

Pantherettes To Sponsor Valentine Frolic Tomorrow "VALENTINE VARIETIES" TO OFFER VARIOUS PLEASANT ACTIVITIES

The lower hall in the Administration building of York college will be the scene of the Valentine Varieties, on Friday the 14th, at 8:00. The event is being sponsored by the Pantherettes, the girl's pep organization. Tickets purchased at the door will furnish entrance into special booths of fortune telling, house of horror, and popcorn and pink lemonade stands. Guests may have caricatures penciled, or request numbers played by a staff of musicians, as well as participate in many other activities. The climax of the evening will come when the Personality King of Y. C. is disclosed. The candidates for this honor were nominated by the three girl's houses, and will be voted upon by the Pantherettes.

J. Kaeding-Johnson Wedding Held At Republic, Kansas

Arlene Johnson, senior, Republic, Kans., became the bride of James Kaeding, senior, York, February 8, at her home in Republic. The Rev. L. P. Herrick performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Don Bailey of Jewell City, Kans., attended her sister as matron of honor. Wayne Kaeding, senior, York, brother of the groom, was the best man. Norma Ruth Ehler, sophomore, Johnstown, Colo., lighted the tapers, and Marie Harris, junior, Great Falls, Mont., was in charge of the guest book.

Melody Men Present Chapel Program

The Melody Men, a quartette, appearing on their 49th program, presented five musical numbers before the student body at a recent chapel program. The quartette is composed of Milton Snow, sophomore of Des Moines, Ia.; Dick Riggs, junior of Ames, Ia.; Bill Johnson, freshman of Ames, Ia.; and Merl Riggs, freshman of Merna. Harold Holton, freshman of Chariton, Ia., is the accompanist.

The following numbers were sung by the quartette: "While Strolling Through the Park," "Chinatown," "Jerusalem," "Dark Eyes," and "The Organ and the Choir."

Dramatic Students Begin Experimental Theater Project

Entirely Different From Anything Presented By Our Group, Says White

"The 'experimental theater' project which is beginning this week will be entirely different from anything ever attempted by our group," said Prof. Wm. White, of the department of Speech and Dramatic Art.

In a recent interview, Mr. White revealed that a series of one-act plays will begin production immediately, and will be given in March. All dramatic students will have a chance to work in a play. It is hoped that much new talent will be discovered, and those of established ability will have the opportunity to develop it.

Mr. White defined "experimental theater" as an outlet from the triteness of the common theater. He explained that its purpose is "to give young neophytes a chance to get acquainted with different types of drama and give the theater-going public the opportunity to see that there are other forms of dramatic work than the common conception of comedy and drama". It is hoped that eventually the students will write their own plays.

Four plays have been tentatively selected for presentation. They are: "High Window", by Verne Powers, a psychological drama; "Nobody Sleeps", by Guernsey Le Pelley, a comedy without properties; "Ladies of the Mop", by Aurand Harris, a play in rhyme and rhythm; and "Antic Spring", by Robert Nail, a comedy without properties. No admission will be charged.

In conclusion, Mr. White declared, "The experimental theater or evening of one-act plays will be an opportunity for the theater-loving audience and the performers to explore together the new vistas leading to the future of the stage!"

Pres. Weidler And Dr. Savery Speak At O.B.N. Meeting

Pres. D. E. Weidler, and Dr. G. T. Savery, pastor of the college church, spoke in a recent meeting of the OBN Fellowship held in the college church. "What laymen expect of a preacher" was the topic presented by President Weidler, while that of Dr. Savery was "What preachers expect of laymen."

"The church needs more good preachers", asserted Mr. Weidler, pointing out the qualities of a good preacher. "Young preachers must have the ambition to become good preachers," he said.

The Rev. Mr. Savery brought out the duties of laymen in the various phases of church functions. Laymen must help to promote all church functions to make them successful. Good laymen should also be active participants in all spiritual activities of the church, he declared.

Veterans' Housing Units Are Now Ready For Occupancy

The long-awaited Veterans' Housing Units are at last being completed and turned over to the college for occupancy.

President D. E. Weidler met Walter L. Meyer, manager of the Olson Construction Company, at 10:30 A. M. February 5 in the Veterans' Housing Section on Delaware avenue and accepted the keys for four units.

