College Welcomes Homecomers Today

Cast Prepares 'Second Childhood' For Visitors

Will Be Presented Tomorrow Afternoon And Evening

Second Childhood, a three-act comedy by Zillah Covington and Jules Simonsen, will be presented for the entertainment of Homecoming visitors Saturday, October 12, according to Miss Alma Tress Lundman, dramatic instructor.

Two performances will be given, one at 2:30 and the other at 8:15. The official homecoming button will serve as a ticket of admission.

With the exception of four characters, the cast will be the same as that which presented the play last year. The new members of the cast are Bertha Riggs, senior from Merville, Iowa; Vera Blinn, Concluding the Golden Jubilee Homecoming, Senior Bishop Fout will speak Sunday morning at 10:55 in the college church. His sermon will have a thanksgiving theme.

Lundman Speaks At Y. W. C. A.

"A person's trademarks are appearance, poise, voice, intelligence, and manners," declared Miss Alma Tress Lundman, Y. W. C. A. sponsor, in a talk on "Personal Trademarks" at their meeting October 1. "Real charm includes consideration for others and comes from the inner self," she continued.

Vera Matchet, freshman from Anderson, Indiana, read from the Bible and led in prayer. "This Is My Task" was sung by Margaret Bollinger, freshman from Robinson, Kansas, and Bette Crum, junior from Des Moines, accompanied by Vera Blinn, sophomore from Kismet, Kansas.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Students and faculty members who represented the college at the Kansas conference held at the First U. B. Church at Wichita where Rev. R. L. Cortner is pastor were Prof. W. C. Noll; Prof. Charles Bisset; Prof. J. C. Morgan; Vera Blinn, Kismet, Kansas; and Florence Deever, Lincoln. Saturday night, Sept. 28, was York College night, and plans were made for Kansas to do her part in making the York College Golden Jubilee campaign successful.

Church Delegates Discuss Education In Conference

Delegates from six annual conferences of the United Brethren Church met on the York College campus October 9 and 10 for the annual Educational Conference of the Southwest Bishop's Area.

This meeting was a clinic on Christian education. Also proposals of new legislation for the United Brethren Church to be presented to the General Conference of the Church to meet at South Bend, Indiana, in May, 1941, were considered.

Bishop V. O. Weidler of Kansas City, Missouri, presided. Dr. O. T. Deever, Dayton, Ohio, Dr. Paul M. Herrick, Topeka, Kansas, Miss Millicent Savery, Scottsbluff, Dr. W. Z. Henline, Des Moines, Iowa, Rev. F. L. Johnson, Woodward, Okla., Rev. A. L. Brandstetter, Muscatine, Iowa, Dr. Claud Crandall, Kansas City, Missouri, and Dr. Maurice Nichols, Denver, Colorado, participated in the program.

President D. E. Weidler and Dean W. E. Bachman both addressed the conference.

Physics Department Adds 'Recordio' To Equipment

A new Wilcox-Gay-Recordio has been added to the equipment of the physics department. The recordio is an instrument used to electrically record voices on a record. It is being used for laboratory work and also as an aid for the work of the dramatic and music departments. Students of the speech department are being encouraged to buy a record and record their voices now and again in the spring to show their improvements, according to Miss Alma Tress Lundman, head of the speech department.

The recordio makes records of six and one-half inches, eight inches, and ten inches. They can be played on any phonograph using a standard needle.

College students may buy a record and send greetings to their parents in their actual voices for twenty-five cents for each six and one-half inch record, according to Prof. Harold Haugan of the science department. Max Oswald, junior of Aurora, will be in charge of the recordio.

Zetas Hold Annual Formal Reception Amidst Boats, Ropes, Things Nautical

Prof. Doty Captain

In the midst of nautical suggestions, the Zetas held their annual formal reception for new students and faculty members on Tuesday, October 2, at 8:15 p. m. Prof. E. I. Doty, adviser for the Zeta Literary Society, acted as captain of the S. S. Zeta.

One end of the gymnasium was curtained off and made into a steamship's dining room. Life boats, ropes, blue and white streamers, life savers, and patriotic suggestions added to the atmosphere. Standing at the end of the gang plank in a blue and white uniform, Professor Doty greeted the guests as they entered. The occasion was a captain's party.

