Panthers Set Five Records; Doane Is Defeated, 74-57

MILE, TWO MILE, HIGH JUMP, BROAD JUMP, 100 YARD DASH RECORDS FALL

By Henry Hansen

In their first conference win of the season, the York track men set five new college records. Doane College was the victim of the attack in which York grabbed nine firsts in the fifteen events to win by a score of 74-57.

Speed merchants went into an early lead as Bergen, Buller, and C. Beddell finished in that order in the mile. Bergen's time of 4:48.5 was the first new college record of the day.

John Haberman's :09.9 in the 100 yard dash was the fastest any York athlete has ever covered the distance. Ekdahl of York beat Haberman in the 220 yard dash in one of the closest races of the afternoon.

Although Jarvis Cobe of York finished second in the two mile race to Garrels of Doane, Cobe's time of 10:21.3 was good for the third record.

Record breaking performances also took place in the field events.

Paul McLaughlin cleared the bar at 6 ft. 2 1/4 in. for a new high jump record. His closest competitor was Max Quick. In the broad jump Quick and McLaughlin changed places. Quick set a new college record of 22 ft. 1/4 in. while McLaughlin jumped second. Quick also won the shot with a distance of 42 ft. 5 in. Quick's total of 16

Leaming Consecrated For Work in Africa

"The credit of this service should go to you students and faculty of York College, who have not only made this possible financially, but also have prepared me spiritually, as I have realized more spiritual growth during my three years at York College than during any other period of my life," declared Vaughn Leaming, junior, of Dawson, Iowa, in his response to the address by Dr. S. G. Zeigler, Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the United Brethren Church, Dayton, Ohio, at the consecration service in the college chapel, Wednesday morning, April 27.

"Mr. Leaming has already consecrated his life before this morning; this is merely a public way of setting him apart for this great work," stated Dr. Zeigler as he spoke on the subject, "The Meaning of Consecration."

Following Mr. Leaming's response he was consecrated by Dr. Zeigler and given credentials which entitle him to all the privileges of a missionary.

Responsive scriptures were led by President J. R. Overmiller who presided over the meeting. Dean Walter E. Bachman read greetings from the colleges.

Mr. Leaming will sail for Africa June 8, to become Missionary-teacher in the Albert Academy, in Freetown, Sierra Leone.

Withdrawal Accepted By Board; No Successor Named

Issues Challenge to Youth

"Ten years of delightful service with York College notwithstanding the period of depression and drought" is the summarizing autobiography of President J. R. Overmiller as he looks forward to retirement next September from the presidency of this institution. President Overmiller came to York on September 1, 1928, and he is leaving the office a decade later by virtue of his resignation presented to the Board of Trustees at its annual meeting March 15.

Immediately prior to the arrival of Dr. Overmiller on the York College campus, he had lived in Albuquerque, New Mexico, had been head of the United Brethren schools and churches in New Mexico since 1921.

Dr. Overmiller was graduated from Kansas City University in 1917, and from Bonebrake Theological Seminary of Dayton, Ohio, in 1919. Before that time he had begun his career as a minister in northern Kansas at the age of 19. He had had only eight years of schooling and he states that after getting a fuller vision of the great task of the church, he decided that preparation was necessary. After marrying he continued the schooling that he says was of vital importance to him.

In a statement to THE SANDBURR President Overmiller said that he believes there is no field of work more fruitful or far reaching results than that which shares with youth in the years of their training and in the making of choices and decisions which determine life's habits, vocations, and companionships.

Lois Miller is Star of Play Day

Lois Miller, sophomore, garnered all the points that York College counted in the annual Play Day sponsored jointly by the college W. A. A. and the high school girls on April 23. She was the only double winner, taking firsts in the high jump and 100 yard dash. She also placed third in the 50 yard dash and the broad jump.

Seven college women were in the contests with approximately seventy girls from surrounding high schools. They played volley ball and basketball in the morning and closed the day's activities with a tea in the afternoon given by the hostesses from the high school.