President Weidler, Mr. Meyer and Roy F. Randolph, engineer for the construction company, inspected the four units. Then Mr. Gale, local photographer, took pictures of the interior. After the president signed papers of acceptance, the buildings were turned over to the college.

As soon as veterans were given keys, the housing section became the most active part of the campus. The water and gas company men were called to check their service, and then moving got under way.

Richard "Dick" Riggs, sophomore, Ames, Ia., who had been having fuel trouble, had already made one attempt to move in, but was stopped because inspection of the buildings was not completed. He lost no time in occupying his apartment as soon as it was released.

The other GI's, Lora Holbrook, senior, Orchard, Robert "Bob" Dicus, sophomore, Lawton, Ia., and Joseph "Joe" Martin, freshman, St. Louis, Mo. followed Riggs' example and all are now living in their units.

These GI's now have modern homes on the campus. In each unit there is a large room to be used as a combination living room, dining room and kitchen, as the built-in kitchenette is in one side. Then there are two bedrooms and a bath.

In the kitchenette is a gas range, refrigerator, cabinet and sink. A gas water heater supplies hot water for the bath and kitchenette. A modern gas heater keeps each apartment warm. Beds with springs and mattress have been placed in the bedrooms. The college has been given sheets, blankets, and towels to be issued to each renter.

Other housing units will be turned over as fast as they are completed, according to Mr. Meyer. He also stated that in fifteen centers in Nebraska and three in Iowa, they are building almost 700 units, but so far only a few more than a hundred have been completed and turned over to the colleges.

DOUBLE HARNESS FRATERNITY AT Y. C.

By Lee and Edith Huebert

"Isn't he cute?"
"Sure, but no use making eyes at him, he's married".
"Him, too?"

If you see a man on the campus, the chances are one in four that he wears a gold band on the third finger of his left hand. Of the forty-four wedded males, only nine are privileged (?) to have their wives in college with them. Leaving George and Henry to wield mop-stick and skillet, three co-eds betake themselves alone to books and slates, so that forty-seven homes are represented by a total of fifty-six married students.

The heavy percentage of married students in college may, in part, be attributable to the war, as are heavier taxes, fewer cars, and less bubble gum. Ten years ago, there were no instances of both man and wife attending college, but because of the GI bill, a number of men have returned to finish where they left off. Resuming careers and romances, they return to the campus. In at least one instance, Cupid stood by with folded wings, awaiting completion of the housing units so that a student and his bride might take possession.

An ever-increasing group, the double harness fraternity is found in nearly every activity on the campus. Kenneth Hicks headed the senior class the first semester, and Aloys Holst the sophomores. The latter relinquished the reins to another benedict, Bob Dicus, for the second semester, while Bill Johnson presides over the destinies of the freshmen. Dicus was recently elected president of PALS, also Lee Huebert edits the 1947 Marathon, with Johnson and Mrs. Mary Karraker on the staff. Dick Riggs, J. W. Hartsaw, and the Hueberts are Sandburr staff members.

Aloys Holst was first semester president of the Life Work Recruits, while Mesdames Bess McMinn and Rowena Fahring were officers of the organization. Another of the pre-theo's, Kenneth Hicks, heads the OBN, ministerial fellowship. In addition to Hicks and his wife Elaine, the chapel choir is blessed with another voice mellowed by matrimony, namely that of Dick Riggs. The latter also guides the destinies of the Melody Men, who claim Bill Johnson as a member.

Rowena Fahring was a member of the cast of "Little Women", while Mrs. Carmen Haberman and Lee and Edith Huebert are members of Alpha Psi Omega. Further members of the "ball-and-chain" gang can be found in Zetas, PALS, Chorus, Band, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and Pantherettes.

Six stalwarts, no longer solo, won grid-iron glory. Letters went to Bob Dicus, Ross Speece, Bill Johnson, Abe Dick, Gerald Witham, and Mark Fahring, the latter rating conference honors.

Currently, three members of Coach R. E. Tonkin's A squad, namely Abe Dick, and the Kaedings, Wayne and Jim, belong to the wedded-bliss group.

