New Pastor Comes To College Church

Rev. Gilbert T. Savery, minister of the Lincoln United Brethren church for the past 11 years, has been appointed as pastor of the York First United Brethren Church, succeeding Rev. A. L. Deever.

REV. GILBERT T. SAVERY

The Rev. Mr. Savery held pastorates in Saskatchewan, Canada, before coming to Nebraska Conference in 1912, where he has served the pastorates at Beatrice, McCool, Shelby, and Lincoln. Mr. Savery has been in the conference every year but one, when he and Mrs. Savery were traveling in England.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Savery are natives of England. Mr. Savery received his education in that country. York College conferred an honorary degree of doctor of divinity on him in 1937.

Mr. Savery served as young people's director of the conference for several years. He has completed 18 years as registrar, and is secretary of the conference board of trustees.

PRES. TO CONFERENCE

President D. E. Weidler and the field secretary, the Rev. Harry Cook, accompanied by Fred Carlson, senior of Muscatine, Iowa, went to the Iowa conference last week at Vinton, Iowa.

It was the fifth conference for President Weidler this year. He reports growing interest in Y. C. throughout the territory. He cited the fact the Women's Auxiliaries of the conferences have made liberal donations to furnish Hulitt Hall's reception room.

While returning from Iowa, they were involved in an automobile collision near Seward. Both Pres. Weidler and the Rev. Mr. Cook were shaken up, though not seriously.

Celebrates Fifty Years Service Oct. 11-12

Fifty years of service to the York community and the United Brethren Church will be emphasized in the York College Homecoming and Parents' Day this year on October 11 and 12. The Homecoming period will be preceded by the annual Educational Conference of the Southwest Area and followed by a Thanksgiving service in the York U. B. church October 13.

Friday morning an anniversary program, including the crowning of the Homecoming queen, will be presented in the college gymnasium. Luncheon, followed by a program, will be served at the college church.

In the afternoon the annual freshman-upper-class contests will be staged. A supper-luncheon will be served at Hulitt Hall.

The Homecoming football game at eight o'clock Friday evening matches the York College Panthers against the Hastings Bronchos, conference champions last year, and always one of York's bitterest rivals.

Saturday's program includes the presentation of the comedy "Second Childhood" by Covington and Simonson under the direction of Miss Alma Tress Lundman both afternoon and evening.

Sunday morning, H. H. Fout, senior bishop of the United Brethren church, will preach a thanksgiving sermon in the college church.

CAMPUS IMPROVED BY NEW EQUIPMENT; REDECORATING WORK

During the past summer, especially since the close of the summer session of college, much redecorating has been completed in the buildings on the campus, and new equipment has been put into use.

In the dormitory, seven rooms were redecorated and new double-decker beds were purchased for two rooms. A matched davenport and chair were bought for the reception room. Also, the entire dormitory was insulated.

In the administration building, all of the woodwork around the windows was painted. The chapel was improved by the addition of a new metal ceiling and buff and brown tinted walls. The senior class of 1940 provided the new doors at the west entrance of the administration building.

Summer Provides Ideal Hunting For Cupid,—As Weddings Show

Cherub Captures Thirty Former Students

Weddings of at least thirty young people who have attended York College took place last summer. Besides these, President and Mrs. D. E. Weidler celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on July 6, when a reception was given in their honor by the United Brethren Church.

Marjorie Cook, '40, was married to Lawrence Deever, '39, at 8 a. m. on June 2, at the York United Brethren Church with the Rev. Harry Cook and the Rev. A. L. Deever officiating. They are living at Bonebrake Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, where Mr. Deever is attending seminary and preaching.

New Coach Moves Up From Milford High

Filling vacancies left by resignations last year, Rolland Tonkin as coach, and Loyd C. Oleson as mathematics instructor have joined the faculty of York College.

Coach Tonkin graduated from

York College in 1938. While an undergraduate he starred in all sports, and was an honor student. He was selected representative football man his senior year.

Since graduation from York, Coach Tonkin has had charge of all athletics at Milford High School, leaving that position to come to York. He replaces Neal Gallant, '32, who is teaching at Ravenna.

Besides acting as head of the athletics department, Coach Tonkin is teaching mathematics.

Mr. Oleson is a Doane College graduate, and attended Yale University where he received his master of arts degree. For the last three and one-half years he has been teaching mathematics in two Nebraska high schools and also in a private school in New Haven, Connecticut.

