Attention: Y. C. Students

Dear Fellow Students:

Well, here we are about half way through the summer and getting pretty lonesome to see each other again, thinking we can hardly wait until school begins.

Surely, next year can be a great year for York College.
We must all pledge ourselves to this end and never falter in the fight for the growth of York College.

One of the most effective ways this can be accomplished is by good publicity brought on by the good will and deeds of the students of York College. You have heard it said that to the heathen the only Bible they know is the life of a Christian, that can be said of those who know nothing of York College and its standards. The only way they have of judging Y. C. is by the word and deed of the students who represent the college. We must realize that we are all representatives of York College and act accordingly.

Since I was a small child I have been told that if I "Couldn't say anything nice, say nothing at all." We must take such an adage into consideration. Much must be said about York College that people may know of it, but if that talk is bad it is better that we don't say it.

I do not contend that Y. C. is perfect but I do contend that York College is a school that we are proud of and a school that holds high the banners of Christian character and moral standards.

Let us return to school in September with a renewed zeal
to give to York College our all!

Loyally yours,

JACK ATKINSON,

Student Council President.

Faculty Studies; Degrees Sought

Many York College faculty members are exceedingly busy
this summer in Universities working on advanced degrees or improving their teaching techniques.

school in the University of New Mexico working to improve his method of presenting history to the students. Coach Mark Haight

Koontz are both attending the University of Nebraska working toward their doctorates.

graduate work in library science
in the University of Nebraska while Miss Millicent Savery is working on her master of arts degree at the same school.

Professor Joe Wampler is in the University of Kansas at Lawrence, Kansas working toward his masters degree in mathematics, and Miss Gladys Pearson spent a short time in the east studying piano.

Those faculty members who are engaged in teaching during the present summer session are

Nebr. Conference Hikes College Aid

York College received a boost in moral and financial support from the Nebraska E. U. B. Conference which convened July 18
through July 22 in the College Church at York, Nebraska. The attitude of the conference was most gratifying.

The conference voted $15,300 for the support of York College over a three year period. The money is to be used for the operating budget. Support for further financial help and help in student recruiting was also pledged.

The total amount raised by the conference over the three year period for Christian Education was $42,896. This amount was appropriated as follows: Westmar
College, 23%; York College 36%;
North Central College and Evangelical Theological Seminary at Naperville, Illinois, 19%; Conference missions, 2% and the balance of 9% to be used for campaign expenses.

Young Joins

Summer Staff

Mr. Tom Young, Professor of Education, of Fort Worth, Texas has joined the summer teaching staff of York College. Mr. Young is a graduate of Northern Texas State and received his masters
degree from Texas Christian College.

Working as principal of an elementary school in Forth Worth and serving as president of the Fort Worth Principals Society has given Mr. Young a background of experience for the elementary methods classes which he is presently teaching.

A wife and a three year old son are two of the main interests of this faculty member. He is presently making his summer home

Keeping Up with Timely News ...

For interesting reading, this paper wishes to publish timely news items received from the Associated Collegiate Press, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Don't Cram, It's nerve-racking! ... don't try to stay awake by drinking coffee or smoking. You may keep physically awake, but mentally you are just numb. Don't study in a room that is too hot or cold. If the room is overheated you will become sleepy. Those who believe brains work better in a cold temperature will probably miss the examination because of colds or more serious ailments. The absolute limit should be 2 a. m. After that the outgo of knowledge possibly surpasses the intake.

Wake Up America ... regretfully, too many college graduates today are well equipped to lead a full, well-rounded social life, but can't recall the first thing about American history and government. Corrupt government, scandalous athletics, crime waves, gambling—all can be traced to America's pathy toward education. America must wake up—before it's too late.

Slight Error ... When a sophomore at Columbia college was Physicians and Surgeons was asked how large a dose of a certain drug he would administer to specified patient, he promptly replied, "Six grains."

A minute later the student realized he had made a mistake and asked if he could correct his answer. The professor glanced at his watch and said, "Well, you can revise your answer if you like, but your patient has been dead for exactly 45 seconds."

From the Things We've Suspected All the Time Department we read the banner headline from the Tulsa Collegian: "Class of '52 Plans Graduation." That's the end!