Conclusion: At least one-fifth of the students at York this year don't particularly care if Y. C. doesn't uphold the small college match - factory tradition, for they've already said "I do". In addition to those already mentioned, the following are out of bounds for the footloose and fancy free: Sylvia Anderson, Norman Crouse, Oliver Davidson, Oscar Max Dauber, James and Marjorie Duvall, Earl Graft, Marvin Garlock, Charles Hatfield, Marvin Herrick, Lora Holbrook, Joyce Holst, John Karutz, Alfred Kilpatrick, H. J. Koester, Claude McMinn, Walter Millett, Milo Lauffer, Duane Larkins, Evan Pickrel, Roland Ramsey, Rudolph Rojahn, Aiden Sears, Arthur Tebell, Reva and J. W. Tomlinson, Richard Van Pelt, Margaret Wickersham, O. J. Yates, Allen Friesen, and Dennis Friesen.

Second semester registrants include Donald Light, Bob McGregor, Joe Martin, Rex and Abbie Megill, Robert Louis Wiedewult, and Arlene Johnson Kaeding.

Doris Canon, Barbara Blauch Design For "Junior Miss"

Set, Women's Costumes
Designed And Made By Special Staff

Doris Jean Canon, sophomore, Philomath, Ore., and Barbara Blauch, sophomore, York, are designing the set and all the women's costumes for the play, "Junior Miss", to be produced February 27, at the York City Auditorium.

A modern living room with a color scheme of chartruese and gray with dashes of red is the basis of the stage set. The salient feature will be a large portrait of 'Junior Miss' and her sister, Lois, painted by Miss Canon.

The formal gown worn by 'Junior Miss' in the third act is one of the main costumes to be created by Misses Canon and Blauch. Approximately 20 others will be designed and made or remodeled by the two women and their staff.

This is the first time in the annals of York college that the set and costumes have been designed by students, according to the director.

Prof. Morgan Is Speaker At Installation

Prof. J. C. Morgan, of the classical languages department, presented some highlights of the years which he has served as sponsor of the Life Work Recruits when they met recently to install officers for the second semester.

Prof. Morgan mentioned a number of former members who have gone into active Christian service, either serving pastorates or the mission field.

They Tramped These Halls

By Prof. J. C. Morgan

Miss Florence Jenkins, '26, teacher of social studies and debate in the Lincoln schools, has prepared a bulletin for the Department of Public Instruction entitled Cornhusker Boys' State Manual. The Nebraska Educational Journal makes this comment upon it: "Her work gives evidence of her training and experience in the social studies field and of her awareness concerning the need for helping high school students build proper attitudes of citizenship". Miss Jenkins also assisted in the writing of Nebraska's text-book in pre-flight aeronautics entitled Elements of Pre-flight Aeronautics.

Mrs. Seward (Lenora Steffin, ex-'26) of Imperial, was a campus visitor, January 25, and Mrs. Frances Bullock Grimes, '42, Smith Center, Kans., on February 7.

Wedding:

Miss Doris Moomey to Dr. Holland R. Wildman at York, January 26. Mrs. Wildman was a student of Miss Rankin. Dr. Wildman, formerly of York, is a dentist at Fullerton, California, where they will make their home.

Births:

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Smith, '37 and ex-'33, a daughter, January 18, at Hyattsville, Maryland. Mr. Smith is teaching in the University of Maryland. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Jo Spore.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harris, ex-'46, a son, Charles Wesley, February 4, at Kansas City. Mrs. Harris is the former Doris Robinson.

Hi-Lites from Chapel Talks

By LOUIS RACHOW

Bible Study Necessary

Education may never be considered complete without a knowledge of the Bible. This was the substance of a talk given by the Rev. W. W. Nylina, pastor of the Baptist-Congregational church of York, in the last formal chapel service. The Bible is a "lamp unto our feet," and a "light unto our path," he continued.

"We are not a generation of Bible students," declared the Rev. Mr. Nylina. "Our materialism of today is leading men and women away from the Bible. Religion and science are not in conflict with each other; science deals with matter and force and religion deals with spiritual and moral powers. Life becomes more acceptable to God when we feed upon the Word.

"The Bible leads us to God, brings us into experience with God, and portrays Jesus Christ to us," continued the speaker. "Jesus becomes real to us through salvation and we become more and more in harmony with our Father."