Carrying out the nautical theme, Gertrude Lindstrom, soloist, sang

Y CLUBBERS WIN; WEINERS SUBDUED

Weiners, games, and marshmallows vs. the Y club and their dates. That was the line-up Monday night September 30 as the Y's held their annual date picnic on a farm near York, and the athletes emerged victorious.

The picnickers left the campus about five o'clock. By auto they went to the picnic grounds where various games furnished activity, and a Weiner roast the food.

There was also a short business meeting in connection with the picnic, President Henry Hansen, Des Moines senior, presiding, and Scott Heatherington, Independence, Kansas, junior, acting as secretary.

Guests of the twelve Y-club members were the new first string football players of this year with their dates.

Coach and Mrs. Rolland Tonkin and Y club sponsor, Dr. Charles Bisset and Mrs. Bisset sponsored the outing.

"When My Dream Boat Comes Home" and "I'm Building a Sailboat of Dreams". She was accompanied at the piano by Catherine Woolever. Leaving for awhile their duties as ship stewards, The Four Z Men, Elwyn Phillips, Leonard Godown, Ray Edsel, and Elmond Holbrook sang "Sailing". Carmen Ware was their accompanist. Genavieve Loreman, dressed in old-fashioned garb, gave the reading "Silly Sally Slithers". Chief officer, James Koontz, substituting as cook, and Stewardess Doris Landon, acting as shy cook, sang a duet. Lois Cobe, as a queerly proportioned midget standing on a table top and wearing a bowler hat, gave a humorous reading. The ship's captain, Professor Doty, acted as

Celebrates Fiftieth Anniversary With Three Day Program

Students Select Ruth Brandstetter As Queen

Reigning over today's Homecoming activities is Homecoming Queen, Ruth Brandstetter, junior of Muscatine, Iowa. She was chosen by vote of the student body last week, and was crowned during the Fiftieth Anniversary program in the gymnasium this morning. The election and crowning were in charge of the Panther club.

Queen Brandstetter is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Brandstetter of the United Brethren Church in Muscatine.

Miss Brandstetter's extra-curricular activities on the campus include program chairman of Y. W. C. A., gospel team chairman of Life Work Recruits, member of PALS, and clarinet player in the college band.

Last year Miss Brandstetter was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen, Gladys Mohler, as a representative of the sophomore class. Two years ago she was freshman attendant to the May Queen.

Both of Miss Brandstetter's parents attended former United Brethren colleges, Campbell College at Holton, Kansas, and Kansas City University, from which her father was graduated in 1921, and her mother a few years later.

Recruits Choose Leaming As Head; Installation Held

Vaughn Leaming of Woodward, Iowa, who has returned to York College after being two years on the faculty of Albert Academy in Sierra Leone, West Africa, was elected president of the Life Work Recruits for the first semester of the 1940-41 school year at the first meeting, September 18.

Other officers elected include Stine Douglas, Beech, North Dakota, vice president; Evelyn Beason, Circle, Montana, secretary; Virginia Hinkel, Cambridge, Iowa, treasurer; Jean Mattingly, Cedar Falls, Iowa, African project chairman; Ruth Brandstetter, Muscatine, Iowa, Gospel team chairman; Florence Deever, Lincoln, student council representative; Bertha Riggs, Merville, Iowa, chorister; Mary Louise Miller, Russel, Kansas, pianist. Formal installation of the new officers was conducted by Prof. J. C. Morgan at the second meeting, Sept. 25. The new president read a poem and gave a brief account of his stay in Africa. He stated that he appreciated the letters and telegrams sent to him from York College.

An illustrated hymn was presented. Bertha Riggs sang the hymn "Higher Ground", accompanied by Mary Louise Miller, after which Laurence Smith carried the melody on his accordion while Floyd Richert, with his chalk and canvas furnished the illustration.

NEWS BRIEF

New doors at the west entrance of the Administration building are the object of campus pride. These beautiful portals are the gift of the class of 1940 to its Alma Mater.

Alumni, Parents, Students Take Part In First Days Activities

In celebration of its fiftieth year, York College this morning opened a three-day anniversary program with the crowning of Homecoming Queen, Ruth Brandstetter, in the college gymnasium. It is the biggest Homecoming staged yet by York College.

The program in the gymnasium this morning started the ball rolling. Chief speaker was M. F. Mulvaney, class of '23, from Omaha who spoke on "Fifty Years of York College." Many Homecomers and students were on hand as first-day proceedings got underway.

