Thrill Grads And Parents

In their initial win of the season, the York College Panthers chalked up a 48-7 count over the Dana College Vikings on the local field last Friday night before over 500 spectators, many of them Homecoming alumni and parents. The visitors saw one-fourth of the

Visitors Overflow College Chapel At Convocation

Telling of the beginnings of the college in York, Mr. J. G. Alden, local publisher, addressed the former students, parents, and students following the coronation of the Homecoming queen last Friday. Rev. G. E. McCanon, superintendent of the Iowa Conference, responded to the address of welcome by President D. E. Weidler. Members of the music department furnished the special music. Billy Dean was the chairman.

York made several attempts to establish a permanent college, Mr. J. G. Alden stated, and reviewed these early institutions. Mr. Alden told of his observations of York College during his twenty years as a resident of York. "We have the alternatives of starving, just existing, or living a full life and coming out with rich experiences in a Christian college such as York," he said.

The College Glee Club sang "Procession of the Sardar," by Treharne, and "Didn't My Lord Deliver Daniel," by Burleigh, Esther Thornton played "Etude Fantastic" by J. F. Carre as a piano solo, and Bertha Riggs sang "The Gypsy and the Bird" by Julius Benedict to which Wayne Dahlstedt played the flute obligato.

Mary Jean Buttermore Crowned Queen Of Homecoming Day Festivities

Chosen By Student Body

For the fourth time came annual Homecoming and Parents' Day festivities, and with them, a beautiful queen in the person of Miss Jean Buttermore. Miss Buttermore, a junior, from Woodston, Kansas, was chosen to reign by a vote of the student body. Not entirely unaccustomed to royal company, she was last year an attendant to the May Queen.

Miss Buttermore, has been, and is, active in a number of organizations on the campus. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A., Zeta Literary Society, W. A. A., and Life Work Recruits. She has served as class president and is now the secretary of the junior class. Besides being a member of both Panther and Histrionic clubs, she is now serving as secretary of the latter organization.

For her coronation, the queen wore a gown of white net. From her shoulders fell a blue velvet train, trimmed with gold sequins. The train was borne by Janie McCormick and Richard Blanc.

Attendants at the ceremony were Lois Miller, Jarvis Cobe, Bette Crum, Ralph Schmidt, Eileen Callahan, and Charles Peterson, all wearing "Y" sweaters. In the processional, played by Hazel Emma Morgan, the crown was borne by Charlene Hurley. To Bob Gale was accorded the honor of performing the coronation.

At the close of the chapel services, the newly-crowned queen was presented with a gold locket by the president of the Panther club, Billy Dean, who was chairman of the chapel program. A token of honor and appreciation, the locket was engraved with the words, "Mary Jean, '38, Homecoming Queen".

Gala Affair Draws Many Visitors To Campus Friday

Over 175 People From Five States Here
For Annual Occasion

One of the largest crowds ever to attend a Homecoming and Parents' Day festival at York was on the campus last Friday to participate in all the activities from the opening convocation to the final stunt night in the gymnasium. In all, 175 people from five states were registered.

One hundred thirty parents and alumni were registered at the church for the noon luncheon which followed the crowning of Miss Mary Jean Buttermore as Homecoming Queen. Prof. W. J. Karraker served capably as Master of Ceremonies, in the absence of Dr. W. W. Graham, '16 of Elgin. Waldo Dahlstedt played "The Palms", a trombone solo. Encored, he played Schubert's Serenade. He was accompanied by Alden Marvel, at the piano.

Mrs. R. B. McCandless spoke on "York and York College". She said, in part, "York College is an alma mater not only to the students but to the city as well." "Parents and York College", was discussed by Mrs. R. G. Gage, of York. The keynote of her talk was "cooperation, especially between parents and the faculty". Bob Gale, senior, baritone, sang "A Chip off the Old Block". As an encore, he sang, "Captain

MRS. PAULINE GLOCK SPEAKS TO Y. W. ON BOOKS

Mrs. Pauline Bradwell Glock, of York, a York College graduate, spoke at the Y. W. C. A. meeting October 25th. Her subject was "Book Friends." She mentioned the importance of reading good books and making friends with them. Edith Raebuck was in charge of the devotional period. She stated in her talk that the Bible is our greatest Book Friend. Bertha Riggs led the assembly in singing "Master, Let Me Walk With Thee."