Zeta Music Hall Features Amateurs

An amateur contest formed the major part of the "Zeta Music Hall" program April 26. Wayne Dahlstedt, as genial master of ceremonies, introduced the numbers, which consisted of a vocal solo, "Love Walked In," by Nadine Rinker; a novelty number on the "sweet potato", by Bruce Edmondson; a vocal solo, "Please Be Kind," by Lenora Leslie, and impromptu numbers by Dan Wright, Eileen Callahan, and Lois Cobe.

The judges, declaring themselves unable to decide which entry was most deserving of first prize, presented each contestant with a paper token in the form of the letter Z. An additional feature of the meeting was an impromptu address by Ferdinand Saindon on, "The technique of getting a date for the Y club picnic."

"Jane Eyre" Is Presented by Club

The unforgettable men and women of Charlotte Bronte's "Jane Eyre," as portrayed by the York College Historic club, walked the stage of the York high school auditorium Friday evening, April 22, and a large audience was touched by the simple, yet beautiful, love story they told. Wall Spence's dramatization of the famous novel was chosen by Director Alma Tress Lundman as the spring presentation of the club.

A love that endured a whirlpool of frustration to achieve victory through mental telepathy—a domestic scene, darkened by a cloud of impending disaster—a brave man, fighting against the blighting effect of circumstances beyond his control—were all woven into an inspiring evening's entertainment.

In the title role, Jean Mattingly, Cedar Falls, Iowa, sophomore, created a sincere and appealing heroine. Opposite her was Creston Klingman, a senior from Wichita, Kansas, who ably interpreted the reserved Edward Rochester.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Nadine Rinker, as an adorable but precocious 12-year-old Adele; by Mary Margaret du Rand, as the calm, substantial house-keeper, Mrs. Fairfax; and by Roberta Livers, whose brief appearance as the insane Bertha was a masterpiece. Others contributing to the success of the play were: Bertha Riggs, as the laughable Bessie Leaven; Dorothy Jeane Mincks, the vivacious Irish Nora; Helen Lumbus, Grace Poole; Bernice Strickler, as the amusing haughty Lady Ingram; Doris Mills, Lady Mary; Orvis McNurbin, Dr. Carter; Doris Johnson, Lady Blanche; John McLaughlin, Sir Wilfred Lynn; Anna Mae Johnson, the gypsy Zita; Carrol Thomas, Richard Mason; Russell Dunlop, the Rev. Mr. Wood; and Ralph Schmidt, the Rev. Mr. Rivers.

BEGIN SERIES ON FRIENDS

"Every student needs the friendship of his teacher and every professor needs the friendship of his students."

These were the words of Mrs. E. I. Doty as she began the series of meetings on "Friends" in Y. W. C. A. meeting April 19. Lois Stoskopf led the devotions and Doris White played a cello solo.

POLL ON LOCAL CAMPUS COINCIDES WITH THAT OF NATIONAL SURVEY

Student opinion on peace on the York College campus is almost exactly representative of the opinions held by college students all over the United States. Announcement by the Brown Daily Herald of Brown University of the results of the United Student Peace Committee survey on peace indicates that the local students who participated in the survey sponsored by The Sandburr favor the same cures for war that most of the 31,515 other students included in the nation-wide poll favored. These students were from 101 colleges in thirty states.

The largest majority given any question was for the declaration to fight only if continental United States were invaded. The two extremes of fighting in any war the government may declare, or in no war, were neglected for the middle course. In itself this may be an indication of the fairness and intelligence with which youth is considering the problem. Next in order of popularity were the statements regarding optional R. O. T. C., withdrawal of all American forces in China, unqualified neutrality, and progressive disarmament. Of interest was the large vote cast for American entrance into a revised League of Nations. This was second only to neutrality under the questions regarding policies for keeping this country at peace. Complete tabulation and comparison of the results of The Sandburr poll and the nation-wide survey has been posted on The Sandburr bulletin board in Miss Callender's room.

REGRETS AND GOOD WISHES

The Sandburr can only in a belated and somewhat incomplete fashion express the sincere regret of the student body in the resignation of President Overmiller. He has always been unusually kindly and individually helpful to every member of the college, which he has headed for ten years. The staff and student body wish for him God-speed and success as he leaves the campus.

In tribute to our President we have asked one to write a few words who has known him since he has been in York and who has had occasion to know his work and accomplishments:

"At the recent meeting of the Board of Trustees of York College, President J. R. Overmiller submitted his resignation, to take effect September 1, after ten years of service in that relation.