Also included in this morning's program were a welcome address by Pres. D. E. Weidler, and responses by Rev. A. L. Brandstetter, representing the parents, and Mrs. Herman Glock, (Pauline Bradwell '18) of York, representing the alumni. Music was furnished by the college string ensemble directed by Mrs. Muriel Thomas Clarke, and the college chorus under Dean Charles Amadon.

Prof. Charles Bisset served as chairman of this morning's phase of Homecoming and Parent's Day.

LUNCH AT NOON

At noon today a luncheon-program will be held at the United Brethren Church for the visitors. Master of ceremonies is Ralph Schmidt, senior from Bradshaw, who is Student Council president. Toasts concerning York College and the student, York College and the Church, and the achievements of York College will be given, respectively, by Milton Maurer, York, class of '35, the Rev. Paul Herrick, pastor of the U. B. church in Topeka, Kansas, and Dean W. E. Bachman. A violin trio and a vocal trio will offer musical selections.

Beckley Discusses Militia For Men

Conscription and National Guards were discussed by Harry Beckley, commander of the York National Guards, at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Oct. 1. Bob Hunt, junior, Des Moines, led the devotions.

Mr. Beckley told a brief history of the National Guards from its origin in France up to the present time. A few of Mr. Beckley's statements were: "The World war was a deciding factor in the organizing of the National Guards in the United States. Many men were lost in the World war due to a great lack of leadership within the armies. The main purpose of the National Guards is to give initial protection to the U. S. and to prepare military leaders."

They Tramped These Halls

By PROF. J. C. MORGAN

An occasion of unusual interest was the Sunday morning service of August 18 at the United Brethren church. The speaker for the service was Mr. Delbert Sterrett, husband of Mrs. Ruth Spore Sterrett, '36. The following alumni were present at this service: Misses Clara and Grace King, '18 and '22, Mr. and Mrs. James Speece, '35, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Thompson, '28, Mrs. Mabel Meeker Kirkpatrick, '24, Miss Mildred Thompson, '34, Misses Edith and Ruth Callender, '15, Miss Irene Thompson, '36, and Mr. Maurice Thompson, '39, Miss Gladys Deever, '36, and Professor and Mrs. Chris Keim.

The Rev. Theron Maxson, '33, has been granted the degree of master of arts by the University of Southern California, the subject of his thesis being "A History of the Oregon Conference of the United Brethren Church."

Miss Doris Stlverson, '33, has received a civil service appointment and her address will be Washington, D. C. She was formerly employed at Seward.

Mr. Robert Hawley, ex '37, and Miss Dorcas Smith were married this summer at Terre Haute, Ind. Mr. Hawley is a graduate of the Indiana State Teachers' College.

Other recent weddings are those of Miss Isabelle Buckles, ex '39 and Mr. Francis Mattison, ex '40, who will be located in Miltonvale, Kansas, and that of Miss Ruth Davies, Aurora, Nebr., and Mr. Irwin Lewis, '37, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Miss Ruth Moffatt ex '38 is now Mrs. C. F. Hanold. Her husband is a minister located at Earlton, Kansas. They have a daughter, Frances Ruth, fourteen

Savery Speaks At First Joint Y.M.-Y.W. Meeting

Combining forces, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. presented "The Cathedral Hour" in their first joint meeting of the year, Sept. 24, in the college chapel. The Rev. G. T. Savery, new pastor of the United Brethren church was the speaker.

To open the service, a choir of sixteen voices under the direction of Bertha Riggs, senior from Merville, Iowa, sang "Fairrest Lord Jesus. They also sang two other hymns during the program.

In his talk Rev. Mr. Savery discussed qualities of character which are "tiny but magnificent." Y. M. C. A. president, Al Zerwekh, read the scripture, and the Y. W. C. A. president, Helen Lumbus, made announcements.

It was recently decided that the last Tuesday of every month be reserved for a joint meeting of the Christian associations, the programs to be arranged with the help of the chapel committee. Heretofore, every Tuesday was association day, and joint meetings were held only occasionally.

months old.

The historian wishes to correct an error in the preceding issue. Miss Edna Nichols is the sister, not the daughter of Mr. Charles Nichols, and his daughter visited with them in York this summer.