Mr. Oleson replaces Prof. Bell in the mathematics department.

PALS Turn Indians For Reception

In the midst of an Indian setting the PALS held their annual formal reception Tuesday, September 24, at 8:00 p. m.

The PALS' hall was turned into an Indian village situated in a forest. Wigwams, baskets, skins, totem poles, bows and arrows, and rustic costumes added to the general atmosphere.

The program began in Indian fashion with the beating of tom-toms. Chief Oomph, Bill White, welcomed the white man to the village of the Pukwudjinnes. Princess Ta-o, Bertha Riggs, who was then introduced, sang "The Bell Song" and "By the Waters of Minnetonka." Then little Plink-on-the-Strings, Marguerite Anderson, played a cello solo. The tribal story teller, Wayeka, Helen Lumbus, told a legend of the tribe, "The Little Indian Girl who turned into a Willow," which was pantomimed by the maidens and braves of the village, Vera Blinn, Doris Holloway, Lenora Stevenson, Shirley Anderson, Ruth Brandstetter, Bob Hunt, Russel Dunlop, and Warren Neal. Brave To-he-ha Alfred Kamm, sang "Indian Summer." The Many Ha Ha sisters, Mary Lue Warner, Jean Mattingly, Bertha Riggs, Elaine West, Arline Beason, Helen Lumbus, Verlene Witham, and Lodema Frieden sang, "The Indian Love Call" in true Indian style.

Mary Lue Warner, president of PALS, gave a word of greeting and then the Indians of the Pukwudjinnie tribe served their guests pumpkin pie and punch.

They Tramped These Halls

By PROF. J. C. MORGAN

An occasion of unusual interest was the Sunday morning service of August 18 at the United Brethren church. The speaker for the service was Mr. Delbert Sterrett, husband of Mrs. Ruth Spore Sterrett, '36. The following alumni were present at this service: Misses Clara and Grace King, '18 and '22, Mr. and Mrs. James Speece, '35, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Thompson, '28, Mrs. Mabel Meeker Kirkpatrick, '24, Miss Mildred Thompson, '34, Misses Edith and Ruth Callender, '15, Miss Irene Thompson, '36, and Mr. Maurice Thompson, '39, Miss Gladys Deever, '36, and Professor and Mrs. Chris Keim.

Savery Speaks At First Joint Y.M.-Y.W. Meeting

Combining forces, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. presented "The Cathedral Hour" in their first joint meeting of the year, Sept. 24, in the college chapel. The Rev. G. T. Savery, new pastor of the United Brethren church was the speaker.

To open the service, a choir of sixteen voices under the direction of Bertha Riggs, senior from Merville, Iowa, sang "Fairest Lord Jesus. They also sang two other hymns during the program.

In his talk Rev. Mr. Savery discussed qualities of character which are "tiny but magnificent." Y. M. C. A. president, Al Zerwekh, read the scripture, and the Y. W. C. A. president, Helen Lumbus, made announcements.

It was recently decided that the last Tuesday of every month be reserved for a joint meeting of the Christian associations, the programs to be arranged with the help of the chapel committee. Heretofore, every Tuesday was association day, and joint meetings were held only occasionally.

The historian wishes to correct an error in the preceding issue. Miss Edna Nichols is the sister, not the daughter of Mr. Charles Nichols, and his daughter visited with them in York this summer.

Mr. Harlan Muth, ex '35, was among the upper ten per cent of the senior class in the College of Dentistry, University of Nebraska, and received special recognition at a program sponsored by the national honorary dental fraternity held this summer.

Student Council Organizes; Will Enforce Point System

Officers were elected at the first meeting of the Student Council, Sept. 18, with Ralph Schmidt, senior from Bradshaw, Neb., who was elected president at the close of last year, presiding. Those elected were Arline Beason, junior from Circle, Montana, vice president; Bertha Riggs, senior from Merville, Iowa, secretary; and Edwina Bomhoff, sophomore from Wichita, treasurer.

A committee headed by Bertha Riggs was appointed to investigate the activity points of students. According to rules devised by the Student Council of several years ago, the number of extra curricular offices a student may hold is subject to limitation. The enforcement of this rule will be the duty of this committee.