Religion Has Three Aspects

"We must achieve the experience of a combination of the emotional, intellectual, and expressive aspects of religion," declared Pres. D. E. Weidler in a recent formal chapel address. "Each of these approaches has its value, but we must attain a spiritual balance of all three aspects."

Dr. Weidler continued by saying that if we establish ideals, we must associate emotional experiences. The intellectual aspect is an appeal to intelligence which makes man superior to all other creatures.

"Jesus said, 'I am the Way, the Truth, and the Light.' Every student needs to see all these aspects for spiritual balance," concluded Pres. Weidler.

America Is Still Fighting

A war of nations against nations has just been fought and won. Now America is fighting another war—a war against itself. Yes, America is combating many domestic troubles. Crime waves, racial riots, political strife, industrial strikes: these are the enemies of America today. The vanquishing of these troubles will bring about the much desired, lasting peace. Can America overcome them?

Intolerance looms on the horizon as one of the most foreboding of these enemies,—racial intolerance which makes the Negro feel inferior, and religious intolerance which goes as far as to drive a man from his home because his theology is different. This intolerance can be removed by man's striving to understand his brother—no matter what his race or religion is. A closer fellowship and understanding among men with different backgrounds will strengthen the character of the nation.

Murder, larceny, arson, fraud, and many other infamous crimes stalk the streets of America. Such crimes are caused by greed, hate, and jealousy. Juvenile delinquency is caused by neglect of the rights of the youth of America. The people of America must rid themselves of these evils so that America's streets may be free of danger.

Political strikes and industrial strikes are caused by men who are not satisfied. They do not have what they want—perhaps because they do not know what they want. This feeling of dissatisfaction must be destroyed before America has peace.

How can we, as college students, help to combat these enemies that are so far from us? We can educate ourselves now to new ideas of peace. We can learn to be tolerant instead of intolerant; to be giving instead of grasping; to know what we want and work for it instead of being merely dissatisfied. We can take advantage of our opportunities for education and learn from the past to educate ourselves and prepare for the future.

Max Thornton Visits College Campus

Among familiar faces on the campus at the beginning of second semester was one that belongs to Max Thornton, a freshman in York during the year '41-'42 who recently spent a week visiting Y. C.

Thornton and George Anderson, brother of Lois Anderson, '47, drove from their home town, Billings, Mont. recently. This is one step in a vacation that they are spending "driving around the country". Max Thornton temporarily completed a quartet of Thorntons on this campus, Everett '48, Marjorie '47, and Melvin '50 being the other members.

"I have really enjoyed seeing my former professors and fellow students", said Thornton. "Some of the 'students' I knew in '41, by the way, are now here in the capacity of professors."

"I hope to be in college somewhere next fall", he said when asked about future plans. For the immediate future, we are going east. Unless," he added with a smile, "the weather stays the same. Then we may head south."

Mrs. Arlene Johnson Kaeding and Jim Kaeding, York, seniors, were honored at a party held at the Diehl Den last week to celebrate their approaching marriage, which occurred at the week end. The members of the basketball team were present and numerous friends. Norma Ruth Ehler, sophomore, Johnstown, Colo., and Marie Harris, junior, Great Falls, Mont., were hostesses.

Music Notes

"Melody Men" is the new name selected by the former PALS Men's quartette as a result of a naming contest sponsored by the quartette. The quartette composed of Dick Riggs, sophomore, Ames Ia.; Milton Snow, freshman, Des Moines, Ia.; Bill Johnson, freshman, Ames, Ia.; and Merle Riggs, freshman, Merna, is accompanied by Harold Holton, freshman, Russell, Ia. The Melody Men recently entertained the Power and Light company of York at its annual party.

Practice on the Bohemian Girl, the opera to be given by the Music department under the direction of Dean Charles A. Amadon, has begun for choir members. The tentative date set for the opera is March 20.

The Sophomore Trio and Melody Men presented a program at the banquet for the Youth Center and YMCA directors of York on Monday evening.

Story Corner

By Gerald Edgar

I dreamed one time of journeying to that metropolis, "The City of Everywhere". I arrived one cold snowy morning. As I stepped from the train to the platform, I noticed the people wore no shoes. My initial impulse was to ask the reason for this odd practice, but repressing it, I passed into the station to inquire the way to the hotel. My curiosity, however, was immediately increased by the discovery that no one in the station wore shoes.