Vacation Ramblings

BY LOUIS RACHOW

Undreamed-of glimpses of Paradise! Unimaginable wisps of Heaven! These impressions of never-to-be forgotten vacation thrills are borne on clouds of realities by the immediate and exciting summertime. Someone has so laconically stated that paradise is where we find it. If that be the case let us discover how and where to look for the Saturnia regna of all time.

If what you've pursued in those endless catalogs of delight—the descriptive and tempting travel folders—intrigues you as much as the resplendent and majestic vacation trails intrigued me, you're all ready to formulate plans for a world-wide, longed-for vacation which should be as memorable and unspoiled as the care-free days of your youth.

Now we will admit that the wampum for such an extended and creative tour must be drawn from an over-gorged purse bulging at the seams and not from an humble wallet which insists upon keeping its slender girlish figure. However, if your purse-strings determine once and for all upon remaining drawn so tightly as to choke any visions of travel that you may have, sever the dangling cords of discouragement and nourish your earnest desire for a profitable gain of vacation leisure. How? Listen and you shall hear.

Set your dial at 900 Kiplinger—Station Y. C. and discover the Elysian fields, if you will. Your library has purchased a most complete set of the "World in Color Series" under the editorship of Dore Ogrizek. The editor arranges passage for you on informal, leisurely tours through all the picturesque countries of Western Europe and, of course, the beautiful and proud regions of the United States. At the flick of a page "armchair travelers" are transported to any of the magnificently beautiful countries in the world of their choice.

The titles to date include The United States, Great Britain, France, Paris and the Provinces, Italy, Belgium and Luxemburg, Switzerland, and The Netherlands.

All the splendor, color, charm, and variety of these flourishing countries comes vividly to life in the hundreds of full-color illustrations, old prints, and line drawings which fill these indispensable guides to some of the most historic and fascinating countries of the world. These volumes of continental travel radiate a grandeur and richness which will give many of us a much needed vivid appreciation of the countries on this planet whether small and quaint or large and standardized. They will serve as ideal reference works for all zealous travelers of adventurous nature and cultivated taste.

To those of you in distress send forth an S O S. Your library will be tuned in for your signal and, at the first call, will send its staff to your rescue. We hope that we can give you a taste and a glimpse of an Arcadian land through the "World in Color Series" until your purse-strings decide to loosen their grip and allow you to spend many happy vacation months abroad.

CHAPEL NOTES S. S. Teachers Fete Students

Convocations for the summer session have been held in Hulitt Hall reception room and have featured various college personalities as speakers. The following are interesting quotations and summaries from recent chapel talks:

Dr. Bachman—"Mark Hopkins on one end of the log and a school boy on the other."

"The Selfish Giant"—My own garden is my own garden. Trespassers will be prosecuted. But spring never did come to his garden. And the giants heart melted. My garden shall be the children's playground. I have lovely flowers in my garden, but the children are the loveliest of all. Winter is just spring asleep.

"The Tooth, The Whole Tooth, and Nothing but the Tooth". The most terrible group of words in the English language is "The doctor will see you now." Given by Jim Potter.

Players Present 'Women in Council'

Last night, July 17, at 8:00 P. M. in a summer casting, the YC Players presented the play, "Woman in Council" in the dining room at Middlebrook Hall.

Greek in origin, "Women in Council" is an adaptation from Aristophanes by E. Starkey. The characters are Praxagora—Alta Aldrich, Longmont, Colorado; Three Woman—Hope Clark, Dumont, Iowa; Elaine Gile, Concordia, Kansas, and Darlene Marvel; Gresham, Nebraska; Blepytus—graduate James Potter, Grover, Colorado; Neighbor—Lowell Johnson, Scotia, Nebraska.

The plot of the production runs thus: Praxagora, an Athenian housewife, with the Three Woman, who are member of Praxagora's Sewing Circle, with due malice and forethought take over the senate and political affairs, leaving Blepytus and Neighbor plus the remainder of the husbands of Athenian women to the household duties. The complications that arise make an interesting and amusing drama.

Many thanks go to Miss Barbara Blauch, York, a YC graduate of 1949 of the expression department, who headed the production.

Three Receive Honorary Degrees

These three distinguished church leaders are the recipient of honorary degrees conferred by York College at the 1952 Commencement service.

