The Minister's position includes the following duties:

- Preaching the Gospel
- Teaching thought-provoking Bible classes
- Engaging in ministry outreach activities
- Conducting Bible studies
- Promoting member involvement
- Interacting with the community
- Maintaining regular office hours

A minimum of 5 years' experience as a full-time Church of Christ minister is preferred; as is a formal Bible education or extensive Bible knowledge through experience. Additional qualities include strong written, verbal, and interpersonal skills, a self-starter, and a servant heart. Being married is also preferable.

Machesney Park is located in the Northern Illinois area which has a population of 250,000 about 90 miles west of Chicago. The area offers an excellent quality of living that includes multiple school districts, affordable housing, convention centers, BMO Harris Bank Center arena, a large selection of restaurants, shopping, and award-winning parks and recreational activities.

All interested applicants should submit a resume to npcocministersearch@gmail.com. A video of one of the applicant's sermons is required for consideration.