Mr. Harlan Muth, ex '35, was among the upper ten per cent of the senior class in the College of Dentistry, University of Nebraska, and received special recognition at a program sponsored by the national honorary dental fraternity held this summer.

Student Council Organizes; Will Enforce Point System

Officers were elected at the first meeting of the Student Council, Sept. 18, with Ralph Schmidt, senior from Bradshaw, Neb., who was elected president at the close of last year, presiding. Those elected were Arline Beason, junior from Circle, Montana, vice president; Bertha Riggs, senior from Merville, Iowa, secretary; and Edwina Bomhoff, sophomore from Wichita, treasurer.

A committee headed by Bertha Riggs was appointed to investigate the activity points of students. According to rules devised by the Student Council of several years ago, the number of extra curricular offices a student may hold is subject to limitation. The enforcement of this rule will be the duty of this committee.

At the second meeting, held October 2, Homecoming committees were appointed. Heading the registration committees are Arline Beason, and Everett Thornton, freshmen from Billings, Montana. Florence Deever, senior from Lincoln, and Charles Scott, sophomore from Lecompton, Kansas, are in charge of the sale of Homecoming buttons. The interclass athletics and games will be under the direction of Kenneth Willets, junior from Clarks, and Arline Beason.

Students, Homecomers, . . . It's Your York of the Future

Today, hundreds of people will traverse the paths of the campus here at York College. Perhaps it has been many years since some of them have walked those paths. For others, it is an annual event. Still others may be in contact with York for the first time. But this year all are welded together by a homecoming spirit fifty years in the making. Today York College celebrates fifty years of service.

From the greenest freshman experiencing his first Homecoming, to the most detached visitor, that feeling has made itself known. The students, as they followed tradition with the program,—the crowning of the queen, and contests, caught a glimpse of all that York College has been; and the homecomers, alumni and parents, looked on, and saw the future of York College, and the kind of America such schools would build. For there is something grand and noble about an institution that has struggled against many odds to grow and expand,—to become established and recognized as a distinctive church college. One feels the same awe that comes from viewing some monarch of the forest still alive and vital after years of rigorous conflict with the elements,—even stronger because of that conflict. That is the heritage of York.

So the people pass about the campus, and as they move, they drift into the past . . . They see again their classmates, their teachers, their queen, their teams; they feel again that surge of pride as a white Y on a blue sweater goes by them. Recaptured for a fleeting moment are days gone-by.

But,—the dream fades,—fades as the people gaze toward the rugged old administration building. They see in the new doors mounted in their time-tried facade the real York College. They see York College incorporating all its good things from the past, building in the present, and looking toward the future. And as they see it, there comes a new conception of college spirit, not that based upon the class of '30, the class of '25, or the class of '40; but a unifying singleness of purpose associated with the York College that is to be.

CONTESTS, GAME END DAY
Next in the day's activities comes the freshman-upperclass contests, an annual feature, at two o'clock on the football field. At 4:30 a pep parade and rally will be staged.

Concluding the first day of Homecoming, the York College Panthers will meet the Hastings Bronchos in the Homecoming football game. Game time is eight o'clock.

Saturday, the second day of Homecoming, "Second Childhood" will be presented. Sunday, Bishop Fout will speak in the college church to close the program.

Cubs Face Future Without Smiles; They Lost

By Charles Hurley

Cheered on by an enthusiastic crowd of five women, four coaches, and a couple of bull frogs who refused to reveal their identity, (not to mention the two teams Kearney had on the bench) the Kearney B team came out victorious in a close battle which resulted in a 66 to 0 defeat for the York College Panther Cubs.

It is rumored by those who know that the victors' overwhelming weight average and its majority of experienced football men had much to do with the defeat of the Cubs, who fought hard at all times despite their disadvantage. (Ed. note: This is probably the only serious paragraph in this story; so if it's the truth you want, stop here.)

Your reporter made a brave attempt to get some post game interviews but his attempt was somewhat futile, for all the response he could get from the local heroes was the shower room chorus which was in the mood to sing only one number, viz. "I'll Never Smile Again". Even in this the choristers insisted on concluding at the end of the first line.

Spying Captain Louis Webb, meditating in a lonely corner of the shower room, your reporter approached him hoping for a few words about the game. Webb stated, "Glub, Glub". It was then discovered that an over-enthusiastic Kearney fullback had stuffed a ball down Webb's esophagus on the last play.