At the second meeting, held October 2, Homecoming committees were appointed. Heading the registration committees are Arline Beason, and Everett Thornton, freshmen from Billings, Montana. Florence Deever, senior from Lincoln, and Charles Scott, sophomore from LeCompton, Kansas, are in charge of the sale of Homecoming buttons. The inter-class athletics and games will be under the direction of Kenneth Willets, junior from Clarks, and Arline Beason.

Students, Homecomers, . . . It's Your York of the Future

Today, hundreds of people will traverse the paths of the campus here at York College. Perhaps it has been many years since some of them have walked those paths. For others, it is an annual event. Still others may be in contact with York for the first time. But this year all are welded together by a homecoming spirit fifty years in the making. Today York College celebrates fifty years of service.

From the greenest freshman experiencing his first Homecoming, to the most detached visitor, that feeling has made itself known. The students, as they followed tradition with the program,—the crowning of the queen, and contests, caught a glimpse of all that York College has been; and the homecomers, alumni and parents, looked on, and saw the future of York College, and the kind of America such schools would build. For there is something grand and noble about an institution that has struggled against many odds to grow and expand,—to become established and recognized as a distinctive church college. One feels the same awe that comes from viewing some monarch of the forest still alive and vital after years of rigorous conflict with the elements,—even stronger because of that conflict. That is the heritage of York.

So the people pass about the campus, and as they move, they drift into the past . . . They see again their classmates, their teachers, their queen, their teams; they feel again that surge of pride as a white Y on a blue sweater goes by them. Recaptured for a fleeting moment are days gone-by.

But,—the dream fades,—fades as the people gaze toward the rugged old administration building. They see in the new doors mounted in their time-tried facade the real York College. They see York College incorporating all its good things from the past, building in the present, and looking toward the future. And as they see it, there comes a new conception of college spirit, not that based upon the class of '30, the class of '25, or the class of '40; but a unifying singleness of purpose associated with the York College that is to be.

Thirty students have joined the college band which is being re-organized this semester under the direction of James Koontz, junior, of Des Moines.

The organization has begun as a pep band to be used for football games and pep rallies, but, according to the director, if it develops as is expected, it will be used in some concert work. New music, a bass drum, and a bass horn have been furnished by the college. "From all indications," Koontz stated, "we shall have a splendid organization and we hope to have a marching band on the field by homecoming."

Panthers Face Season With Five Lettermen

Old man graduation turned a stern eye on the well-filled ranks of York College football lettermen last June; consequently the victory outlook is anything but rosy this year with only five back in the football harness.

The returning lettermen from last year are Henry Hansen, senior, Des Moines; Floyd Gifford, junior, Longmont, Colo.; Capt. H. Haberman, senior, York; and Kenneth Willits, junior, Polk. Vaughn Leaming, senior, who lettered two years ago is also reporting.

Lack of experienced players shows up especially in the backfield where only Gifford adds seasoning. Haberman at end, Willits at tackle, and Hansen at guard lend a better outlook for the line.

Light weight is another handicap to the Panthers. The line will average about 163 pounds; the backfield only 155.

Thirty to forty candidates are reporting. The B team is working under Assistant Coach Warren Neal, junior of Brookfield, Mo.

Bobcats Use Three Teams
In 50-0 Victory

Overwhelmed by a bigger, more experienced Peru team in the first game of the season, the York college Panthers ended on the short count of a 50-0 score last Friday night.

The smooth working Peru backfield functioning behind a hard hitting line kept the less experienced Tonkin boys on the defense most of the time. The Bobcats had nearly three different teams in action during the game.

During the first quarter Peru showed their power by putting three touchdowns across the Panther goal line.

Again in the second quarter the Peruvians crossed the Panther goal line by completing a forward pass and carrying it over. The try for extra point was no good, leaving the score at the end of the first half 25-0.

In the third period the Peru team began concentrating their power on the line and in the early moments of the period scored again. The try for point was off. Peru threatened to score again this period when they recovered a Panther fumble close to the goal line but the Panther line held and the quarter ended 31-0.

The Bobcats added seven more points in the early minutes of the fourth period by going through the line. The try for point was good. On a kick, fumbled by York, Peru recovered behind the lines for the goal but failed to convert. Then through a series of running plays the Teachers tallied their last seven points making the score 50-0. In the latter part of the fourth period the York team threatened to score by carrying the ball to the five yard line. Here the Panthers lost the ball with one minute to play.