When I boarded a street car, I saw that my fellow travelers were likewise barefoot. Upon arriving at the hotel I found that the bellhops, the clerk, and the habitues of the place were also without shoes. Unable to restrain myself any longer, I asked the manager what the practice meant. "What practice?" said he.

"Why," said I, pointing to his bare feet, "why don't you wear shoes in this town?"

"Ah, that is just it! Why don't we?"

"Don't you believe in shoes?"

"Believe in shoes! That is the first article of our creed."

"Then why don't you wear them?"

"Ah, that is just it! Why don't we?"

I walked through the town and there before me was a large shoe manufacturing company. When I asked why they didn't make shoes, they answered, "Ah, that's just it. Why don't we?"

As I left the town, I could hear the very over and over ringing in my ears.

"Why don't we? Why don't we?"

"Why call thee me, 'Lord, Lord', and do not the things I command you?"

Panthers Humble Kearney Antelopes

York Wins 66-58; Keep Third Place in the NCC

Riding the crest of a wave of victories, the Panthers annexed their third straight as they humbled Kearney 66-58. The game was not as close as the score indicates and the Panthers' lead was never seriously threatened after "Tank" Campbell's fielder in the first twenty seconds put them ahead.

With the Kaedings and Auchard working their court wizardry, the York aggregation had moved to a 10-4 lead at the five minute mark. With ten minutes gone, it was 19-12, York. At the half, the score was an amazing 41-26, largely due to deadly shooting by Jim Kaeding, ably fed by Auchard and Wayne Kaeding.

Consistent work by Nicholson and Cornelius of Kearney, plus an occasional bucket by Osborne whittled away at the Panther advantage, until at the four minute official time out, the tally stood 62-51. Two free throws by the incomparable Jim Kaeding and a quick drive-in by Campbell ended scoring for York and for the game.

As may have been suspected ere now, Jim Kaeding supplied the spark for the York offense, amassing a total of 24 points. Auchard padded his total with 13 points, while Wayne Kaeding wound up with an even dozen markers. Besides scoring the first and last two-pointers of the evening, "Tank" Campbell played his usual steady defensive game. Conway and Dick, too, played pretty consistent basketball.

Nicholson, Antelope forward, led the visitors' scoring parade, racking up 18 points, followed by Cornelius with 13, with the hardy perennial, Dick Peterson, who annexed 12.

In the prelims, York B handed the little Antelopes their first defeat of the season 56-45.

The C squad defeated Republic, Kansas, high school, by a margin of 35-33.

AROUND THE CONFERENCE

By BLAINE RONNE

The Panthers are still hanging on to number three spot in the NCC and have the distinction of being the only team in the conference to knock-off the Peru Bobcats. This week-end may change things for York, Peru, and Hastings. All three teams have tough games. Peru meets Kearney Friday night at Kearney, and Hastings Saturday night at Hastings. York will meet Kearney Saturday night at Kearney. Kearney's small court may prove to be a headache to both Peru and York. The Panthers still have a slim chance of winning the crown, if Peru is defeated once more and if the Panthers can finish the season without a loss. They still have three tough games to win. The ratings at present are:

	W	L
Peru	8	1
Hastings	10	2
York	8	2
Kearney	5	5
Wayne	4	6
Midland	4	7
Wesleyan	2	7
Chadron	2	9

Next Tuesday, Coach R. E. Tonkin and his Panthers will take to the road. Tuesday night they play Simpson college, Indianola, Iowa. Friday night the Panthers will meet Indiana Central college, Indianapolis, Indiana. On the trip home they will stop at Galesburg, Ill., where they will play Knox college. On returning home, the Panthers will wind up the season with two conference games with Doane college.

In a recent edition of the Sunday World-Herald Magazine, there appeared an article written by Gregg McBride and entitled, "Brothers of the Hoop". The article features both pictures and the life history of the Kaeding brothers, Wayne and Jim.

York Takes 64-42 Win From Midland

Panthers Display Brilliant Teamwork; Run Up Record Score On Midland Court

Displaying brilliant teamwork and sharp "basket eyes", the York College Panthers Friday night handed the Midland Warriors a 64-42 defeat at Fremont.