Mrs. A. L. Deever spoke on "Making Friends With Older People" at the October 18th meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Bertha Riggs was in charge of the devotionals program. Carolee Fogo sang, "I Would Be True." She was accompanied at the piano by Catherine Woolever.

STAFF MEMBERS ARE AT CINCINNATI CONVENTION

Wayne Dahlstedt and Lawrence Deever, business manager and editor of the Sandburr respectfully, plan to return to York next Monday after attending the National Intercollegiate Press Association Convention in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The convention is being held at the Hotel Gibson today and tomorrow, and will close Saturday following the University of Cincinnati-Ohio Wesleyan football game. The 1937 convention at the Medinah club in Chicago drew 500 delegates from over 200 publications from 150 colleges in 38 states.

Histrionic Club Begins Work On Two Major Plays

Temporary casts, chosen last week through tryouts, are beginning work on the first two plays to be given by the Histrionic club this season. "Carnegie Quarantine", a three act comedy, by Robert Ray, finds its setting in the dining room of the Kanna Jamma House, just off the campus of a co-ed college in Beverly, California.

The cast includes Mary Jean Buttermore as Gloria Smith, Junior Heatherington as Gordun Dunn, Emmy Lou Rothman as Beryl Sheppard, Bill White as Ronald Steele, Roberta Estey as Edythe Rhodes, Harold Miller as Finlay Carruthers, Catherine Woolever as Mrs. Gloria Smith, Orvis McNurlin as Dr. Leon Atwell, Mary Margaret du Rand as Deborah Mercer, Russell Dunlop as Howard Ross, Doris Mills as Lela Dunn, and Dan Wright as Elliot Maxim.

"Campus Quarantine" will be given in the York High School auditorium on December 9.

"The Cricket on the Hearth", dramatized by Albert Smith from one of Dickens's well known novels, is the second three-act play to be presented by the Histrionic club. "The Cricket on the Hearth" is a drama in three acts, the first and third acts taking place in the home of John Perrybingle, the second in the abode of Caleb Plummer. It is to be presented early in January in the York College auditorium.

In the cast are: Lois Cobe as Dot Perrybingle, Nelson Ronne as John Perrybingle, Max Oswald as

Frosh Court Closes Records After Hearing 562 Cases

The justices of the Supreme Freshman Court have conferred for the last time. They have pronounced their last sentence. They have inflicted their last punishment. No longer will a summons be posted on the main hall bulletin board. No longer will the chapel be filled with eager spectators. No longer will the spat of the paddle resound through the halls. No longer will upperclass men be waited on by coy little freshman girls. No longer will upperclass women be thrilled by "Tu Quiero". No longer will upperclassmen have the exclusive rights to the library ledges and steps. At last the freshmen will be able to go bare headed. At last they'll be able to tell the upperclassmen what's—a la class of '42.

Just before the court records were permanently filed in the new "boy's dormitory" certain statistics of interest were computed. Ninety-six per cent of the freshmen class appeared in court at one time or another. In all, 562 cases were tried. Sixteen were pronounced, "Not guilty", while 546 were, "Guilty". The most common sentence was "spats". Each judge gave 301 spats, making a grand total of 2,107. Eleven paddles were broken and five were

AMADON ANNOUNCES QUARTET, TWENTY TRY OUT

The York College male quartet is made up of Gerald Dierdorff, sophomore from Geneva, first tenor; Wayne Dahlstedt, junior from York, second tenor; Dave Houston, a member of the music department from York, baritone; and Bob Gale, senior from York, bass. Alden Marvel, senior from Giltner, is the accompanist and coach for the young men.

"The Dukes of York," as they are called, were chosen out of twenty aspirants in tryouts held by Dean Amadon on Monday, October 17.

enrollment of York College play football as Coach Gallant allowed his first stringers to shiver on the bench for most of the game while he left most of it up to Bob Spore's B squad. Every man out for football who was suited up last Friday got into the game.