This ten-year period has been one of the most significant and at the same time one of the most crucial decades in the history of the College. During this period, the College territory was enlarged by the addition of that formerly served by Kansas City University. This readjustment required a great deal of time, thought, and effort on part of the president. During this time also occurred the worst depression-drought experience since the organization of the College. Naturally this brought grave financial difficulties and heavy burdens for the one in charge of the institution.

In all the difficult circumstances of these trying days, President Overmiller proved himself to be a wise, careful, and courageous leader. His example of calmness, patience, and sacrifice and his constant exercise of economy and good business judgment in the affairs of the College, have been responsible largely for the fact that it has weathered the same storms that have wrecked many similar institutions.

President Overmiller retires from the strenuous duties of his office with the universal esteem of faculty, students, and friends of York College, who all wish him Godspeed in whatever relation he may elect to serve."

 Conference Superintendent.

 AROUND YORK COLLEGE
 By Wilmer

"Did you kiss your girl?"
 Mr. Retzlaff hesitated.
 "No!"
 The delicate needle of the detector swung clear over and stuck.

Barney received unusually good results from his He detector that he has manufactured when he tried it on Mr. Retzlaff. The victim sat with the coiled wires gripped in his hands while Barney asked his simple questions as to what he had been doing the previous Sunday. Suddenly:
 The other day in advanced composition class young poets heard their poetic attempts read. One poet had written a fervent and soul inspiring ode of his love for such and such a girl. Her loveliness, according to the embryonic poet, was like the planet Mars. Sweet old Mars—none other than the god of War.

Wilmer did as we predicted when he went off the campus and even outside York for his stuff entitled Around York College. He has by this time received our letter asking him to change his name, and his subject matter, or to get off the decent page this was before he came around.

This noble rag has at last been recognized and strange to say not by its own dear friends on the campus. In picking an all state newspaper staff, the Peru Pedagogian gives special mention to the Register. Yaah, Wilmer.

Begin Intensive Campaign

Inspired by last week's lectures on the African mission situation, three public spirited citizens have organized a Get-Leaming-A-Wife Club. Wilmer is president of the newly formed society, while Leviticus and Oswald will serve as vice-presidents and contact men. A Ladies Auxiliary has been formed under the guiding hand of Mary Margaret. The only press release given out by the G. L. A. W. executive board is, "We have only four weeks left. Let's get behind this campaign."

Plot Puzzles Berry

Berry is still wondering who took his go-to-meetin' suit to the cleaners the day before Easter and left word for it not to be delivered until the middle of the next week. Everett says the only thing the plotters overlooked was payment of the bill. Berry spent Easter Sunday in bed—and he wasn't sick either.

Con inmates should learn from "Pucker" the advantages of living in a private home. Carrol informed Lucretia that girls with the latter advantage are preferable. for the late hour ruling is not so stringent. But who was the redhead seen with her at midnight last week?

Gale Moves Them

Bob Gale "moved" a big audience when the quartet sang at Utica high school last week. Wandering into the darkened auditorium a few minutes before the program was to start, Bob pushed what he thought was a light switch on the wall. Midst a din of bells and running feet, the building was quickly emptied and Bob came to the conclusion that it must have been the fire alarm instead of the light switch.

Somebody in Hutchinson, Kansas, returned a ring to Irvin Wall, a ring for which he has patiently been longing for two years. Now he is patiently waiting for somebody to take it off his hands so that he can long for it again.

The aesthetic sense of Leviticus cries out for poetry. This is the week's best clipped from the Hastings Collegian:

Ooey were a little worm
 A little worm were he;
 He crawled upon the railroad track
 The train he did not see.
 Gooey Ooey.

And the second choice from the Kearney Antelope:
 I hate he, I hate he
 I wish he were die.
 Him say he love me,
 And darn he, him lie.
 From I he has went.
 From I he did gone.
 And left I all alone.
 O cruel world, how could it was?

Wanted: An execution of people who publish columns captioned "How Much Do You Know" and then ask about some lost bone from an animal from Timbuctoo. Suggestion: Carry your tuition receipts as a reminder to keep you from skipping classes.