The defeat was the second of the season for the Midland team at the hands of the Panthers, and it was also the highest score ever run up on the Warriors at home.

Both teams started slowly with York finding the basket first to run the score to 23-13 at half-time.

The second half featured fast scoring by both teams with the Panthers pointing the way at all times. Denny Auchard teamed with the Kaedings to account for 43 of the Panthers' points. Jim Kaeding and Auchard both dropped 15 points through the hoop while Wayne Kaeding found the netting for 13 points.

While the Panthers were going all-out offensively, their defensive game was at its best. Bob Hahn, Midland's ace scorer, was held to one point by the outstanding work of Cleo Campbell, while Conway was using his height to control the rebounds in fine fashion. Wayne Kaeding, in addition to his 13 points, was turning in a spectacular defensive game by his rebounding and pass interceptions.

The victory over Midland kept the Panthers in the Conference race with Hastings and Peru.

Panthers Slap Bewildered Peru Bobcats 69-53 Before 1300 Fans

J. Kaeding Paces York Team To Victory; First Loss for Peru Team in the NCC

A torrid York college team gained revenge for an early season one-point defeat by slapping a bewildered Peru State Teacher quintet 69-53 at the city auditorium before 1300 cheering, excited fans who had let neither snow nor cold weather stop them from seeing the Panthers ring up defeat number one for the Bobcats in the Nebraska College Conference.

The Panthers took a one point lead on Conway's free throw. Yocum tied the score with a gift toss and then things began to happen as Jim Kaeding, Conway, and Auchard hit the hoop to boost the lead to 6-1 with only a little over three minutes played.

From then on, with Jim Kaeding keeping the hoop hot and brother Wayne adding two field goals, the Panthers stood out ahead 17-8 at the end of 10 minutes of play. At the half the score showed a nice margin, 33-24, in favor of York with 18 of the points credited to Jim Kaeding.

The Bobcats showed plenty of fire the early part of the second half, but the Kaedings and Conway soon checked the Peru rally with a volume of shots. With a safe lead, Coach R. E. Tonkin sent in his capable substitutes who finished the game in great shape.

After all shouting and handshaking was over, the score book showed that Jim Kaeding had accounted for 26 of York's points. Jim Conway netted 16 points and Wayne Kaeding dumped in 11. "Buzz" Byer's 15 points was high for Peru while Yocum collected 12 and Haack nine.

Until he fouled out in the second half, Wayne Kaeding played a great defensive game. Cleo Campbell also played a good defensive game holding Yocum, Peru's six foot four center, to four field goals. The whole Panther team can be congratulated on the fine performance they turned in. It was the first time this year that they played ball as a five-man team on their home court.

Prof. Karraker Explains Excuse Blank Procedure

During the past semester several students have asked for an interpretation of the ruling, as stated in the York College catalog, with respect to absence from classes, according to Prof. J. W. Karraker, dean of men.

At a recent faculty meeting the statement was clarified and revised. The regulation relating to class absences is now as follows: Excuses for necessary absences should be given to the dean within two weeks after they occur. Work missed must be made up promptly to the satisfaction of the instructor involved. After two unexcused absences from each class, the instructor will deduct one per cent from the final grade for the course for each unexcused absence.

Hurrah For The Cheerleaders!

The college cheerleaders have been adding much to the basketball games with the acrobatic stunts with which they lead many of the yells. The leaders, who are Norma Anderson, sophomore, York; Wanda Miller, sophomore, Russell, Kans.; Margaret Webb, senior, Omaha; Richard Bason, freshman, Des Moines, Ia.; and Milton Snow, sophomore, Des Moines, Ia., have devised tumbling acts which prove popular with the student body and the other spectators.

News Briefs

Florence Veach spent the week-end of January 30 at home in Kansas City, Mo., while Pauline Smeltzer, who accompanied her, visited friends in the same city. Both are freshmen.

A son, Donald Gene, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Herrick, January 30, at the York Hospital. Mr. Herrick is a junior.

President D. E. Weidler was the speaker at the mid-week service in the York Evangelical United Brethren church February 5. During the noon hour Friday, February 7, he spoke to the luncheon club at the McCloud hotel in York.