DANA GETS SATISFACTION
The Vikings may claim one distinction in their gaining three first downs to the Panthers' two. The explanation is that on every single one of the six occasions the Panther varsity squad had the ball, it reached pay dirt through the Dana line in less than four plays. Roy Stuhr playing with the scrubs, single-handedly collected York's two first downs. In total yards gained from rushing, York had 197 to Dana's 44.

STUHR IN HERO ROLE
Stuhr furnished the thrill of the game when, with the aid of good blocking he pulled down the one touchdown that the B squad contributed to the evening's entertainment. Receiving a Dana kick

YOUNG REPUBLICANS ELECT CHAMBERS PRESIDENT

George Chambers, junior of Belle Plain, Iowa, was elected president of the York College branch of Young Republicans as it met last Thursday. Marlin Bedit, junior of Polk, was chosen first vice-president, and Rosemary McCormick, freshman of Berthoud, Colorado, secretary - treasurer. Prof. Bisset was selected by the group to act as faculty sponsor.

John Riddell, local attorney and chairman of the Republican Committee of York County addressed the group as it met for the first time on October 20. At that time he outlined the purpose and the fields of action of such an organization.

The three elected officers will choose a supporting cabinet consisting of a vice-president for each state represented by students on the campus. According to a recent statement from Chambers the group plans to hold regular meetings and invite outstanding Republicans as speakers. Immediate plans call for arousing interest in the coming local elections so that every student voter will exercise his privilege.

A PLATEAU HE CALLED IT AND A PLATEAU IT WAS

Alpine climbers join themselves together by a heavy rope while ascending precipitous slopes so that if one member of the party should slip he will not plunge to his destruction by himself. Often as they go higher they find it necessary to rest on some level spot and before leaving such a plateau they pause to tighten the rope between them and test its safety.

Dean Bachman in his remarks at the luncheon for all Homecoming and Parents' Day guests last Friday sounded the keynote of the day in that manner. In any activity that requires cooperation and particularly in the relations between parents and students, and alumni and the college, he said, it becomes profitable to pause for the renewal of the ties of friendship that render progress and advancement an easier and even more exhilarating experience.

For three years York College has observed Parents' Day and for two years it has been held in conjunction with Homecoming Day. No comparison can be drawn between the Homecoming Days of former years and the present observance with the added stimulation of the presence of the parents. Once again it may be timely to suggest that the invitation include not only alumni and parents, but former students, prospective students, friends of students, ministers, church members, and all those in the constituent area who are in any way interested in York College.

The opening thrill of the day was to see the college auditorium crowded beyond capacity. Then followed many thrills packed into an interesting day that ended all too soon; her reigning majesty, Queen Mary Jean Buttermore; the enthusiastic note of the convocation speakers; Pres. Weidler's anticipation of perhaps twice as many students in 1939; the pep rally; the optimistic attitude of the luncheon speakers; the upperclass victory in the "Olympics"; the Panthers' first victory of the season and that by a surprising score; and the final frolic in the gymnasium. All the other highlights of the day, besides these were too numerous even to appear on the printed programs.

And so we climb, refreshed, invigorated, and determined to be a sustaining link in the onward movement of Christian education.

on his own one yard line he stepped back to his own goal line and then set sail, dropping anchor 100 yards later, having passed twenty-one men on the field. Bedient plunged for the extra point.

Any one of the other six touchdowns would have been spectacular in any other game but long runs were common last Friday. Thompson, York, returned the opening kickoff 45 yards to the Dana 25, and two plays later Saindon went off-tackle for 19 yards and a touchdown. Thompson kicked the extra point. A few seconds after the succeeding kickoff, York recovered a Dana fumble and on the next play John Haberman ran around left end and stopped after 36 yards, only because he had crossed the double stripe. Again Thompson's kick was good. Two plays later Wright intercepted a Dana pass and after the huddle Hohnbaum ran 28 yards for the third touchdown. The kick was wide. Only half of the first quarter was up but the boys in the cast-off equipment went in to more than hold their own until the half.