Captain "Haddie" Haberman and "Kenny" Willets turned in stellar performances for York. Hartman was injured in the game.

Y. C. Faculty Scatter For Vacation From New England To New Mexico

Amadons Visit Boston, Bachman To Southwest For Conference

The faculty of York College scattered from the rocky coasts of New England to the mountains and deserts of New Mexico during the past summer.

Dean and Mrs. Charles Amadon spent the summer in the vicinity of Boston and Cape Cod among Massachusetts friends and relatives. The Amadons were guests at the studio of their son, Arthur, who has a daily radio program of fifteen minutes.

Dean Walter E. Bachman attended the Colorado-New Mexico camp conference at Santa Cruz, New Mexico, early in the summer. He taught in the summer school and during August with Mrs. Bachman visited in Des Moines, Iowa. While in Des Moines Dr. Bachman contacted prospective students in central Iowa. He preached at union Sunday evening services on the statehouse steps and in Central Park Christian Church of Des Moines.

Prof. Harold Haugan of the physical science department spent seven weeks in Minnesota following a session in the University of Wisconsin summer school. He visited Minneapolis, Duluth, and Little Falls. While in Little Falls, he visited the boyhood home of Col. Charles Lindbergh.

Miss Irene Foster of the English and Physical Education departments spent most of the summer with her mother and aunt in Indiana and enjoyed several short trips, including a brief visit in Wisconsin.

W. Jacob Karraker, professor of education and psychology, taught in the York College summer school. Following the summer session, he spent two weeks in southern Illinois and one week in Indianapolis.

Prof. and Mrs. R. E. Townsend spent most of the summer in York except for a few days spent with Mrs. Townsend's parents.

Miss Alma Tress Lundman of the expression department attended the Northwestern University graduate School of Speech in Evanston, Ill. Prof. W. C. Noll spent some time in private study in the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl I. Doty spent the summer in York, taking time

Visiting Educator Discusses Southern Social Order

Declaring that the Deep South has a culture inherited from England and based to a certain extent on the old English caste system, Prof. Edward Saylor '22, of Talladega College, Alabama, spoke on the social order of the Deep South before the student body at chapel, on September 23.

Having spent thirteen years as a professor of social sciences in a college for the colored people, Professor Saylor has been in a position to observe the cultural aspects of the Deep South and he presented his personal interpretations to the students.

"In the south one sees many contrasts," he declared, "as there is a mixture of modern and medieval society. The old English custom of having indentured servants gave way in the colonial times to the system of slavery practice in the south," Professor Saylor, stated.

Among the things that he believed broke up the old south were the modern means of transportation and communication, together with the fact that labor unions are coming south and drawing members from among the Negroes and poor whites.

"The south, today, is passing through a state of transition leaving the old order for the new," the speaker continued. "Outside pressure and ridicule has made the south nervous and self conscious. As a result they are trying to get away from the old system. I believe they are facing a new dawn," he concluded.

THE PANTHER TRAIL

By Don Davis

With a bang, . . . we hope . . .

Well, here is the start of a sports column in which we aim to bring to you the latest dope and sidelights on those heroes and heroines of the sports world. Gather round, children!

New Coaching Staff . . .

This year we welcome to our campus a new coach who not many years ago was wearing the blue and white himself and ranking as a hero in his own name—Along with Coach Tonkin, we have a new assistant coach, Warren Neal, who last year was a member of the Panther squad—Then, of course, we have some old faces returning to the lineup—Veterans include Captain Harold, "Haddie", Haberman who holds down an end position as only he can—Floyd Gifford, slippery fullback, who is the only experienced man in the backfield—Kenny Willets, 189 pounds, the heaviest of the first string, and Henry Hansen, a guard of three years' standing, have returned to the middle of the line.

They Say . . .

Former Coach Neal Gallant, '32, is having a successful season at Ravenna high school . . . Those spunky ball carriers, the Graff twins, are not new to sports followers of this territory, having starred at Shelby high school, and two years ago they were playing baseball for the York Legion nine whistle blew.

Panthers Came Near

York came nearest to scoring in the second canto when "Haddie" Haberman intercepted a Doane pass and went to Doane's 13. There the Panthers stayed until half-time mopped out the threat. Beautiful broken-field running by Floyd Gifford was York's best offensive. Yager's line-plunges were most effective. But the all-around work of Captain Haberman, who did everything but carry water, stood out like lobster at a picnic.