While idly sitting in a class the other day, intermittently absorbed with the hieroglyphics carved on the chairs and the whorls of my finger tips, I heard my neighbor whisper, "Zazo?" It set me to thinking about the difficulties that would confront a foreigner trying to decipher our slip shod slang. For instance: "Zazo?" (Late Sneezian) Means "Is that so." Usually used after a perplexing statement. "Zazo?" "Jeetyet?" (From the Jeep language) Translated "Have you eaten?"

"Tainso." (Late Collegiate) Used as a denial. Means the same as "It is not so." Used to blast the major premise of an argument.

"Hayadoin." (From the dives of Singapore) Translated "How are you doing." Can be used to mean anything if accompanied with proper eyebrow lift.

"Smatter." (Probably Pork Latin) Used as a compassionate interrogation when, for example, one is hit by a truck. "Smatter, hurt?"

"Imusof." (Derivation unknown—probably Russian) Composed of three words: "I must have." Used in many phrases like, "Imusof gone t'sleep," or "Imusof used 'up."

"Gotyur." (Language of the aborigine) Used as "Havya gotyur lessons?" or "I gotyur book."

"MMmmm." (Originated in the class room) Means most anything. Reveals intelligence if one strokes the chin while "MMmmm'ing."

I thought that we had wrangled every bit of information from Kansas last issue, but now it is alleged that Maxine, Betty, Lodema, Jim, Alden, Bob, and Glenn all ate pickled rattlesnake meat at the Hotel Carl-Leon, at Independence. Mrs. Hunter, wife of the manager and a former student of Y. C., introduced them to the dish. Lodema said it gagged her; Jim said it was delicious. I say that the whole thing doesn't taste so bad if taken with a grain of salt.

LINKS BRING OUTSTANDING TEAM; GASSMAN IS WHOLE SHOW FOR GOEHNER

FINAL SCORES:

Class A.
Lincoln 50 3-4, Grand Island 24 1-4, Kearney 23 3-4, David City 17 3-4, Nelson 13, Hastings 12, College View 7 1-2, Columbus 3, Aurora 1.

Class B.
Goehner 20, Arlington 15 8-11, Shickley 13 1-2, Dorchester 13 2-11, Ulysses 13, McCool 12 1-2, Milford 11, Henderson 10, Ohiova 10, Edgar 7, Phillips 6 2-11, Genoa 4 1-2, Ong 4, Waco 3, Utica 3, Dannebrog 2 1-4, Lushton 2, Rising City 1, Chester 1, Friend 1, Monroe 1-11, Carleton 1-11, St. Ursula (York) 1-11, Benedict 1-11.

Lincoln and Goehner had little trouble retaining their crowns in the York invitational track and field meet on the York College oval Saturday, April 23. Four meet records were broken and others threatened as athletes from approximately 45 schools competed.

Grand Island and Kearney waged a stiff battle for the runner-up position in the class A division. Grand Island finally emerging 1-2 point ahead of Kearney, while David City was fourth in the division. Arlington and Shickley finished second and third respectively in class B. Dorchester was fourth.

Lincoln had the outstanding team of the meet winning six undisputed firsts, one tie for first, one second, and one tie for second. Lawrence Gassman of Goehner was the outstanding individual athlete of the meet although he did not make any record breaking performances. He did, however, make all twenty points that won the class B title for Goehner. Gassman won both the high and low hurdles, the 220 yard dash, and the broad jump in his division.

The first record to fall was in the high jump. Dale Nannen, College View's only entrant, jumped 5 ft. 10 3-4 in., 1-4 in. higher than the old record made by Gerry Greene of Fullerton in 1936.

Dennis, Grand Island miler, made the next record breaking performance when he nosed out Nanne, Hastings Negro, by a few inches. The time was 4:46.7.

The 440 yard dash was the next event to have its time clipped. Roy Stuhr of McCool, a class B school ran a beautiful quarter to shave the old mark of 53.7 down to 53.4. Stuhr showed a brilliant burst of speed in the finish to beat Coffey of Phillips by four yards.