Dr. Mary McLanachan who received the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters is the first woman to receive such recognition from York College. She has been engaged in work for the E. U. B. Church for many years and is now editor of the World Evangel Organ of the Women's Society of World Service with a circulation of 62,000.

Dr. Bernard L. Cook received the Doctor of Divinity Degree. Dr. Cook graduated from York College with the class of 1939. He is an outstanding church pastor and leader holding many offices of importance and being pastor to the Hyde Park Church of Wichita, Kansas, the largest E. U. B. church west of the Mississippi river.

Dr. Paul L. Miller also received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. Miller is at the present time superintendent of the Northern District of the California Conference of the E. U. B. Church. He is noted for his outstanding church leadership.

Dr. Savery: Not everyone can be nominated for president—some have to work. We all must find a glory in the commonplace and in so doing make life complete.

Facts, Progs and Fun

Oops! The frog's loose! There he goes! Here he is! I've got him! Oops There he goes again! Such is like in the Physiology, Health and Hygiene Lab which meets twice a week in the quiet of Hulitt Hall to learn about muscles, blood pressure, alcohol and food contents. There's never a dull moment you can bet, with Lowell J. and Elaine Gile arguing over who is going to kill the next frog or anything else that happens to be handy to argue about. They're not particular: they argue about most anything and the rest of the class enjoy it.

Instructor Dr. W. C. Noll and Laboratory Assistant Doris Fyfe have plenty to do helping eleven teachers and prospective teachers get the right reaction from the heart or brain of the frog, and even in making the muscles jump at the proper time. It isn't all work though, as you will note by the happy expression on Dr. Noll's face in the picture above.

This picture was taken during lab one afternoon when the students presented Dr. Noll with a small china frog. The following poem accompanied the frog.

This poor innocent little frog
Used to sit upon a log
But now he sits within the Lab
Hoping to evade the slab.

Softball Team In League Race

Did you know that York College had a Softball team? You would know it if you were here when it is time for the game to start and Manager Bill Watkins is trying to find enough fellows to play.

Even though it has been difficult to find enough fellows to keep the team going, the college team has won four out of six games which gives them a good chance of ranking high in the league at the end of the season. A number of fellows have played at various times, but the same nine have not started any two games. Those who have played up until now are Bill Watkins, Lee Huebert, Herbert Kamm, Dick Brooke, Fred Voris, Don Jones, Tom Hook, Harlan Watson, Art Ferguson, Lowell Johnson, Duane Epp, Don Watson, Kenneth Wilson and Randy Streeton.

Most of the fellows have been forced to play in different positions, but seem to do a grand job. You might see Lee or Bill as pitchers, Art, Bill or Herb as catcher, Fred and Dick at first base, Harlan, Tom or Lowell at second, Duane and Bill as short stop or Randy and Tom as center fielders.

The team has been handicapped by the loss of Dick and Herb to the Air Force, injuries to Don Jones and Don Watson, and the fact that some have had to work at the time of the games.

Other teams in the League are Towle Motors, Bitter-Patterson Nash Company, and Gambles. Two games are played each Wednesday night in the East Hill ball park. Scores thus far have been:

Gambles	6	21
Nash	6	1

Y. C. Trio Travels

Singing, making new acquaintances, meeting future York College students and traveling makes up the larger part of the summer for these York College girls who are representing the college on the field this summer.

Joyce Klingman, junior of Green, Kansas sings the first soprano, Diane Blauch, freshman, York, Nebraska adds the middle voice and Joan Heidrick, freshman of Virgil, Kansas makes the trio complete with the alto. Joyce King, freshman, Great Bend, Kansas serves as accompanist for the group.

Besides the trio selections the group sings, Joyce King, Joyce Klingman and Diane Blauch play piano numbers, Diane, Joan and Joyce Klingman sing vocal solos and Diane and Joyce King present two piano numbers. They are all students of Mrs. Bertha Riggs Boone and Miss Eda Rankin.

The trio was organized early during the past school year and appeared locally for many groups. The girls are all members of the touring A Cappella Choir and the trio was featured during the annual choir tour.

Some of their favorite numbers are "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," "I Heard A Forest Praying," "Only Nineteen," and "The Little Worm."

Traveling with the trio is Mrs. Fanny Luper, Field Representative for York College who is interested primarily in student enlistment. The trip has taken them through Nebraska, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado and will be completed on August 31.