FEASTER SCORES TWICE

Early in the third quarter, Feaster ran forty-four yards and sixty yards respectively for touchdowns No. 5 and 6. Feaster and J. Haberman kicked the points. The final one came in the last quarter when Gifford ran fifty yards around right end. Eberhart converted for the extra point and the score was 48 to 7. Nine Panthers had a hand in the scoring.

Charles Bissell, 119 pound quarterback for Dana, played a plucky game despite his weight. He kicked, passed, and sparked the Viking's running attack. After Dana had recovered a blocked York kick in the second quarter on the one foot line, he plunged for Dana's touchdown and went around end for the extra point.

stolen. Court convened 31 times. Vernon Heiner was condemned 17 times and received about 75 spats. "Pinky" Sampson was condemned 12 times and acquitted twice. The most popular sentence was Octavio Colon's singing. Jack Miller's shoe-shining ran a close second. The most dreaded sentence was a three-minute talk in chapel.

The judges as a whole are to be commended for their extremely fair attitudes. Each one came to be especially characterized in some way: Chief Justice Orvis McNurlin by his dignity; Clerk of the Court Norma Harris by her sympathetic spats; Justice Bob Spore by his original sentences; Justice Ferdinand Saindon by his stinging spats; Justice Floyd Chenoweth by his gusto; Justice Elmond Holbrook by his taciturnity (Webster's dictionaries are being sold in the library for two dollars); Justice Al Zerwehk by his enjoyment of every session.

Western Union Is Victor, Six Points

Eagles Score Twice To Whip Panthers 13-7

By Staff Member
Two fumbles, one each on the part of the York College Panthers and the Golden Eagles of Western Union College, rounded out a "bad-break" score of 13 to 7 at Le Mars, Iowa, October 22, with York on the short end of the count.

W. U. SCORES QUICK

Disaster in the form of a fumble struck York in the first two minutes of the game. The opening kickoff was taken by Feaster. A fake to Thompson failed and the resulting fumble was recovered by Western Union on York's 8 1/2 yard line. A lateral by the Golden Eagles several downs later brought the ball to York's three yard line, from where Null, W. U. fullback, plunged off tackle for the goal. The attempt to convert failed.

Western Union's last touchdown came in the third quarter after Wolters, right half, slipped away for 48 yards, bringing the ball to York's 26 yard line. A steady march from there climaxed by a pass, Speece, W. U. quarterback, to Wolters, brought the Eagles to the two foot line, where Ekdahl knocked Wolters out of bounds. On the next play Wolters went off tackle for the touchdown, later plunging for the extra point.

SCORES FOR PANTHERS

York's only touchdown was like a mad scramble for tossed pennies. Roy Speece, W. U., lateraled to Null, who fumbled on his own 18 yard line. The ball was pushed by both Western Union and York men, in an endeavor to recover, back over York's goal line where Don Eberhart, left guard of York, finally fell on it for six points. Feaster place-kicked the extra point.

York showed fire in the first quarter, outyarding Western Union 44 to 14. Most of the yards were picked up by "Tommy" Thompson, Panther right half, when he eluded would-be tacklers for 24 yards on a fake kick play.

Throughout the game fumbles were frequent and passing difficult because of the biting cold which numbed fingers.

Game captain, "Tommy" Thompson, York back, punted consistently, and Floyd Gifford, Panther fullback, exhibited a rugged endurance in his ability to carry three or four Eagles on his back and still gain ground. "Pete" Peterson, center, was rugged in the line, knocking off ball carriers on the line of scrimmage. Null, Wolters, Speece, and Lantoff were outstanding for Western Union.

PANTHERS ON PARADE

Note: This isn't intended to be a gossip column, but there are a few incidents which "just happen" on the football trips that the home folks should be in on. Now, "Ekie", old bean, we saw you skip around that corner in Sioux City with two blonds on your arms and Gifford on your back. For shame, Ekdahl, and you with a queen back here.

A case of mixed emotions: Ross Speece at the York-Western Union game. You were a good example of double loyalty, Ross.

