the Teachers five began to go to town but the locals had too much of a lead for the opposing quintet to overcome. However, they outscored the Panthers the second half, 16-13.

Lutz, playing his first varsity game for the York team, was high point man, scoring four times from the floor and once from the charity stripe. Saindon was close behind with four field goals. Fellers also showed good form considering the time he has been out for practice.

* Salubrious Selections *

After a hectic vacation, we once again greet you, our fellow sufferers, of the Arctic wave, and hope you are not in the same predicament as yours truly.

The present finds us punching typewriter keys as fast as possible in order to keep our fingers from freezing. It is the favorite indoor sport these days,—this matter of exercise for warmth.

We haven't been able to figure out yet just how so much steam can come from a radiator into the room of your scandal sheet and still have no effect on the temperature thereof.

Pardon the above, but there is nothing any colder than the "Burr" room in a north wind.

If this strikes a stale chord please skip it. However, did you know that Santa Clara who took Louisiana State to a 21-14 trimming on 1937's birthday, has an enrollment of but a few over 500 students. Sorta tough on Huey's old pet. Wonder if the late Sen. Long did the Whirling Joe act?

And also that about nine out of every ten sport scribes picked Washington over Pitt? And that the same outfit says that Champ Braddock will not lose his crown to Schmeling?

York will have her annual High School Invitation Track Meet again this spring. The date has not yet been set, but negotiations are under way to have it rate as a qualifying meet for the State. Last year's meet surpassed any similar meet in this section.

Second semester will find Schoenthal eligible and that should give Coach Gallant the missing member of a winning quintet. But, gosh, it's a long time until second semester. Let's have a flock of wins before that.

Potsy Lutz' basketball improvement has brought him results. He now rates the first eight on the squad. Also his basket eye has been serving him in better stead lately.

Prize comment on the Kearney game—"And didn't York have five little teams on the floor that night, though!"

Kansas University's Phog Allen is thinking worse things than he's saying these days. And the latter is bad enough. Just after K. U.'s court quintet had vindicated themselves by gaining revenge over Southwestern, for the latter's victory over the Jay-hawks early in the season, little Baker U.'s outfit (enrollment 350) played David in cutting down the K. U. Goliaths with five points to spare. Maybe the abolishment of Phog's office as director of athletics, has something to do with the way his team plays.

Maybe we are a bit too optimistic but may we predict that Nebraska

Hard luck honors seem destined to go to Coach Neal Gallant from the way things seem to turn out for him in the line of basketball.

First, Roy Speece was operated on for an abscess in his ear. Then he suffered a slight touch of pneumonia and is unable to participate for the duration of the school term.

Secondly, Perfecto Jaramillo suffered a fractured wrist and thus the team loses a good guard.

Thirdly, fourthly, and all the rest 'ly', Don Wright has dropped school completely, George Wallander is not carrying enough hours to be eligible for athletic competition, Roland Tonkin suffered an attack of the flu over the week end, and Burton Feaster is ineligible.

Small wonder that Neal thinks Calamity Jane has hung one on him!

GYM IS RENOVATED; COURT REFINISHED

Having been previously re-marked, the gym floor was refinished during the Christmas vacation and now offers to cage teams one of the best courts in the state.

Outlines of the court are to be seen very clearly from any spot on the court, offering to officials a better chance to call violations, because of the improved vision it affords.

Also new gas heaters have been placed in both the north and south dressing rooms. The old ones were quite inadequate so far as warmth was concerned, and were very hard to light.

KEARNEY WAS WINNER IN PRE-VACATION TILT

Amassing a total of seventeen points, Parilek led the crushing onslaught of the Kearney Teachers in their steam roller victory over the Panthers on December 18 on the local court.

In the early moments of the game, the Panthers rang up a total of seven points before the visitors tallied. But true to the old saying, it was "seven come eleven" and that was what Kearney had before the Panthers left the seven spot.

The final gong found the home crew in arrears, 48-29. Half time score was 32-12.

Jiggers	3	2	1	.667
Fleas	4	2	2	.500

Moths	3	0	3	.000

Activity in the intra-mural league has been at a standstill since the holiday season. Conflicts with varsity practice and other dates on the calendar have not permitted the scheduling of further games thus far.

J. B. Spore, director of the tournament, has discontinued his college work in favor of a newspaper position and the Y. M. C. A. as yet has not named his successor.

The last round played, preceding the vacation, found the Ticks squeezing past the Moths, 23-22; the Bedbugs pulling one out of the fire from the Fleas in four extra periods, 13-11; and the Jiggers winning handily from the Roaches, 22-16.

VARSITY DOWNS ALUMNI, 58-28

Displaying its usual razzle-dazzle attack, despite the absence of several regulars, the varsity basketball squad tromped an the alumni by a score of 58 to 28 in a holiday practice game on the Wednesday after Christmas.

Carrol Wages led the college attack scoring eleven points. Rex Lutz was next with ten points. Everyone playing had a hand in the scoring, each making five points or more. Walt Speece with eight points was high point man for the alumni. The former Panthers who played were Ted Peterson, Marvin Hersey, Walt Speece, James Speece, Everett Green, Ray Ruppel, and Lee Knoll.

Coach Neal Gallant carried on practice during the vacation with the local members of the team.

Following is the way total individual scoring honors stood after the Concordia-York game:

NYA WORKERS REFINISH FLOORS, FURNITURE DURING HOLIDAYS

Refinished floors, furniture, and other campus improvements attracted the attention of returning students after the Christmas vacation. During the two weeks when the buildings were vacant a corps of N. Y. A. workers besides the regular janitor service was kept busy under the direction of Neal Gallant who himself stayed on the job throughout the holiday.

Most noticeable was the fact that the main floor in the administration building, which was recently built replacing the old one, was sanded and finished with three coats of a special sealing varnish. The floor of the gymnasium was varnished in the same fashion, and black and white lines were repainted. Preparations are in progress to finish painting the ceiling of the gym.

Each floor of every building on the campus was newly oiled and necessary repairs made. The tables in the library and other furniture was varnished and waxed. Office equipment was repaired and varnished.

Four League Teams Clash Tonight

Hastings and Midland took the inside track toward the N. C. A. C. basketball championship last week as they turned in wins over Wesleyan and Doane, respectively. These two schools were scheduled to meet on Tuesday of this week but the results of the game were not known at press time. Should Hastings win, they would undoubtedly have the edge on Doane in their meeting tonight. Midland will be idle.

York goes up against their first conference foe when they meet the Plainsmen on the Lincoln court this evening. The Wesleyan team has been beaten by Hastings and Peru while they have turned in victories over Hebron and Luther. They also entered the Morningside tournament and, although they did not go far in the regular tourney, they copped the consolation. Thus far, York has only two victories over Concordia to show for their efforts.

Gallant will be severely handicapped by flu and ineligibilities as he attempts to dope out a winning combination for this first league fray.

FORTY-TWO RECRUITS HEAR PRESIDENT'S TALK

President J. R. Overmiller addressed forty-two Life Work Recruit members on the thesis "Going Forward" at the January 4 meeting.

He developed his topic by the use of pertinent questions and with much Christian philosophy that has been true in his life. "We must leave the principles of salvation and press on toward perfection", he said. "We must not be afraid to let Christ have His own way in our lives. We must have a spiritually dynamic life."

The president explained that the only good reason for our being here is to be helpful to others. Then, in closing, he reminded the group that only through training could young people gain the leadership necessary to bring the kingdom to the world.