"Hobo Jolly-Up" Opens Semester

"Ho derry dio, Ho derry dey!" New students on the campus joined the old in folk games at the "Hobo Jolly-Up" sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. at the opening of the second semester.

The hobo theme was emphasized by the costumes of the guests and by the method of obtaining partners for the evening. Each guest was identified by tags either of red plaid shirts or blue jeans bearing their partner's number. By this means hoboes number "29", Marjorie Thornton, senior, Billings, Mont., and Lester Hazen, freshman, The Dalles, Ore., were chosen hobo song leaders for the evening.

Skits were given by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.. The men presented "Two New Students on the Campus" under the direction of Bob Gillespie, junior, Glendale, Calif., and Dick Riggs, sophomore, Ames, Ia. The two new students, Merwin Kurtz, sophomore, Alton, Kans., and Ralph Amen, Cheyenne, Wyo. gave a preview of campus life to the new second semester students.

"A Trip to the Opera" was pantomimed by the "Annex Women" of the Y. M. C. A. The car composed of tires, Doris Jean Canon, sophomore, Philomath, Ore., Anna Kamm, sophomore, Platte Center, Willa Lee Roberts, sophomore, Fairbury, and Ruth Sanchez, junior, Holman, N. Mex., and the engine, Iva Lee Mizell, sophomore, Dellvale, Kans., was driven by Betty Jean Schoonover, junior, Des Moines, Ia. The opera consisted of a shadow pantomime by Lois Shaneyfelt, junior, Central City, and Iona Shaw, junior, Great Falls, Mont., while Elsie Walker, sophomore, Santa Cruz, N. Mex., and Eunice Goodrich, junior, Portland, Ore., furnished suitable music.

Another Y. M. C. A. specialty, "While Strolling Through the Park," was sung by the Melody Men as a conclusion to the program.

Rev. Hague Travels To Kansas To Fill Engagement Jan. 26

The Rev. Virgil Hague, vice-president of York College, went to La Cross, Kans., January 26, where he was the speaker for the morning service in the Evangelical United Brethren church.

January 27 he was the guest speaker for the Rush County Sunday School Convention which was held in the M. E. church of La Cross, Kans. He was also a speaker for the County Youth Banquet which was the evening session of the convention.

January 29 Mr. Hague went to Coffeetown, Kan., where he was guest speaker for the City Youth Banquet held in the Evangelical United Brethren church.

Again February 12 Mr. Hague went to Kansas for a week. He is with the Hutchison group of the Evangelical United Brethren church this week for a series of district meetings.

'Unpopularity Can Be Sinful' Is Theme of Recruits Meeting

"Unpopularity can be Sinful" was the theme of the Life Work Recruits in a recent meeting. The program was prepared by the new officers elected for the second semester.

Ralph Amen, freshman, Cheyenne, Wyo., gave "Reasons for Unpopularity" stressing self-centeredness and failure to share with others as primary reasons. "Speak their Language" was presented by Max Allen, senior, Washta, Ia., and Joyce Holst, junior, Coffeyville, Kans., concluded the program with "Why a Christian is often an Introverted Wallflower". Devotions were led by Kenneth Gilling, freshman, Kearney.

"Sweethearts" Is Theme of Annual Jr. - Sr. Party

"Sweethearts Through the Ages", from Adam and Eve to Dagwood and Blondie, was the general theme of the annual junior-senior party recently. Valentine's day was celebrated early, as the guests played Valentine games and the refreshments also carried out the theme.

Marie Harris, junior, Great Falls, Mont., and Dick Foulk, senior, Adrian, Mich., won the prize for making the most original valentine with red and white sheets of crepe paper as materials. Miss Irene Shipley, of the expression department, showed her dramatic talent by keeping a "dead-pan" look on her face for one minute and forty seconds while all the others present were laughing. "Valentine Bingo" was also played by the group.

Ice-cream and heart-shaped cookies, and coffee were served.

Press Guild Has Fifth Annual Waffle Supper

Stacks of waffles, impeding snow banks, and cold north wind were obstacles overcome by Press Guild members who attended the fifth annual waffle supper at the home of Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan, January 30.

Professor Morgan, Classical languages department, stated that the suppers started in 1943, and that with the exception of one held at Hullitt Hall, have been held every year in his home. The dinner followed a short business meeting.