We pause to thank the Lyons school board for its hospitality on October 21.

Hats off to a plucky Dana crew who fought as hard on the last play as it did on the first. Nice game, fellows.

"Who is this Stuhr that runs 99 yards for a touchdown?" Feaster asks.

Wanted: Five "Panther" quartersleeves.

Stand by for the Midland game. That is all.

Recruits Are Guests At Musical Church

A Miniature Musical church was presented by the Life Work Recruits' quartette, composed of Marjorie Cook, Lois Miller, Gerald Dierdorff, and Junior Heatherington, at the meeting on Oct. 24.

Doris Goodrich's gospel team had charge of the services Oct. 17. The evidence and revelation of God was brought out in music and talks by members of the team, including Olive King, Helen Burkman, Ocie Moran, Frank Bartleson, Shirley Talbot, and Robert McCannon.

They Tramped These Halls

By Prof. J. C. Morgan

A wedding of interest to college students and alumni is that of Nelson Shappell, brother of James Shappell, ex-'40, to Miss Helen Marshal of Los Angeles, California. Jean and Janice Brown, ex-'36 and ex-'38, sang for this occasion.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gutschow, '33 and '34, is to the effect that they are now living at Torrance, California, where Mr. Gutschow is working for the Socony-Vacuum Oil company. He is spending a year in the Torrance laboratory as a preparation for research work for the company. The refinery and tank farm occupy an area of about eight hundred acres. The band of gasoline of this company is Mobilgas.

Another wedding of the summer not yet included in this column is that of Thornton Miller, '29, to Miss Magdalene Miller of DeWitt. The ceremony took place June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are living in Lincoln.

Mac".

Barney Rees, senior, and student council president, spoke on "Students and York College". Speaking in behalf of the students, he expressed appreciation and gratitude for the loyalty and support coming from the parents and the city of York. Representing the faculty, Dean W. E. Bachman addressed the group on "The Faculty and York College". He, too, stressed the group for co-operation, as he warned also against discouragement. The coeds' Trio, composed of Lodema Frieden, Marjorie Cook, and Lois Miller, sang "Tally Ho" and "Come to the Fair". The trio was accompanied by Hazel Emma Morgan, at the piano.

At the conclusion of the program, the entire group retired to the college chapel where the freshmen court was in session. A large number of freshmen offenders were tried and convicted. In the upperclass-freshmen Olympics, the upperclassmen romped over the hapless freshmen.

The queen, Miss Buttermore, was also in attendance at the York-Dana football game which climaxed the day's activities. She was escorted from the car by Sorensen and Thompson, captains of their respective teams, Dana and York. Attendants were Lois Miller and Eileen Callahan. Richard Blanc and Jane McCormick were train-bearers.

A short program opened the frolic held in the gym. The band, clad in resplendent new uniforms, played several numbers. Following a Bergen-McCarthy act by Bill White and Junior Heatherington, short skits were presented by Ruth Brandstetter, Al Zerwekh, and Max Oswald. Refreshment stands, fortune telling booths, and other concessions were sponsored by the various classes and organizations.

MIDDLEBROOK'S

CHAPEL

The American dollar was the subject of the discourse of Prof. Charles Bisset in a recent chapel service. The impression upon the face of the dollar and the monetary value of the dollar were discussed. "It is good to have money and what it will buy, it is also good to check up once in a while to see if we have lost what money can not buy," he observed.

A few of the mysteries of science were presented by Prof. H. H. Haugan last Thursday to the student body. Turning water into wine and paint, causing a liquid to disappear, and the new remote wireless control of the new Philco radio were demonstrated.

A varied program of readings was recently presented by the dramatic and literary interpretation class. Included were two choral readings by the class, three autumn readings by Anna Mae Johnson, three humorous readings representing the viewpoint of an eight year old boy by Bill White, and two serious readings by Mary Lou Warner.

"Navaho Indians" and "Squirrels and Nature," sound pictures, were presented by the Kretschner Camera Co. of Omaha in demonstration of their machine in a recent chapel service.