The team line-up will not be printed for obvious reasons.

Miss Zeldia Wakelin of the modern language department spent the summer in Lincoln, Nebraska, with her father and about two weeks in Colorado.

Lose To Warriors 18-0; Line Better

MISS GIFFORD AT FULL

Improved in all departments of play, the York College Panthers held the Sterling Warriors to an 18-0 count Thursday, September 26, on the Sterling gridiron. It was the second loss of the season for York, catching them on the rebound from Peru's 50-0 drubbing.

Especially on defense did the blue and white show better style. The York line stopped the heavy Warrior backs cold during the first quarter which ended 0-0.

Sterling power began to tell in the next quarter, and the Warriors wormed over their first touchdown, going through the line. At the half, it was still 6-0.

The Warriors counted twice more in the second half, once in each quarter. Both times they blasted through the Panther line.

Coach Tonkin, seeking greater strength defensively, made several shifts in the line-up. Kenneth Willits, 189 pounds of junior tackle, took care of the center position where experience has been lacking. Les Auchard, B team guard last year, switched from offensive tackle to defensive end position.

The Panthers were hard pressed in the backfield. Reliable Floyd Gifford was out with a head injury, leaving the twin Graffs to carry the brunt of the load.

Captain Haddie Haberman again led his team, with yeoman work at end.

Tonkin was pleased with the team's showing against a team, which, he said "if anything, was heavier than Peru."

Doane Takes To Air To Win Game 26-0

Panthers Outweighed

Doane outweighed York twenty pounds to the man. Doane won 26-0.

That was the whole story last Friday night as the Panthers met Doane's Tigers in their first conference. Yet,—spotting Doane that weight advantage—the stubborn Panthers stopped the Tiger running attack, and forced them to use the air to score.

Passes Prove Fatal

And Doane's air attack proved fatal, for it featured gluey-fingered left end Rozdalovsky, who took delight all the evening in cavorting behind the Panther defenses to pull down passes fired by Neihart or Bigelow. First evidence of the potent Tiger aeriels came late in the first quarter, when, after Doane's ball-carriers bogged down on the 12, Neihart faded on a reverse, and found Rozdalovsky open in touchdown land,—7-0 after Neihart converted.

The Tigers prowled all around the Panther goal-line in the second quarter, but good line-work in the clutch, and Captain Harold Haberman's punting held them off until another pass from Bigelow to Rozdalovsky was good for 32 yards to the York 3. Bigelow made it to the 1 on the next play; Neihart then took it over. Conversion failed; it was 13-0, and still that at half-time.

Doane Adds Two More

A blocked punt by Rozdalovsky set up for the Tiger's quarterly score in the third on the 26 yard line. Craven went to the 22. A Tiger pass was incomplete on the next play. Then Neihart tried a third-down pass which caromed off Panther Burl Graff's upstretched fingers into Craven's arms for Doane's third touchdown. Craven made the extra point with a plunge.

Fourth quarter thrusts spear-headed by Neihart took the ball from Doane's 30 to a touchdown for the Tiger's last 6-points. Again a pass figured strongly in the score. This one went from Juarez to Neihart, and was good for 24 yards to the York 21. Rozdalovsky made 6 on an end-around play. Neihart's churning legs took it to the one on successive plays. Juarez pierced the line, and went over for 26-0.

The lighter Panthers fought all the way. Though carried back by sheer force of weight time after time, tacklers broke through to nail Doane's carriers. And the blue and white had enough left near the close of the game to set off a passing attack that penetrated Doane territory before the

Y. C. Faculty Scatter For Vacation From New England To New Mexico

Amadons Visit Boston, Bachman To Southwest For Conference

The faculty of York College scattered from the rocky coasts of New England to the mountains and deserts of New Mexico during the past summer.

Dean and Mrs. Charles Amadon spent the summer in the vicinity of Boston and Cape Cod among Massachusetts friends and relatives. The Amadons were guests at the studio of their son, Arthur, who has a daily radio program of fifteen minutes.

Dean Walter E. Bachman attended the Colorado-New Mexico camp conference at Santa Cruz, New Mexico, early in the summer. He taught in the summer school and during August with Mrs. Bachman visited in Des Moines, Iowa. While in Des Moines Dr. Bachman contacted prospective students in central Iowa. He preached at union Sunday evening services on the statehouse steps and in Central Park Christian Church of Des Moines.