The record for the 880 yard run was broken twice. Gordon Olson of Lincoln, finished the two laps in 2:08.9, four-tenths of a second better than the old record Mattley of Creston made in 1936. In the next heat of the 880, run by class B schools, Don Gunn of Edgar finished strong to bring his time two-tenths of a second lower than Olson's for a standing record of 2:08.7.

Schleich of Lincoln and Howard of Nelson finished first and second, respectively, in both the shot put and the discus, Schleich's best toss of the discus was far be-

Curnutt Wins At Hastings; Golfers Are Defeated

Bill Curnutt was the only Panther tennis man to win at Hastings Friday, April 22, as the Broncos trounced the York team, five matches to one. Marvel, Dierdorff, and Branson were the other Panthers making the trip. The York golfers, Peterson and Gale, lost both of their 18-hole matches.

below the existing record of 150 ft. 2 in. made by Wibbles of Wolfbach in 1937. The shot record seemed to be at stake, however, when the husky Lincoln athlete was warming up for preliminaries, he put the shot nearly 51 ft., but he couldn't come through in the afternoon with a heave of more than 48 ft. 9 1-2 in.

Walter Ekdahl of York College was the official starter for the meet. Other students and teachers of the college comprised the list of scorekeepers, timekeepers, and the announcer.

Give Program for County Peace Group

"Youth's part in world peace," was the theme of the program presented by members of the Life Work Recruit group April 26, as guests at the regular quarterly meeting of the York county peace association.

The program began with a short worship service, including a Scripture reading by Daisy Millon; prayer, by Ocie Moran; duet, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," by Bertha Riggs and Gerald Dierdorff, and a reading, "To an Unknown Soldier," by Doris Johnson, followed by a round table discussion of the challenge that the problem of keeping peace brings to young people.

Dorothy Riggs opened the discussion by presenting some of the problems that confront young people today. Avalo Caldwell continued with a consideration of peace promoting activities in Congress at the present time, chiefly the Ludlow amendment. Lawrence Deever discussed the views held by young people of America concerning current peace problems. Vaughn Leaming concluded by pointing out that in spite of all the turmoil in the world today, civilization has made a great deal of progress since the time of Christ, and will continue to do so in the future.

CHAPEL HIGH LIGHTS

The country in which Vaughn Leaming, representative to Africa, will labor was shown in three reels entitled "The New Africa," last Thursday. The film showed that part of Africa which has been affected by the missionaries and included the schools, the people and their life.

"Nevertheless," a comedy, was presented by members of Historic club in the chapel services, Friday, April 29. "Little Marcus" was read by Carl Bedient.

The last days of Christ on the earth was shown in the sound picture, "Golgotha," recently in the chapel service. The events and scenes included in the picture were; the triumphant entry into Jerusalem, the last supper, the betrayal, the arrest and trial, the crucifixion, and the resurrection. "Golgotha" is said to be one of best religious pictures ever produced.

PRESIDENT OVERMILLER PRESENTS RESIGNATION

"Youth should be challenged to think and plan more largely," he said, "than to train themselves for some vocation which means a single track life. The outlook should be such as to cause a person to seek development in every phase of his personality. What is known as our extra curricular program in college presents the opportunity for expressional development. The student who does not share well in this work will be at great disadvantage in tackling life's tasks when he is through college.

"The world went through a long period when it was believed that goodness was attained through hard and harsh discipline. Education was through the same avenues. Life was measured by its miles of heavy trudging and weary worn feet. We may well open our eyes for a new philosophy of life is upon us. The church and the church school are adapting their courses of procedure to this philosophy.

"Life is something much better than a period of severe discipline of the soul in preparation for a long eternity. It can well be a period of glorious development of the whole man through a natural process of associations, of experiences, largely pleasant, intensely profitable, and constantly in keeping with the divine will. We need not fill our program with unpleasantness when agreeable experiences will bring results as good.

"There is not a place on earth presenting a better opportunity for the creation of proper life philosophies than in York College." President Overmiller believes that young people can secure a college education if they want it badly enough. However, he suggests:

"The present procedures of N. Y. A. and so forth are apt to leave the student so dependent upon someone else to find opportunity that he will be quite helpless to plan for himself."

The college executive board is considering the qualifications of possible successors to Overmiller and will meet on June 1 to decide who will be the new president.