Leaming's tackles from a guard post paced the linesmen until he was injured early in the game.

Tonight the Panthers meet another conference foe in the Hastings Bronchos, champions last year.

Leaming Visits Four States: Plans Eastern Tour

Vaughn Leaming, senior of Woodward, Iowa, York College representative at Albert Academy, Sierra Leone, West Africa, for the last two years, spent the summer months in visiting various churches and in Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, and Kansas. He travelled over 5,000 miles.

Leaming has spoken 45 times in churches and Young People's camps since his return from Africa in June. In Wisconsin, he spoke at the Regional Youth Conference.

Leaving York on October 12, he will visit the following places: October 13-14, Shenandoah Valley College, Dayton, Va.; October 15-16, Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Penn.; October 17-20, National W. M. A. Convention, Lancaster, Penn.; October 21-22, Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio; October 23, Bonebrake Seminary, Dayton, Ohio; and October 24-25 at Indiana Central College, Indianapolis Ind.

PALS Plan Party

Plans were made at a recent PALS meeting held at the home of Miss Mary Alice Slee, sponsor, for a hard times party to be given for new students on Tuesday evening, October 15, at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Russell Dunlop near Shiloh Church north of York.

TEN YORK STUDENTS ATTEND "Y" MEET

Ten students from York College, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. attended a forum in Lincoln on the subject of Christian leadership and philosophy on the college campus conducted by Dr. Osbert Warmingham.

Dr. Warmingham, born of English parents in India and educated in this country, is well known as professor of English Bible in Boston University and as a speaker at summers camps and conferences.

Dean W. E. Bachman was a guest of the York group at a luncheon in honor of Dr. Warmingham. Later in the afternoon, Homer Meserve, '40, and Barney Rees, '39 conducted a tour of the campus for their former college mates.

host of the party and announced the numbers on the program. Andy Jordon, ship's photographer, was on hand to take pictures of the occasion.

James Koontz, president of Zetas and acting as chief officer of the S. S. Zeta, gave a greeting and urged all new students to attend a regular meeting. Vice-president, Carmen Ware, announced that all new students are invited to a hay rack party and weiner roast which will be held October 15. EDITORIALS . . .

Alarm clocks are nuisances.

There ain't no justice.

Columbus would have a hard time nowadays.

WEATHER FORECAST . . .

No forecast this time. Weather-man went out to look things over, but it was so cloudy that he couldn't see the sky.

ONLY KNOCKS ONCE . . .

Ed Auchard: I'll sell my car for ten dollars, cash. You ought to buy it, as it is an opportunity at that price. Stine Douglas: Yes, I hear it knocking now.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS . . .

Butch says the social side of the athletes in Y. C. is developing very well, especially in regard to cleanliness. Only the other day, freshman back DeBoer, bothered with a Charley-horse in his leg, rubbed it down with "Red Hot" ointment, common remedy for such ailments. Well DeBoer overdid it a little, and by the time he reached home, his leg was burning so much that he had to sit for two hours in the bath tub to cool it off.

IS IT TRUE . . .

It's rumored that the reason Elwyn "Tiny" Phillips has never enrolled in Miss Lundman's Public Speaking class is that he fears the exercises. Phil is afraid that when Miss Lundman directs, "Give up expansion," his trousers won't follow his waist line.

Leviticus was writing a good editorial last week,—one of the new kind inspired by music. He was listening to the string ensemble practicing, and was writing the sweetest thoughts on "Spring." 'Bout that time the pep band cut loose. Very unaccommodating! Played different tunes, in different keys, even quit at different times. Why, one time the band was playing "Flight and Rest," "Poor Little Steep," and the ensemble that he gave up in despair.

Despair! Despair! Will girls never learn to be tactful? They never choose the right time or place to fall. Look at Cobe. Had to choose the Y-Club date picnic, and then the best place she could find to fall, was into the creek.

The poor freshmen are acting so queerly that Penelope is worried sick. She said she saw two girls at the Doane game pushing footballs across the field with their heads! She thinks old Scott Heatherington is to blame, 'cause he's always telling freshmen some crazy thing to do. Some kind of a court or something.