Prof. Harold Haugan of the physical science department spent seven weeks in Minnesota following a session in the University of Wisconsin summer school. He visited Minneapolis, Duluth, and Little Falls. While in Little Falls, he visited the boyhood home of Col. Charles Lindbergh.

Miss Irene Foster of the English and Physical Education departments spent most of the summer with her mother and aunt in Indiana and enjoyed several short trips, including a brief visit in Wisconsin.

W. Jacob Karraker, professor of education and psychology, taught in the York College summer school. Following the summer session, he spent two weeks in southern Illinois and one week in Indianapolis.

Prof. and Mrs. R. E. Townsend spent most of the summer in York except for a few days spent with Mrs. Townsend's parents.

Miss Alma Tress Lundman of the expression department attended the Northwestern University graduate School of Speech in Evanston, Ill. Prof. W. C. Noll spent some time in private study in the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl I. Doty spent the summer in York, taking time

Visiting Educator Discusses Southern Social Order

Declaring that the Deep South has a culture inherited from England and based to a certain extent on the old English caste system, Prof. Edward Saylor '22, of Talladega College, Alabama, spoke on the social order of the Deep South before the student body at chapel, on September 23.

Having spent thirteen years as a professor of social sciences in a college for the colored people, Professor Saylor has been in a position to observe the cultural aspects of the Deep South and he presented his personal interpretations to the students.

"In the south one sees many contrasts," he declared, "as there is a mixture of modern and medieval society. The old English custom of having indentured servants gave way in the colonial times to the system of slavery practice in the south," Professor Saylor, stated.

Among the things that he believed broke up the old south were the modern means of transportation and communication, together with the fact that labor unions are coming south and drawing members from among the Negroes and poor whites.

"The south, today, is passing through a state of transition leaving the old order for the new," the speaker continued. "Outside pressure and ridicule has made the south nervous and self conscious. As a result they are trying to get away from the old system. I believe they are facing a new dawn," he concluded.

out for a brief visit in Iowa. Miss Mary Alice Slee visited in Iowa and Minnesota after the closing of summer school in York.

Mrs. Muriel T. Clarke of the conservatory faculty, Miss Edith Cone, librarian, Miss Edith Calender of the English department, Howard C. Feemster, professor of mathematics, J. C. Morgan, professor of classical languages and literature, and Misses Eda Rankin and Gladys Pearson of the conservatory, spent the summer in York.

THE PANTHER TRAIL

By Don Davis

With a bang, . . . we hope . . .

Well, here is the start of a sports column in which we aim to bring to you the latest dope and sidelights on those heroes and heroines of the sports world. Gather round, children!

New Coaching Staff . . .

This year we welcome to our campus a new coach who not many years ago was wearing the blue and white himself and ranking as a hero in his own name—Along with Coach Tonkin, we have a new assistant coach, Warren Neal, who last year was a member of the Panther squad—Then, of course, we have some old faces returning to the lineup—Veterans include Captain Harold, "Haddie", Haberman who holds down an end position as only he can—Floyd Gifford, slippery fullback, who is the only experienced man in the backfield—Kenny Willets, 189 pounds, the heaviest of the first string, and Henry Hansen, a guard of three years' standing, have returned to the middle of the line.

They Say . . .

Former Coach Neal Gallant, '32, is having a successful season at Ravenna high school . . . Those spunky ball carriers, the Graff twins, are not new to sports followers of this territory, having starred at Shelby high school, and two years ago they were playing baseball for the York Legion nine whistle blew.

Panthers Came Near

York came nearest to scoring in the second canto when "Haddie" Haberman intercepted a Doane pass and went to Doane's 13. There the Panthers stayed until half-time mopped out the threat.

Beautiful broken-field running by Floyd Gifford was York's best offensive. Yager's line-plunges were most effective. But the all-round work of Captain Haberman, who did everything but carry water, stood out like lobster at a picnic.

Leaming's tackles from a guard post paced the linesmen until he was injured early in the game.

Tonight the Panthers meet another conference foe in the Hastings Bronchos, champions last year.

Leaming Visits Four States: Plans Eastern Tour

Vaughn Leaming, senior of Woodward, Iowa, York College representative at Albert Academy, Sierra Leone, West Africa, for the last two years, spent the summer months in visiting various churches and in Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, and Kansas. He travelled over 5,000 miles.

Leaming has spoken 45 times in churches and Young People's camps since his return from Africa in June. In Wisconsin, he spoke at the Regional Youth Conference.

Leaving York on October 12, he will visit the following places: October 13-14, Shenandoah Valley College, Dayton, Va.; October 15-16, Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Penn.; October 17-20, National W. M. A. Convention, Lancaster, Penn.; October 21-22, Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio; October 23, Bonebrake Seminary, Dayton, Ohio; and October 24-25 at Indiana Central College, Indianapolis Ind.

PALS Plan Party

Plans were made at a recent PALS meeting held at the home of Miss Mary Alice Slee, sponsor, for a hard times party to be given for new students on Tuesday evening, October 15, at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Russell Dunlop near Shiloh Church north of York.

TEN YORK STUDENTS ATTEND "Y" MEET

Ten students from York College, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. attended a forum in Lincoln on the subject of Christian leadership and philosophy on the college campus conducted by Dr. Osbert Warmingham.

Dr. Warmingham, born of English parents in India and educated in this country, is well known as professor of English Bible in Boston University and as a speaker at summers camps and conferences.

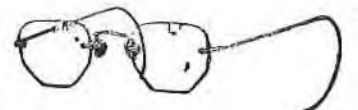

Dean W. E. Bachman was a guest of the York group at a luncheon in honor of Dr. Warmingham. Later in the afternoon, Homer Meserve, '40, and Barney Rees, '39 conducted a tour of the campus for their former college mates.

host of the party and announced the numbers on the program. Andy Jordon, ship's photographer, was on hand to take pictures of the occasion.

James Koontz, president of Zetas and acting as chief officer of the S. S. Zeta, gave a greeting and urged all new students to attend a regular meeting. Vice-president, Carmen Ware, announced that all new students are invited to a hay rack party and weiner roast which will be held October 15. Refreshments were served to guests by stewards and stewardesses.

Gentlemen: Take a tip from the ladies . . . lead a More Colorful Life this Fall.—RUSS WILLIAMS.

EDITORIALS . . .

Alarm clocks are nuisances.

There ain't no justice.

Columbus would have a hard time nowadays.

WEATHER FORECAST . . .

No forecast this time. Weather-man went out to look things over, but it was so cloudy that he couldn't see the sky.

ONLY KNOCKS ONCE . . .

Ed Auchard: I'll sell my car for ten dollars, cash. You ought to buy it, as it is an opportunity at that price.
Stine Douglas: Yes, I hear it knocking now.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS . . .

Butch says the social side of the athletes in Y. C. is developing very well, especially in regard to cleanliness. Only the other day, freshman back DeBoer, bothered with a Charley-horse in his leg, rubbed it down with "Red Hot" ointment, common remedy for such ailments. Well DeBoer overdid it a little, and by the time he reached home, his leg was burning so much that he had to sit for two hours in the bath tub to cool it off.

IS IT TRUE . . .

It's rumored that the reason Elwyn "Tiny" Phillips has never enrolled in Miss Lundman's Public Speaking class is that he fears the exercises. Phil is afraid that when Miss Lundman directs, "Give up expansion," his trousers won't follow his waist line.

Leviticus was writing a good editorial last week,—one of the new kind inspired by music. He was listening to the string ensemble practing, and was writing the sweetest thoughts on "Spring." 'Bout that time the pep band cut loose. Very unaccommodating! Played different tunes, in different keys, even quit at different times. Why, one time the band was playing, "Flight and Rest," "Poor Little Girl," and the ensemble that he gave up in despair. He got in such a jumble with his "Poor Little Girl" and "Flight and Rest," "Poor Little Girl," and the ensemble that he gave up in despair.

Despair! Despair! Will girls never learn to be tactful? They never choose the right time or place to fall. Look at Cobe. Had to choose the Y-Club date picnic, and then the best place she could find to fall, was into the creek.

The poor freshmen are acting so queerly that Penelope is worried sick. She said she saw two girls at the Doane game pushing footballs across the field with their heads! She thinks old Scott Heatherington is to blame, 'cause he's always telling freshmen some crazy thing to do. Some kind of a court or something.
